

SOCIETY

One of the most charming social functions that has been given here for a long time was the water party given by Mr. Arthur Thorne last Saturday afternoon...

Mr. John S. Calkin and Miss Calkin of Boston are in the city for a few days. Mr. John E. Fraser and Miss Fraser of Newburyport are among recent arrivals in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Word arrived this week from Providence R. I. for a short visit to the city. A quiet wedding was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother...

Miss Blaise of Duke street is entertaining Mrs. William Wilson of Ottawa. Among the visitors entertained this summer by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cathers were Miss Mamie Heenan of Halifax...

Mr. Daniel Mallin attended the Canadian Bar association meetings in Halifax this week. Mrs. A. S. Jones has returned from a pleasant river trip taken for the entertainment of her friend and guest Miss Browne of New York.

Another event of the week was an informal reception by Mrs. Whitaker of Sydney street which is spoken of as particularly pleasant and agreeable. The number of guests was limited but the gathering was bright and enjoyable.

Mrs. F. C. Peters of Germain street was another hostess of the week who pleasantly entertained a party of guests on Tuesday evening at an informal little evening party. A charming evening was spent the graceful hostess leaving nothing undone that would in any way contribute to the pleasure of her guests.

Miss Furlong is still in Montreal, with Miss Anglin and is being entertained extensively. The hostesses of the afternoon at the golf grounds on Thursday were Mrs. Walker and Mrs. William Hazen...

On Wednesday evening the flower show was formally opened with much eclat by His Honor the Lieut. Governor the assembly being one of the most brilliant seen in St. John for some time. The large rink completely hemmed in by spruce trees...

Just inside the main entrance a large shield upon which was designed the city's coat of arms in plants was arranged and had many admirers. To the music of the 22d. band on Wednesday evening, the Artillery on Thursday and the City Cornet on Friday the large crowds in attendance, promenade the walks and arbors...

On Thursday evening the decorated bicycle parade was held and although not more than a dozen young ladies participated in the event yet the display was highly creditable. Their pretty Parade costumes and gaily decorated wheels made the procession one long to be remembered. The young ladies who took part were Misses Nan Barnaby, Sadie Brown, Lou Girvan, Lou Kimball, Daisy Fairweather, Ella Macaulay, Flossie Leck, Nellie MacMichael, Winnie Barnaby, Bertie Rishnie and Edith Fleming.

The ladies who had charge of the different departments were entering in their efforts to please their numerous patrons. Mrs. F. McNaughton and two children who have been visiting the former's sister Mrs. McNaughton of Annapolis returned this week accompanied by the latter who will remain for the exhibition.

Mr. B. A. Stammers and family return next week from Duck Cove where they have spent the summer occupying one of Mr. Jack's cottages. Mr. Frank Milligan spent part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Davidson of Annapolis.

Miss Lou Irwin and Miss Gertrude Arnold of Montreal are guests at Mrs. Thomas Seeds, 145, Duke street. Miss Annie E. Shirreff of Boston Mass, is visiting Mrs. W. C. Whitaker, Queen Square.

Mr. W. H. Burns formerly connected with the Bank of Nova Scotia here, but now located in Montreal was here recently en route to Halifax to spend a short time here upon his return. Messrs S. B. Thompson and Arthur E. Anderson both former St. John residents are here from Boston on a visit.

Mr. John Cougle drove to St. Andrews last week to visit his family who are staying at Mr. John Wade. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Timmerman and a party of lady friends spent Sunday last in St. Andrews.

Miss Lou Irwin and Miss Gertrude Arnold of Montreal are guests at Mrs. Thomas Seeds, 145, Duke street. Miss Annie E. Shirreff of Boston Mass, is visiting Mrs. W. C. Whitaker, Queen Square.

Mr. W. H. Burns formerly connected with the Bank of Nova Scotia here, but now located in Montreal was here recently en route to Halifax to spend a short time here upon his return. Messrs S. B. Thompson and Arthur E. Anderson both former St. John residents are here from Boston on a visit.

Mr. George Blair jr returned this week from Ottawa. Mr. A. L. Prescott, Miss Prescott, and the Misses Gooch of New York are here on a short visit.

