No one could say that the past week has been dead-the first lively week of the season. The great social event the wedding of Miss Uniacke. Old St. Paul's looked exceedingly pretty, the gay, bright dresses of the ladies and the brilliant uniforms of the military being a welcome change from black coats and sombre hats. It was a never to be forgotten sight when the bride and groom passed under the arched swords of the officers and non-commiss. ioned officers of the R. A. A perfect day and Gorsebrook at its best, an ideal spot for a summer wedding. The house was very prettily decorated, and the grounds looked lovely, new dresses and bright uniform making a gorgeous scene. Afternoon tea was served and the guests inspected the presents. The silver tea service given by the officers of the b idegroom's mess was very hand. some. It would be impossible to describe all the lovely things, but all the lovely silver made one envious. The bride looked very hand some in white satin, with pearl embroidery and orange blossoms and carried a truly lovely bouquet of white roses and carnations. The bridesmaids, Misses Uniacke and Norton Taylor, looked very well in pink. Capt, and Mrs. Morris left on the five o'clock train for Cape Breton. The races on Wednesday drew a large crowd of fashionables. The grand stand, although not crowded, was still a very pretty sight. Everyone was in their best, many of the dresses worn being "wedding garments." I never saw in Halifax such a pretty turnout. We had one fault to find, and that was the stard was so dressy that we did not like to go sit down. The delays between races were a little long, but all the race; were through by six o'clock.

Judge Henry's four-in-hand made a very pretty picture as it went across the track and took up a position by the judges' stand. The races between My Lad and My Lass were worth going miles to see. The Jockey club deserve praise for the attempt to re-establish racing in Halifax. Race day was always a society day, and last Wednesday proved that society still took a little interest in horses and in races.

WINDSOR.

[Progress is for sale in Windsor at Knowless book store and by F. W. Dakin]

JULY 7 -Pleasant weather greeted the holiday makers on the 1st, and a number of strangers took advantage of it to visit our town and enjoy the programme provided by the Athletic association. The sports commenced with a calithumpian and bicycle torchlight procession which made the night or rather the early morning hours, hideous with all the horrible noises imaginable. The procession was headed by a wagon carrying the band each member of whom seemed to be playing a difficult tune on his instrument the result is better imagined than dedescribed and was anything but grateful to peace fully inclined individuals who were more interested in their night's repose than in celebrating the birthday of the Dominion. The attendance at the Athletic grounds during the day was hardly as large as usual and there were fewer en ries for the sports from places outside of the town, but the races were well contested and some new features introduced. much interest was taken in the relay bicycle race between the "R mblers" of Halifax and "Abornians." The course was from Ha'ifax to Windsor and resulted in a victory for the "Ramblers" who made the run in two hours and forty-one minutes beating the "Avonians" by three minutes. Those of the "Ramblers" took part were Messrs. Wood Kaye, Creighton, Fay, Blackadar, Symonds, Archibald, Butherford, Cunningham, and Cameron The "Avonians" were Messrs. Bancroft, Puddington, Rafuse, Smith, Thompson, Smith, Shaw, Bendler, P. L. Dimock and J. G. Dimock. The Programme for the day closed with a promenade concert by the 68th, band, and fire-works on the athletic grounds. Mrs. Wm. O'Brien and family are spending s
