Mrs. Collard gave an 'at home' on Friday; of last week about a hundred guests were present. I shall hope to give an account of the work exhibition organized by Mrs. Erskine that is to be held in the Commissioner's house this Wednesday.

The Garrison Dramatic club had a capital house for their first performance of 'Sweet Lavender' last Friday evening. It is a difficult piece for amateurs and heavy one, but on the whole it went off well.

The honors of the evening belonged chiefly to the ladies, who did most excellently. Mrs. Taylor made a capital Mrs. Gilliland and was cleverly made up to look far older than her very limited number of years.

Mrs. Collard was unfortunately a little late, as it was not handed over the footlights until after Mrs. Gilliland's exit. Mrs. Tobin, as Minnie Gilliland, did charmingly and looked and acted her part to perfection.

The most becoming, and on her next entrance wore a really lovely evening gown of pink brocade trimmed very slightly with lace, over which she wore a lovely cloak of dull green lined with pink.

Mrs. Crichton's part suited her admirably, or rather she did it admirably though she scarcely looked her supposed age, even in her plain black gown and bonnet.

Mrs. Edgerton's part suited her admirably, or rather she did it admirably though she scarcely looked her supposed age, even in her plain black gown and bonnet.

The bicycle party is getting to be an entertainment which is always with us; there were four last week, of which those given by Mr. Atkinson and Miss Wilby were the largest.

Mrs. Collard was to have had a big bicycling party on Friday afternoon, but the wet weather turned it into a tea, which was very cheery and pleasant.

There have been several small dinners given during the week. Mrs. Montgomery Moore, Mrs. Daly and Mrs. Erskine each having one.

Mr. Elliott, R. A., a very old member of the Garrison and a familiar figure in Halifax society for the last seven years, left last week for England and will be greatly missed by his many friends.

Capt. Duffus, R. A., arrived last week from England and will spend some time with his mother, Mrs. James Duffus, before leaving to join his battery in Egypt.

NEW GLASGOW.

[Progress is for sale at F. O. Pichard and H. H. Henderson.]

Nov. 5.—All who attended the concert in Jam's church hall on Friday evening were delighted with the well rendered program, which was indeed a musical treat.

The new Glasgow football team (juniors) played a match with Pictou on Wednesday and won 6 to 0. Misses Louise Kitchin, Laura Henry, and Lilly Munro of River John were visiting friends in town last week.

Miss Hyndman of Charlottetown, has at the request of St. Andrew's church choir, consented to remain here for the winter.

The marriage of Mr. J. E. Condon, junior partner of the firm of Stiles & Condon, took place at St. Dunstan's church, Fredericton, N. B., on Tuesday the 29th Oct., in the presence of a large congregation.

Rev. Mr. Robertson preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening, New St. Andrew's church was full to overflowing, he preached an eloquent and impressive sermon.

The Y. P. S. E. of New St. Andrews were "at home" on Monday evening to the pastor and congregation. The first part of the evening was taken up with a short musical programme, then followed...

Another Halloween party was given by Miss Gertie Phelan at her home on Upper Victoria street. The mysteries of the future were revealed by a catalogue of games specially devoted to that season.

Mr. D. W. Douglas has returned home from a shooting trip to Sheet Harbor. Mr. Noel B. Steele is spending this week at Port Elgin duck shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dunbar gave an "at home" on Tuesday evening in honor of their guest Miss Elvira Belyea of St. John. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tennant, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, Misses Belyea, Stephens, Black, Hickey, and Messrs. Dr. Hall, Lawson, Parley, Kempton and others.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Biden gave on Thursday evening the largest party that has taken place here for a long time, including married and single in the large list of guests and cards and dancing for their entertainment.

Progressive whist came first in order and one only required a glance over the spacious parlors to be convinced that pleasure and beauty held the monopoly. The fortunate winners of the first prizes were Mrs. W. D. Main and Mr. N. A. Curry, the booby prizes going to Mrs. A. P. MacKinnon and Prof. Sterne.

After supper a brief dance programme was fully enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in a handsome gown of black silk and was cleverly assisted in all points by the genial host. I dare not discriminate in the way of gowns there being so many pretty and stylish constructions, among which, a lovely toilette extremely becoming to the wearer, was a black silk with sleeves and corage of primrose yellow silk and jet trimmings worn by Mrs. D. C. Allan.

Mrs. B. C. Munro wore a light gown of cream satin with garniture of cream chrysanthemum and roses that was exceedingly pretty and becoming. Mrs. C. R. Smith wore a pale green silk dress with jet trimmings which was very becoming. Among the black gowns quite the handsomest was worn by Mrs. Robert Pugsley, being heavy black silk and trimmings of ostrich feathers and jet. Mrs. J. M. D. Townsend was in black silk with bodice of pale green.

Mrs. N. A. Curry wore a stylish gown of black with corage of red satin. Mrs. E. L. Fuller, in a pretty toilette of black with trimmings of black lace and silver. Mrs. W. D. Main wore a very handsome dress of black brocade satin and trimmed with a fichu of cream point lace, which was very becoming.