Dr. Horsfall and Mrs. Horsfall of Boston are in the city this week. Mr. J. W. Hayden and Mrs. Hayden Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hayden were here from Malden Mass. this week.

Lady Van Horne and the Misses Van Horne, closed their summer residence Hoven-Koven at St. Andrews for the summer and returned to Montreal. Messrs. Steve Gerow and Tom Luzzey accompanied by Charles Gerow of Boston are spending a brief vacation at Upper Gagetown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mott who have been living at 272 King street east for over a year have broken up housekeeping for a time. Mrs. Mott who is at present with her sister Mrs. Anderson of Union St. will spend the winter at Grand Bay with relatives and Mr. Mott will make his headquarters in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hudson returned Wednesday from their holiday trip through the Annapolis valley. Miss Emma Hopper has been paying a pleasant visit lately to her sister Mrs. Tits of St. Martins. Among the St. John visitors to Digby this week was Miss Florie Crookshank who was a guest of Mrs. Robinson.

The Messrs DeForest are in Bridgetown visiting Miss Lillian Fowler at "Fairfield Farm."

Mr. Likely of this city spent a week lately at the Grand Hotel Bridgewater N. S. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rowe of New York are spending a week or two in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cookson spent last Sunday with Mrs. J. E. Van Wert, Greenwich. Miss Nellie Carpenter is a guest of Miss Lillian Flewelling at the latter's home in Greenwich.

Miss Carrie Guphill is here from Grand Manan on a visit to relatives. Miss Mabel Carson who has been taking a course in the G. P. H. training school is spending a short time with her mother in Grand Manan.

Miss Hilda Harrington has returned from Kentville where she spent her holidays with her cousin Miss Chase. Miss J. Lockhart was a guest lately at the residence of Capt. Vaughan, St. Martins.

Miss Georgie Patterson has returned from a summer's outing, spent with St. Andrews's friends. The St. John guests at the Algonquin last week included Mrs. C. W. Weldon, L. Col. Tucker, and Mr. Alfred H. Martin; while among those at Kennedy's from here were: B. L. Garter, Jas. W. Carleton, H. H. Brittan, J. P. Crookshank, Hugh P. Kerr, Wm. L. Harding, Will C. Fleming, Thos. A. Daly, Alfred H. Martin, J. O'Roagan, G. M. Brown, Harry McDonald, Jas. Slater, James Robinson, Wm. Dean, F. W. Jenkins, G. H. Heveonor, F. E. Kumball, George Costly, D. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reed, Mrs. W. C. Purvis, John Mathews, Sam Ritchey, Miss Mabel McCallum, George Dickson, T. McMurray, Miss Martha Lynch, Miss N. Lynch, Miss Mary E. McMurray, F. Appleby, Mrs. J. H. Pratt, Gertrude Pratt, D. J. Doherty, L. B. Knight and wife, E. F. Bardeen.

Miss Ella Morrison is visiting friends at Mill Stream. Mrs. A. Patterson left on Thursday for Paillet-phi, where she will be the guest of her sister Mrs. J. Harry Pepper. She was accompanied by her little nephew Master Le Roi Pepper who has been visiting here for some time. Before returning to St. John Mrs. Patterson will visit friends in Boston and New York.

The season at both hotels has been very successful, the Algonquin being especially prosperous. The guests are enthusiastic over the treatment accorded them by the management of the favorite hostelry. The past summer has been unusually gay with social teas, picnics, parties, receptions etc and the visitors to St. Andrews have departed with the firm conviction that it is an ideal place in which to spend the summer.

Mrs. Mary Horton and Mrs. Louise Whitney spent a day or two lately at Indian Island guests in the families of Capt. John McKay and Mrs. Gilman Chaffey. Miss May Berrie has returned to St. Andrews after a delightful visit to friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rowe of New York are spending a week or two in the city. Mr. and Mrs. William Cookson spent last Sunday with Mrs. J. E. Van Wert, Greenwich.

Miss Nellie Carpenter is a guest of Miss Lillian Flewelling at the latter's home in Greenwich. Miss Carrie Guphill is here from Grand Manan on a visit to relatives.

