The Misses Mitchell of St. John were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Blomquist over Sunday. A very interesting temperance lecture was delivered in the Baptist church on Monday evening by Mrs. J. K. Barney of Providence, R. I. At the opening Mrs. D. F. Quigley presented Mrs. Barney with an address of welcome and a beautiful bouquet of white asters. All the different temperance orders of the town were present, and were greatly pleased with Mrs. Barney's lecture.

The ladies of Christ church assisted by the band made a grand success of their high tea and promenade concert at the Aberdeen rink last Wednesday evening. The weather was fine, a great crowd was present and the scene for a time was very bright and cheerful. On both sides of the rink were very prettily arranged booths constructed of spruce, etc. Miss Fannie Chapman and Miss Johnston having one where for a small sum one could hear a most marvelous fortune. The post office was in charge of Miss Hillison and Mr. Harry Bidden who delivered some very unique and startling correspondence; another booth was under the charge of Miss Sutcliffe and Mr. Burt McLeod, Miss Grace Pipes and Mr. Chas. Hillcoat were in charge of the refreshment tables. Miss Fannie Pipes, Miss Tottie Munro and Miss Taso Morse, presided over the Japanese department and the ladies of the choir were in waiting on the tea tables which I am glad to say was one of the best patronized parts of the affair.

Murray is visiting in Boston. Juno.

Th. Fools not all dead yet. Even a blind man can see that more clearly than daylight, or else why should so many continue to use ill smelling, oily, and useless preparation for the relief of pain, when a preparation just as cheap, elegant, more powerful, and penetrating as Nervilleine is, can be purchased from any dealer in medicine? Nervilleine cures instantly aches and pains. Nervilleine is the most efficacious remedy for internal pains. Nervilleine applied externally subdues the most intense pain almost at once.
