The funeral of Miss Bertha Chesley, matron of the General Public Hospital, whose death last Monday occasioned deep regret, took place from the residence of her father, Mr. J. A. Chesley, on Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended.

The staff of the hospital walked behind the hearse and the medical profession was represented by several leading physicians. The floral tributes were unusually numerous and beautiful, among them being from the nurses of the hospital a large cross of white roses, calla lilies and carnations. The staff of the hospital sent a magnificent wreath of white carnations, roses, lilies, asparagus and maiden hair fern, and the hospital commissioners sent a large crown. The Social club of which the deceased young lady was a popular member, sent a large crescent of white roses, carnations and lilies.

The services at St. Luke's church were conducted by Rev. F. W. M. Bacon assisted by Rev. R. Mathers. The choir sang the hymns Days and Moments Quickly Flying, and Thy Will Be Done, and chanted the Nunc Dimittis at the close of the service. Rev. Mr. Mathers delivered a brief address, in which he paid a graceful tribute to the deceased in her work as a trained nurse and gave expression to many words of comfort and consolation to the family of the deceased. As the remains were being taken from the church Handel's Dead March was played most effectively on the organ.

FREDERICTON.

[Programs is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

MAR 24.—The pleasure we have had in anticipation of a company from the Royal Berks of Halifax coming here has been considerably dampened by the information that we are to lose our own officers who have been so long residents of Fredericton and much regret is being expressed that this change will cause the removal of Col. Gordon and his most estimable wife and family from us. Mrs. Gordon has always been a favorite socially and will be much missed. Mrs. Gordon and children leave next week for Kingston Ont., where they will spend the summer.

After a pleasant visit of six months spent in England and Ireland, Miss Nan Maunsell arrived home on Monday afternoon, she was met in New York by her parents Col. and Mrs. Maunsell who accompanied her home. Senator Temple and bride left on Monday for Ottawa, where they will remain during the session parliament. Mrs. H. V. B. Bridges spent a few days in St. John last week.

Mrs. M. S. Hall has cards of invitation out, for a ladies' afternoon at home for Friday March 26th. Miss Ceila Armstrong of St. John is the guest of the Misses Powys on College Road. Mrs. Golding is entertaining a party of friends at a "candy pull" at her pleasant home on Brunswick street this evening.

Miss Jennie Hall is visiting her aunt Mrs. M. S. Hall, George St. Mr. F. Wayland Porter left yesterday afternoon for a visit to the "Hub". March winds are whispering to us of a very interesting event to take place soon, in which a lady well known in society circles and prominent in church work and a gentleman from the shades of an educational institute in a neighboring county will be the principals.

Miss Belle McPeak has returned from visiting her sister, Mrs. John O'Brien at Nelson. Mrs. F. S. Risteen left today for Boston where she will spend the spring months, she was met at the Junction by Miss Crossdale who will accompany her to Boston. Miss Kathleen Crossdale and little Maggie Dutcher, who have been visiting Mrs. Risteen, left today for Moncton.

Miss Jean Neil entertained her young friends to a pleasant dancing party on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Chesnut have a little daughter who arrived on Monday. The members of the Royal Anacanon will give an At Home to their friends on Wednesday evening next when a pleasant evening is in anticipation. Mr. Hedley V. Edgecombe is expected home from his pleasure trip to Boston, on Friday. Miss Martin entertained the "Spegetti" club most happily at her home on Tuesday evening. Miss Jane Rainford is in St. John visiting her aunt Mrs. Miles B. Dixon. CRICKET.

MONOTON.

PROGRESS is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Bookstore, by W. G. Stanfield and at M. B. Jones' Bookstore. MAR 24.—Society people in Moncton are taking their amusements in a very quiet and decorous manner just now, as befits the Lenten season, and as the tea is recognized as a thoroughly orthodox form of Lenten dissipation, afternoon teas, and just an occasional small and early whist party, make up the sum of our amusements at present.

Lack of space prevented me from giving more than a very brief notice last week, of Mrs. E. B. Chandler's tea, but I trust it is not too late now for a more extended description of one of the social events of the season. It was a "pink tea" and the flowers and table decorations were all in a delicate shade of rose pink, many of the dishes partaking of the same dainty color. The drawing rooms were prettily decorated with tins of pink appearing here and there, and several of the ladies who assisted Mrs. Chandler were bodices and ribbons of the prevailing color.

The charming young hostess received her guests in a gown of black silk with bodice of pink silk. Mrs. R. H. Howson, Mrs. L. Soars, Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mrs. C. F. Hanington and Miss Trixy Hanington assisted Mrs. Chandler in receiving her guests, and dispensing tea.

Mrs. Alston Cushing of Alma street gave a very pleasant afternoon tea on Friday to a number of the young friends of her daughters. Besides the Misses Cushing, the hostess was assisted by Miss Georgia Cole, Miss Dot Borden, Miss Trixy Hanington, and Miss Tristes of Pittodric, who dispensed respectively, coffee, tea, chocolate and ice cream. A limited number of gentlemen were included in the invitations, and of course added considerably to the attractions of a most successful entertainment.

Mrs. E. C. Cole of Alma street entertained the skating club at whist, on Saturday evening, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. C. P. Harris of Steadman street will entertain the club to night and whist will again be substituted for skating, as there is no ice, and I fancy the skating is pretty well over for this season.

A goodly number gathered in Victoria rink last Thursday evening to witness the hockey match of the season and a spirited and warm game it was! The contest was between the Mount Allison team of Sackville and the Victorias of this city and resulted in a victory of one to nothing in favor of the latter, who enjoy the proud distinction of finishing the season without having been defeated once.

Miss Anna Crossdale who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Risteen of Fredericton returned home last week and will spend a short time with (CONTINUED ON EIGHTH PAGE.) Umbrellas Made, Re-covered, Repaired Dual, 17 Waterloo.

GRAND MILLINERY OPENING

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, 29th, 30th and 31st.

A Large and Elegant Stock of Paris, London and New York Pattern

HATS and BONNETS,

LEGHORN HATS direct from Italy, and a lovely selection of MILLINERY NOVELTIES.

In order to make our opening a success, the greatest care has been taken in buying our patterns and other goods, everything having been purchased direct from the manufacturers, and we have no hesitation in saying that nothing more stylish and beautiful will be shown in the Maritime Provinces this spring.

When ordering our stock we thought we would be in larger quarters by the time the goods arrived, but cannot get possession before May 1st. We have too many goods for our present store, and have marked the stock very low.

Buyers attending the Wholesale Millinery Openings will find it to their advantage to inspect our stock.

A CORDIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED TO ALL.

THE PARISIAN, 165 Union Street.