Miss Mabel Carson who has been taking a course in the G. P. H. training school is spending a short time with her mother in Grand Manan. Miss Hilda Harrington has returned from Kentville where she spent her holidays with her cousin Miss Chase.

Miss J. Lockhart was a guest lately at the residence of Capt. Vaughan, St. Martins. Miss Georgie Patterson has returned from a summer's outing, spent with St. Andrews's friends.

The St. John guests at the Algonquin last week included Mrs. C. W. Weldon, L. Col. Tucker, and Mr. Alfred H. Martin; while among those at Kennedy's from here were: B. L. Garter, Jas. W. Carleton, H. H. Brittan, J. P. Crookshank, Hugh P. Kerr, Wm. L. Harding, Will C. Fleming, Thos. A. Daly, Alfred H. Martin, J. O'Roagan, G. M. Brown, Harry McDonald, Jas. Slater, James Robinson, Wm. Dean, F. W. Jenkins, G. H. Heveonor, F. E. Kumball, George Costly, D. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reed, Mrs. W. C. Purvis, John Mathews, Sam Ritchey, Miss Mabel McCallum, George Dickson, T. McMurray, Miss Martha Lynch, Miss N. Lynch, Miss Mary E. McMurray, F. Appleby, Mrs. J. H. Pratt, Gertrude Pratt, D. J. Doherty, L. B. Knight and wife, E. F. Bardeen.

Miss Ella Morrison is visiting friends at Mill Stream. Mrs. A. Patterson left on Thursday for Paillet-phi, where she will be the guest of her sister Mrs. J. Harry Pepper. She was accompanied by her little nephew Master Le Roi Pepper who has been visiting here for some time. Before returning to St. John Mrs. Patterson will visit friends in Boston and New York.

The season at both hotels has been very successful, the Algonquin being especially prosperous. The guests are enthusiastic over the treatment accorded them by the management of the favorite hostelry. The past summer has been unusually gay with social teas, picnics, parties, receptions etc and the visitors to St. Andrews have departed with the firm conviction that it is an ideal place in which to spend the summer.

Mrs. Mary Horton and Mrs. Louise Whitney spent a day or two lately at Indian Island guests in the families of Capt. John McKay and Mrs. Gilman Chaffey. Miss May Berrie has returned to St. Andrews after a delightful visit to friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hornacastle received her friends on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Mr. Daniel Mallin attended the Canadian Bar association meetings in Halifax this week.

Mrs. A. S. Jones has returned from a pleasant river trip taken for the entertainment of her friend and guest Miss Browne of New York. Mrs. James E. Toole received a large number of callers this week at her residence on Prince William street.

Miss Nellie Lynch, Miss Josie Lynch, and Miss Blanche Connell, left this week for Halifax where they will attend the Sacred Heart Conv. The young ladies who went via Digby were accompanied by Mrs. David Lynch.

Miss Ada Kearns returned the first of the week from a trip up river. Miss Jennie O'Neill of Main street, has returned from a pleasant visit to Mrs. John Tierney of Annapolis.

Rev. Charles O. Scovill and Mrs. Scovill of New Haven Conn., are spending a week or two here. The foreign visitors this week included Mr. and Mrs. DeLange of Paris.

Mr. W. K. Reynolds was in P. E. Island this week on his way to the Magdalen Islands where he goes in the interest of an Intercolonial guide book. Miss Lugin arrived from Boston recently on a visit to Mrs. Morton Harrison of Celebration street.

Mr. Charles Morton left this week for Montreal where he will reside in future. Many friends assembled at the depot to give him a hearty send off. Miss Nellie Carpenter is in Greenwich visiting her friend Miss Lillian Flewelling.

Miss Nina Belyea is spending a week or two with out of town relatives. Mr. James Hannay returned last week from a pleasant visit to Greenwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore and family returned this week from their summer outing. Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kelley came from River Herbert, Cumberland County, U. S. for a day or two in St. John this week.

