Last week was a very cheerful one, with plenty of parties, picnics, and dinners, large and small. There has also been the tennis tou mament at the grounds of the South End club, but the interest taken in that has not been nearly as great as in former years. Tennis, except for enthusiasts, who will never weary of it, has faller into disfavor; bicycles have supplanted it for most people, and golf for a few. Nevertheless the spectators at the club grounds this week have seen some very pretty play. To-day there will be tea and plenty of people looking on though it takes a good deal to get society to leave the Yacht club.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Odell gave a very pleasant though not very large garden party in the very pretty grounds behind her house on Tobin street. Tes was served out of doors, and the rain, which threatened all the atternoon, happily held off till evening. The Misses Odell wore very dainty toilettes, as usual, and people were well dressed, as they have been this summer, in pretty muslins and light gowns.

Mrs. M. A. Curry was at home on the same afternoon and had an enormous number of people, her large rooms being crowded. Miss Robertson as sisted her sister, Mrs. Curry as hostess, and looked charming in a smart summer frock. There was a Layton, Miss McKay, Miss Sutherland, Miss Anna Sutherland, Miss Leckie and the Misses Marion and Edith Leckie, Miss Plimsoll, Miss McKenzie Miss Frances Yuill, Rav. A. W. Eaton, Rev. Chas. Vernon, Messrs Swainson, Gurney, W. P. McKay, W. McKenzie, F. W Cuttler. M:s. Lewis' gnests thorougely enjoyed the atternoo I and the elaborate and charmingly dispensed tea. The ladies were all looking exceedingly well in smart and becoming gowns.

Mrs. L. B. Archibald and Miss Lulu are home from their summer outing at Charlo, N. B Despite the most strenuous efforts of the gentlemen's eleven playing a match :d game with the Amaz n's, last Saturday, the result was sn easy victory for the former.

Mrs. Fred Prince give a charming evening last Friday, a bicycle run was followed by an elaborate supper and dance. Among Mrs. Prince's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wilson, Mrs. C. A. Armstrong, Mrs. E. Smith, Hallfax, M ss H. Bige low Miss Snook, Miss Tibbitts, Lynn, Mass Miss Jessie McLean, Miss Wetmore, Miss Williams, Miss H Lawrence, Messrs. W. A. Spencer, W. A. Fetch, H. C. C. Quill, H. V. Bigelow, Cotton, G. H. Williams, A. V. Smith, W. K Vincent, H. V. Crowe. The Dublinese orchestra furnished music, and it is needless to add, that it was an especial feature. of the evening.

Mrs. Taylor entertained quite a large party at tea in the Park yesterday afternoon.

The social event of the week will be Mrs. J. E Bigelow's dance tomorrow night for which cards have been out for about a wiek.

SEPT 1 .- The dance at Lansdown last Thursday night given by Mrs. J. E. Bigelow as a delightful birthday surprise for Miss May Bigelow who re turned just the previous evening from visiting Fredericton friends, was a success throughout, neith er trouble or any expense being spared to make it so; an authority present last Thursday evening whose edict we accept as infallible, pronounced it the prettiest and most successful function since the Bachelor's ball of last autumn. The grounds and approaches to the house presented a very fairy like appearance lighted by numerous incandescent lights and prettily coloured chinese, lanterns. The warmth and beauty of the night, rendered dancing in the spacious pavilion which had been erected in the open air, for that Cowans. purpose, doubly pleasant. The Dublinese orches tra, provided most recherche music throughout. Mrs. Bigelow received assisted by Miss Bigelow, in nile green crepon, arranged with pink rose buds, Miss Helen Bigelow, white India muslin, Among the large number of guests present were: Dr. and Mrs. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and A. J. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Meissner, Acadia Mines, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gourley Mr. and Mrs F. Prince, Mrs. H. P. Rowe,

The funeral of the late Mr. Odell took place vesterday from St. John's church, Ven. Arch Deacon Kentbach officiating. A large and representative concourse of citigens followed the remains, to the plac of interment in the |English church cemetry.

In the evening Sir James and Ludy Erskine gave an official dinner to celebrate the host's promotion to the of full admiral.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Borden gave one of the largest and prettiest "at homes" of the season. Her grounds were thronged with guests, and some of the loveliest dresses imaginable were to be seen there. Tea was served of the lawn, and as the day was perfection, it was altogether an out-door party. Tha guests of honor were the members of the Behring Sea commission, and the whole affair was very peasant, and, of course, beautiful ly done.

On Wednesday evening there was a very small but very cheery dance given at the commissoner's house by Mr. Dathan and Mr. W. Dathan for their sister, Miss Dathan, who is at present the guest of Mrs. Moren, Pleasant street. There were only about twent - five people present. but dancing was most energetic and the party a late one.
