

The world of society has been rather gay of late though, unfortunately, several of the most enjoyable functions have been overlooked by PROGRESS, among them a buck board ride in which twelve young ladies participated. Then there have been several small, but bright teas by popular and hospitable hostesses, where geniality and gaiety reigned supreme. This week there are no large events to chronicle and only one or two small ones. On Monday evening Mr. Charles Troop gave an epjoyable theatre party and though small those who composed it seemed to be having an excellent time and enjoying the "Bellemere Case" very much indeed. The many triends of Mrs J. S. Carvell will regret to learn that she is confined to her room at the Hotel Aberdeen through illness, which it is hoped will be of short duration. Judith Grey, Mr. Howard D. Troop went to New York on Wednesday. On Tuesday evening Miss Jones gave a charming little whist party at Caverbill Hall. There were three tables only and much interest was taken in the play. A game supper was served during the evening to the following guests, Miss Troop, Mr. Troop, Dr. Skinner, Misses Skinner, Mr. Gordon, Miss Kathleen Furlong, Mr. Winslow, Miss Keator and the house party. Miss Dever who has been in Halifax visiting

Miss Farrell, returns home today . While in Halifax Miss Dever was a guest at the brilliant ball given by the officers of H. M. S. Crescent, and the Halifax papers speak of her gown of yellow satin with pearl trimmings, as parti cularly levely. Mrs. Carruthers of Kingston Ont., who has been visiting Mrs. Burpee left for home on Wednesday of this week. The Misses Bayard are entertaining Mrs. Clarence Dimock of Windsor.

What ever time can be spared by scciety ladies ust now is being devoted to plain and fancy work or the several baziars that are to take place later on in the season. The ladies are working very industriously and no doubt the esult will be something wonderful. Then the chrysanthemum show is being looked forward to with much pleasure by both the young ladies and the murried ones. Last year's show was such a brilliant affair that the ladies confidently expect a repetition this year. Several of those who were leading spirits then will be missed at the forth ming show, among them the Misses Pagsley who from his annual tour of American cities. Judging from his looks and what he says, he must have en. joyed himself immensely. His friends were all glad to welcome him home. A very large audience attended the anniversary concert in Centenary church school room on Tuesday evening. A delightful musical treat was enjoyed. The only; vocal number was a solo by Miss Pidgeon, which was given in that young lady's finished style. Miss Ina S. Brown contributed two readings that showed her ability as an elocution st and elicited much applause. The performers of the evening however, were Misses Dorothea Webb of Sackville and Miss Jean Bruce of Moncton, both clever and accomplished violinists. Their various numbers were rendered with a skill and intensity that leaves no doubt of the fact that both young ladies have a future before them; they were accorded a very enthusiastic reception. The entire programme was as follows: Duo violins, Spanish Dances, Moszkwaski, Misses Webb and Bruce; Children's Chorus, Robin Red Breast Morley McLaughlin; Solos by the Misses Trixie Lockhart, Fanny Jenkins, Hannah Logan and Alice McCarty; Violin Solo, a Nocturn in E.
