[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the bookstores of G. S. Wall, T. E. Atcheson and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

JUNE 2.—The first days of summer are with us and during the bright summer days we hope for during this month, wedding bells are to ring often, merrily and gaily both in St. Stephen and Calais. On the ninth of the marriage of Miss May McCullough of Calais to Mr. Scott Bradish of Eastport, is announced to take place. On the sixteenth Miss Ida Gertrude Smith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith will be married to Mr. J. Aubrey Upham, this is to be a home wedding at three o'clock in the afternoon, and the happy young pair leave on the afternoon train for a honeymoon trip, to be spent in Nova Scotia. On Wednesday the twenty third Miss Josephine Hamm, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic L. Hamm, will be united in matrimony with Mr. George Downes of Calais. I hear this also is to be a quiet home wedding which is to be regretted, as Miss Hamm is a favorite among her friends, and acquaintances who would like to be present in church to witness her marriage and happiness.

The Etude with a number of invited guests, held a jubilee anniversary on Friday evening in Elder Memorial hall. Mayor J. T. Whitlock one of the honorary members who had been requested to address the club, was himself pleasantly surprised when Miss Portia Dastan, the president on behalf of the 'Etude' presented his worship with an address, also a portrait of Her Majesty Queen Victoria. The mayor made a suitable reply and on behalf of the director presented each member with a souvenir badge in the shape of a small British flag. A congratulatory letter was read from Mr. E. G. Nelson St. John, and the new Diamond Jubilee hymn of Canada was sung, after which Master Lawson Whitlock gave an interesting entertainment with the Graphophone. Union Jacks were suspended from various parts of the hall and bonbons were served by 'The Etude' in red white and blue cornucopias to their delighted guests; the singing of God Save the Queen terminating an enjoyable evening.

On Wednesday evening last Miss Katherine Copeland gave a reception at her home in honor of Miss Josephine Hamm and Mr. George Downes, to announce their engagement which occurred last week. They were a number of young people present to offer their congratulations and good wishes for happiness to Miss Hamm and Mr. Downes. There was a musical programme and at the close of the evening supper was served. The house was prettily decorated with flowers, and the dining-room was charming with the sweetness and brightness of numerous red and white carnations. Mrs. Copeland was attired in a handsome dress of black silk trimmed with jet, Miss Copeland wore a costume of pale blue and black silk. Miss Hamm was radiant with happiness and looked very pretty in a dainty gown of pale blue silk trimmed with white tulle, which was most becoming to her fairness. The reception was one of the pleasantest of the kind ever given in Calais, and was greatly enjoyed by the guests, as well as the happy young couple for whom it was given. The young ladies who assisted Miss Copeland to entertain the guests were Miss Lillie Eaton, Miss Sadie Clarke and Miss Marion Curran.

Decorations day was observed very quietly in Calais on Monday, owing to the disagreeable down pour of rain which ruined the day. Many and elaborate were the preparations, but the rain spoiled all, and only a carriage with the floral decorations and a few soldiers visited the cemetery, to decorate the graves of the departed heroes. The stores were closed, and business suspended throughout the city, and flags were at half mast. In the evening Captain F. N. Scott, delivered an oration and the school children sang several choruses very fleetly, having been under the instruction of Miss Mina McCusick for some time.

THE RESORT.

Rev. T. C. Mellor, Rural Dean, Christ's Church Rectory, Guysboro, N. S. referred recently to K. D. C. in the following words:—"I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the value of K. D. C. for Indigestion. I have been a victim of Dyspepsia for some time but your remedy worked wonders. Whenever the slightest symptoms return I resort to K. D. C. and instant relief is the result. I never fail to recommend K. D. C. wherever I go." Can more convincing proof be called for than the above. We say emphatically that K. D. C. is the Greatest Cure of the Age for Indigestion. The K. D. C. Pills are splendid for the Liver and Bowels and cure chronic constipation when used with K. D. C.

WOODSTOCK.

[Progress is for sale in Woodstock by Mrs. Loane & Co.]

JUNE 2.—Woodstock has been quite lively for the last few days and it is to be hoped that the dreadfully dull season has passed. On Thursday evening last the 'Bank Clerks' gave a very pleasant little dance in the Opera House. It was a small and early commencing at 8 and finishing up at twelve o'clock. The young ladies wore fancy silk waists, with dark skirts. Mrs. Grenville James and Mrs. James Creighton were the chaperones—Mrs. James wore a most becoming dress of pink silk, white trimmings, Mrs. Creighton, pale blue silk.

The University of New Brunswick Glee club gave a highly entertaining concert in Graham's Opera house on Friday evening. The programme consisted of choruses, duets, solos, instrumental solos, selections from the orchestra and an amusing farce entitled "Chums." The orchestra was very good and played several selections "Nymph of the Mountain" "King of the Ocean" "Entr'acte" and others.

Mr. J. A. Perkins played a very pretty cornet solo entitled "Sea Flower Polka," a violin solo "When the Swallows Homeward Fly," by Mr. Frank Bayfield was remarkably sweet. A French solo with tenor chorus, "Mourir Pour La Patrie," by Mr. R. Sisson was one of the most pleasing features of the programme and received a most enthusiastic recall; vocal duet, "Go Pretty Rose" by Messrs B. Lamont and Frank Bayfield. The choruses were sung in a lively and spirited manner especially "Choral March" "Rosalie" and "A Capital Ship."

