ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Tramor, and at the bookstores of R. S. Dagatt, G. S. Wall and J. Vroom & Co. In Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

Aug. 12 .- In spite of the extreme heat of the past two days, the streets of bo h cities have been gay with people, and Calais has been crowded with visitors from out of town who have come to see the Veteran Fusiliers of Massachusetts who arrived yesterday and are the guests of the city of Calais and its hospitable citizens. The Fusiliers arrived in the steamer "Rose Standish", and were met at the pier, by company K, the Calais Band, and a visiting band from Lewiston, Maine, and numerous carriages containing prominent citizens. They marched down the principal streets, and to the hotels, where dinner was served. In the afternoon the distinguished visitors were driven about to different points of interest along the St. Croix, and a number attended the home race at the Calais driving park. In the evening there was a banquet in the St. Croix hall, given by the ladies of the city of Calais, and a band concert. The places of business on Main street Calais are gaily decorated with flags and bunting and also a number of private residences. This morning a large party of excursionists came from Eastport, to attend the grand military parade, which took place at half past ten o'clock. There was horse racing at the Calais park again this afternooh, and this evening the ball will be given in St Croix hall which has been most beautifully decorated for the occasion. I hope to se able to give a description of it in my letter next

WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. Loan &Co.]

Aug. 12.-Miss Van Wart gave a most delightful lawn party at her tather's residence Victoria Terrace on Tuesday atternoon; Mr. VanWart's splendid mans:on and beautiful grounds are perfectly adapted to entertaining large parties, and a more picturesque scene would be difficult to imagine than that presented. Numerous small tables were placed under the groups of ornamental trees, hammocks and rugs and fancy chairs were found everywhere while brilliant flowers bloomed profusely in every corner. Tea consisting of every delicacy was served at six o'clock. Mrs. Van Wart who has not quite recovered from her accident did not come down stairs but held court in the reception hall. In the drawing room an orchestra of violin Miss Baird; piano Mi-s Atherton; and piccolo Mr. Jones, played many pretty selections during the evening. A brilliant illumination of the grounds during the evening with Chinese lanterns made a fairy like picture. Dancing was the amusement for the young people. Ices were served about nine o'clock.

Mr. and Miss Vanwart received their guests on the lawn, Miss Vanwart wearing a most becoming dress of cream and pale blue, with cream lace and blue satin ribbon trimming. Many pretty dresses were worn by the ladies, which added to the brilliancy of the scene. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Winds ow, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Bookstore, by W. G. Stanfield, S. T. Hall and M. B.

Aug 12,-The Moncton Electric street railway so long looked forward to is now really in operation having been formally opened for triffic yesterday morning. Several rial trips were made the night before, in order to test the condition of it, but yes terday the road was officially declared open, the first car starting out shortly after eight o'clock. It was filled with the most prominent citizens who had been invited by the directors to make the first trip. The car was literally "crowded to the doors" as those on board numbered not only the president and directors of the road Messrs. J. L. Harris F W. Sumner, E. C. Cole and F. W. Givan, and R. A. Borden, secretary treasurer, but a number of the clergymen of the city, Revs. J. E. Brown, John Prince, E. Bertram Hooper, S. T. Teed, and W. W. Lodge of Maryville. Mayor Chapman, Messrs. P. S. Taylor, John Patterson, J. T. Forbes, W. C. Croasdale, James Kay, S. C. Wilbur City Engineer McCready, and Marshal Foster. They were a very merry party, and to all appearance enjoyed the trip immensely. The car and its oc cupants were heartily and frequently cheered during the trip. And now the once quiet streets resound with the ciang of the gong, and the whiri of the electric car every few minutes and we are feeling as important as any city of fifty thousand inhabitants; but I suppose we shall get used to our recent acquisition in time and will not be so haughty. Mrs. R. B. Jack and children and Miss Milliken returned last week from a month's visit to "Idle-
