Aug. 26.—A very sad accident occurred last Thursday evening just across the river, by which Mrs. Sanford Ryan of Coverdale, a well known and estimable young lady lost her life. Mrs. Ryan had driven home a relative who had been spending the day with her, taking her own perfectly gentle and quiet family horse in her two wheeled village cart, and was returning home when the accident occurred. She had taken her little three year old daughter with her, and it was through the child that the sad occurrence was first discovered. Shortly after seven o'clock, Mrs. Goodall, a neighbor of Mrs. Ryan's hearing a child crying at her door, and on opening it was surprised to find the child whom she recognized at once, so far from home, and fearing something had happened, at once went out into the road where Mrs. Ryan was found lying unconscious in the ditch, with the horse beneath the overturned cart, a few yards away. Dr. Smith and Mr. Conly were at once sent for but their efforts were unavailing, and though they remained with the injured woman all night they failed to restore her to consciousness and after lingering all next day in a comatose state she died on Friday night. It is of course impossible to conjecture how the accident occurred, unless the horse stumbled and fell going down hill, but strange to say neither the child nor the horse were hurt in any way, and but for a slight bruise on the forehead Mrs. Ryan's body showed no sign of injury. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from the family residence to the Methodist cemetery at Upper Coverdale, and was one of the largest ever seen in Coverdale numbers of friends of the family, not only from Moncton but from distant parts of the country hastening to pay a last tribute of respect to one so suddenly and sadly cut off in her youth.

Nervous Prostration

It is now a well established fact in medical science that nervousness is due to impure blood. Therefore the true way to cure nervousness is by purifying and enriching the blood. The great blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this letter:

"For the last two years I have been a great sufferer with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. I was weak in my limbs and had smothered sensations. At last my physician advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did, and I am happy to say that I am now strong and well. I am still using Hood's Sarsaparilla and would not be without it. I recommend it to all who are suffering with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart." Mrs. DALTON, 66 Alice St., Toronto, Ontario. Get Hood's, because Prominently in the public eye today. It is not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla, 25c.

Pedals....

Hinges, etc., are little things comparatively, but it is by the little things that the genuineness of our endeavor can be seen. Little things all count, and we mean that the Pratte Piano shall be as near right as men can make it.

We put no poor material even in small parts like trimmings. Pedals are made of best, solid, polished brass, and never lose their color as ordinary cast iron ones, with a thin brass or nickel coating do, from the wear of the feet.

If we are so careful with little things that the purchaser is likely to overlook, you can only decide that the whole make-up of the Pratte Piano is just right. The details of the Pratte Pianos merit investigation.

You are invited to our ware-rooms, where you can see every part exhibited and explained.

Everyone expressed themselves as perfectly delighted with the trip. Everything passed off very pleasantly excepting that, Mr. Blair who had the party in charge became so much taken up entertaining some of the strangers in the party that the yacht was allowed to run on a sand bar detaining the party for a short time.

Some of the party seeing they had missed the mark immediately began with the assistance of the crew to get the yacht off, and by working so well together, it was but a short time before they were once more afloat. Special attention, however should be made of the purser who devoted himself with a grace never before witnessed in Shedia.