Another pretty black gown was that worn by Mrs. C. W. Hewson. Mrs. C. T. Hillson was in black velvet with corage of cream satin overlaid with jet. Mrs. A. D. Munro was in light brown silk with trimmings of ruby velvet, and Mrs. Harvey Pipe wore a heliotrope silk the waist being overlaid with cream lace. Mrs. Brown looked very well in black with lace trimmings, and a crown much admired was that of Mrs. B. E. Patterson, Mrs. T. R. Dunlap was in black and heliotrope and Mrs. MacKinnon wore a very becoming dress of green with iridescent trimmings. Mrs. James Rogers and Mrs. C. S. Cameron both were wearing black silks. Mrs. Cameron's being relieved by a bouquet of cream chrysanthemums. Mrs. C. S. McLeod who was one of the prettiest ladies present was in a gown of black satin beautifully trimmed with cream satin ribbon and white trimmings of green. Among the young ladies quite the prettiest dress was worn by Miss Youill of Kentville being burnt orange silk with leather trimmings.

Miss Munroe wore a very pretty pale blue dress which was most becoming and a pink gown worn by Miss Hillson was also much admired. Miss Brown wore an odd and pretty dress of pale cerise silk trimmed with black velvet. Miss Maine wore white and yellow with trimmings of yellow sa in ribbon and Miss Gwen Main who always looks pretty was in a gown of pink and pale green trimmings, among the many pretty dresses was that of Miss Laura Johnstone which was yellow brocade silk, Miss Harr's was in green and white silk with trimmings of green satin ribbon.

The gentlemen were, Mr. T. R. Dunlap, Mr. W. D. Main, Mr. C. S. McLeod, Mr. B. C. Munroe, Mr. B. E. Patterson, Mr. Harvey Pipe, Mr. J. Mody & Townsend, Dr. E. L. Fuller, Dr. C. W. Hewson, Mr. C. R. Smith, Mr. N. A. Curry, Prof. Sterne, Dr. McQueen, Dr. McCully, Mr. J. R. Douglas, Mr. J. H. D. Uglis, Mr. Robinson, Mr. A. M. Border, Mr. H. Maine, Mr. C. S. Benedict, Mr. H. A. Tremain, Mr. W. H. Rodgers, Mr. A. D. Taylor, and Mr. C. R. Cummings.

Mrs. D. N. Douglas came home on Saturday from Dorchester where for the past two weeks she has been the guest of her mother Mrs. Hickman. Miss Ella Hillson came home last Wednesday from a very pleasant visit to friends in Fredericton and St. John.

Mrs. J. A. Dickey went to Windsor last Friday to visit her daughter Miss Mollie who is a student at Edge Hill. Mrs. Turnbull of Halifax has been paying a visit to her sister Mrs. C. S. Cameron Victoria street. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Maynard returned to their home in Ottawa last week. Judge Townsend of Halifax spent Sunday in town.

Miss Helen Pipes and Miss Fanning of Mt. Allison spent Sunday at Miss Pipes home. Miss Grace Clark who has been spending the month with friends in Tidnish came home the first of the week.

Mr. R. N. Chapman who has been visiting his sister Mrs. C. A. Black returned to her home in Boston on Wednesday. Miss Florence Hewson and friend Miss Evans of Mt. Allison spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Hewson, Maple Terrace.

On Friday evening, Mrs. Sleep entertained the whist club for her daughter Miss Alice at her home on Victoria street. The prizes were won by Miss Fanny Pipes and Mr. Harry Biden who, especially fortunate, having captured the prizes three times in succession. The other prizes were taken by Miss Lena Welling and Charlie Hillcoat.

These being the order of the week, Mrs. A. P. McKinnon, Lapinche street, gave it a merry closing on Saturday evening by giving a progressive whist party for her daughter Miss Freeda, who is certainly a very pleasing young hostess, and probably a guest never parted more recently, but there was a time limit and consequently no tarring. The prizes were won by Miss May Brown and Mr. George Douglas, the booby being taken by Miss Lottie Munro and Mr. J. R. Douglas. Among the guests were, Miss Maizie Harris, Miss Rachel Love, Miss Beatrice Fuller, Miss Brown, Miss Munro, Miss Gertie Hillcoat, Miss Florence Hewson, Miss Maud Youill, Miss Evans, and Miss Lottie Munro. Mr. Chas. Hillcoat, Mr. J. R. Douglas, Mr. Geo. Douglas, Mr. Garnet Chapman, Mr. Bert McLoughlin, Mr. Bert Davidson and Mr. C. R. Cummings.

Miss Bishop is visiting her sister Mrs. E. Jocelyne. Miss Kelly left on Monday for New York. Miss Annie MacMillan and Miss Bill McCurdy, went to New Glasgow last Wednesday for a short visit.

Mr. Bernacini returned on Saturday from a trip to Cape Breton. Quite a number of Halloween parties were given last Saturday evening though the fact that they had to break up before twelve spoilt most of the charm. The little ones were entertained at Mrs. J. A. Kirk's, Mrs. Broughs and Mrs. W. H. MacDonnell while the older ones betook themselves to the chess factory and spent the evening very pleasantly; not being one of the favored number I cannot give an account of the amusements but judge from the peals of laughter that echoed on that quiet street they must have been many and varied.
