A quiet wedding was celebrated in the Cathedral at six o'clock Thursday morning, the interested parties being John J. Barry and Miss Minnie McDermott, the eldest daughter of Alexander McDermott. Only the relatives and very intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride wore a travelling gown of tan and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Gertrude McDermott was attired in a grey gown trimmed with turquoise blue and carried a very pretty bunch of pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. E. Owens. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. T. Caser, the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's father on Duke street and partook of breakfast, after which the newly wedded couple left on the train for a honeymoon trip through the White Mountains.

Another interesting event took place at noon Wednesday in St. Paul's church, when Miss E. May Beer, eldest daughter of the late W. H. Beer, and Henry B. Robinson were united in the bonds of matrimony. There were no invited guests, but the church was well filled with friends to see the nuptials. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Schofield, grandfather of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Canon DeVener. Mr. Robinson was attended by John L. Robinson. The bride was given away by her uncle, Col. C. B. Beer, and was most becomingly attired in a travelling gown of grey, trimmed with white pearl buttons, small hat to match, trimmed with violets, and carried a beautiful bunch of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Florence Snider, wore a costume of black and white, trimmed with chiffon, a black hat, and carried a large bunch of heliotrope. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left by the C. P. R. for a trip through Nova Scotia. They take with them the best wishes of many friends. They received many beautiful presents.