Mrs. Mckeown is in Charlottetown visiting her mother Mrs. (Rev.) G. M. Campbell of that town. Mr. Perley J. S. Lunnay returned Tuesday from a visit to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rodgers of Montreal are making a brief stay in the city this week. Mrs. Roop is in Truro staying with her son Mr. C. E. Roop.

Among the recent American visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hood of Philadelphia. After a day or two spent in looking around the city they went to Fredericton and later on to Halifax for a few days visit.

Mrs. A. D. Daley of Digby is spending a week or two with relatives. Rev. Job Shenton and Mrs. Shenton spent a few days in Moncton last week.

Miss Robinson is visiting Digby friends. Mrs. Mehan is in Parrsboro visiting her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan.

Miss Law was a guest recently of Miss Grace Stinson of St. Andrews. Mr. John Cougle drove to St. Andrews last week to visit his family who are staying at Mr. John Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Timmerman and a party of lady friends spent Sunday last in St. Andrews. Miss Lou Irwin and Miss Gertrude Arnold of Montreal are guests at Mrs. Thomas Seeds, 145, Duke street.

Miss Annie E. Shirreff of Boston Mass, is visiting Mrs. W. C. Whitaker, Queen Square. Mr. W. H. Burns formerly connected with the Bank of Nova Scotia here, but now located in Montreal was here recently en route to Halifax to spend a short time here upon his return.

Messrs S. B. Thompson and Arthur E. Anderson both former St. John residents are here from Boston on a visit. Mr. George Blair jr returned this week from Ottawa.

Mr. A. L. Prescott, Miss Prescott, and the Misses Gooch of New York are here on a short visit. Dr. Horsfall and Mrs. Horsfall of Boston are in the city this week.

Mr. J. W. Hayden and Mrs. Hayden Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hayden were here from Malden Mass. this week. Lady Van Horne and the Misses Van Horne, closed their summer residence Hoven-Koven at St. Andrews for the summer and returned to Montreal.

Advertisement for WELCOME SOAP. Features an illustration of hands being washed and the text: 'Who ever thinks a perfect thing to see... Thinks what n'er was, nor is, nor e'er shall be... All rules, exceptions have, and this of Pope Can't be applied in fairness to WELCOME SOAP. If Pope were living now he would revise The quoted lines, and say that he who tries One perfect thing—and only one—can find, Provided that he keeps WELCOME SOAP in mind. TRY IT WELCOME SOAP CO., ST. JOHN, N. B.'

Advertisement for Quickheal. Text: 'If Horses could talk... what a hum there would be on the streets about the wonderful way in which Quickheal cures Scratches, Galls and Sores. Every man who owns a horse should try it. SOLD EVERYWHERE'

Advertisement for Blue Flame Oil Stoves. Features an illustration of a stove and text: 'Blue Flame Oil Stoves SAFE AND DURABLE. 2 or 3 Burners. Burns with a clear blue flame, without smoke, and a heat of the greatest intensity. Burners are brass, and so made that wicks can be replaced in a few minutes as in an ordinary lamp. Wicks are 10 inches in circumference and should last one year. Patent Wick Adjustment keeps the wicks from being turned too high or too low. Oil Tanks situated away from burners, connected thereto with small tubes; the oil is thus continually cool and prevents odor. Frames and Tops are made of steel and cannot be broken. No perforated plates or braces soakage, thus preventing odor. Boils one quart of water in four minutes. surround the burners to retain any char or oil. THE McCLARY MFG. CO. LONDON, TORONTO, MONTREAL, WINNIPEG, VANCOUVER If your local dealer cannot supply, write our nearest house.'

Advertisement for Dew Drop. Features an illustration of a woman at a table and text: 'A very pretty wedding took place at 12 o'clock to day in the new episcopal church, when Margaret McKay, daughter of Sheriff Tibbits, was married to Mr. Frank P. Tulker. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and the bridal couple stood under a floral bell, while the ceremony was performed by Rev. Scovill Neales of Sussex, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hopkins of Birch Ridge. The bride looked charming in a blue cloth travelling dress, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Sadie Tulker also looked well in a brown and white silk gown, and carried pink and white carnations. Mr. Tom Badell assisted the groom, and (CONTINUED ON EIGHTH PAGE) Dew Drop. Give me Progress please'