The farce, "Chums" was very funny and well acted. The part of Mr. Breed's supposed niece which was taken by Mr. W. H. Harrison was excellent, the general appearance and costume being well gotten up.

Mrs. Breed as presented by Mr. J. M. Robinson was very amusing. Miss Flora Strong as personified by L. W. Barker was good. Mr. P. Hughes as the Farmer, and J. J. F. Winslow as the son returned from college were remarkable good. Mrs. Grenville James played some of the accompaniments in good style.

"Sousa's Band" will give a concert in the Rink on Thursday afternoon which will doubtless be very largely attended as it is the first appearance of this grand organization in Woodstock.

JUNE 2.—In spite of the late spring, and persistent cold and rain, the owners of summer cottages at Bediac Cape, are gradually preparing for the summer campaign by the sea. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chandler and family transported their household goods to the Cape the week before last, and the other members of the pleasant little summer colony which has grown up around that lovely spot in the last years are preparing to depart, as soon as the weather will permit; so I fear our summer quiet will soon settle down upon us.

Mrs. T. W. Bell of St. John who has been spending the winter in town, left yesterday for Dorchester where she intends spending the summer months at Hotel Windsor. Mrs. Bell was accompanied by her little son, and will be joined later in the month by her little daughter who is at present attending school at R. thessy.

The many friends that Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hickson have made during their two years residence in Moncton will hear with regret of their departure from our city, Mr. Hickson having decided to return to Bathurst their place of residence, and enter into business there. Mr. Hickson will be especially missed as she was not only a universal favorite, but an earnest church worker, and a leading member of St. George's church choir. Mr. and Mrs. Hickson departed on Saturday followed by the best wishes of their friends.

Amongst the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wetmore, Miss Cole, Mrs. R. L. Botsford, Mr. John Sangster, Mr. R. A. Borden and the Misses Borden.

Moncton has reason to feel very proud of the musical abilities of its young ladies, five of whom have won special mention by the press, and have taken leading parts in this season's musical programme at Mount Allison. For many years one of the most frequent criticisms passed upon Moncton by the residents of other places was that there was such a dearth of musical talent here. But surely this reproach is removed now, since we can proudly boast of having contributed so many of the best musicians of the term. The names of these talented young ladies are Miss Laura Newman whose exceptional talent has been a frequent subject of comment, Miss Sadie Borden, who has shown such ability as a pianist, Miss Sallie Benedict who made her debut as a violinist this year, and won much praise by her graceful performance. Miss Bruce who has long been a favorite with Sackville audiences, and is regarded as one of professor Chisholm's most promising pupils and Miss Alice Wetmore daughter of Mr. J. H. Wetmore of this city who made her first appearance before a Sackville audience this year as a vocalist. In spite of the fact that Miss Wetmore is but a first term student she won golden opinions the strength and purity of her voice being phenomenal, and the correctness of her style all ready very apparent. I understand that Miss Bruce and Miss Wetmore intend giving a recital in the Opera house early next month, and though they are only coming before the public in the modest guise of students, their entertainment will be well worthy of patronage and it is to be hoped that they will re-

THINGS OF VALUE.

A baby in a buggy is a good thing, but no man likes to push it along.

"Do you know, Tom kissed my hand last night." "He always was discriminating."

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germ of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other.

We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailties of nature are led into congeniality and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquillizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making actively a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substances.

Improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Mellicent—Aren't bicycle lamps annoying. Miriam (vexatiously)—Yes; mine goes out every time I run into anybody.

Leola—Do you think you could ever learn to love a man? Hazel—Bring on your man.

THEY NEVER FAIL.—Mr. S. M. Boughner, Langton, writes: "For about two years I was troubled with Inward Piles, but by using Parlee's Pills, I was completely cured, and although four years have elapsed since then they have not returned. Parlee's Pills are anti-bilious and a specific for the cure of Liver and Kidney Complaints, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Headache, Piles, etc., and will regulate the secretions and remove all bilious matter."

Kean—Isn't your wife afraid to drive that horse? Steam—Not at all. It's the people she meets who are scared.

HOW TO CURE HEADACHE.—Some people suffer untold misery day after day with headache. They rest neither day or night until the nerves are all unstrung. The cause is generally a disordered stomach, and a cure can be effected by using Parlee's Vegetable Pills, containing Mandrake and Dandelion. Mr. Finlay Wark, Lyndersay, P. Q., writes: "I find Parlee's Pills a first class article for Bilious Headache."

"Am I too late?" asked the physician, as he hurried in. "Yes, doctor; he died peacefully half an hour ago."

The Proprietors of Parlee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explain itself. Mr. John W. Beck, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parlee's Pills for Dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a family medicine Parlee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a cathartic.

He—I wish I had Bendarlee's soft snap. She—Don't you though. His brains make a good living for him.

It may be only a trifling cold, but neglect it and will hasten its fangs in your lungs, and you will soon be carried to an untimely grave. In this country we have sudden changes and must expect to have coughs and colds. We cannot avoid them, but we can effect a cure by using Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that has never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest.

When a man is sure his friends never talk about him behind his back, it is sure that all his friends are dead.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveller, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used DR. THOMAS'S ELECTRIC OIL for inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas's Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me."
