MONCTON.

Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Bookstore, by W. G. Stanfield and at M. B. Jones Bookstore.

Aug. 18.—We have been having an unusual amount of gaiety in town during the past week, a perfect whirlwind of dissipation in fact, for the summer season. The first of the functions has a most enjoyable little dance given last Wednesday evening by Mrs. J. S. Benedict of Harris avenue for her daughter, Miss Sallie Benedict. The guests who were all young people, numbered about twenty five, and it is scarcely necessary to say that they enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Mrs. P. S. Archibald gave a large ladies tea on Friday afternoon the majority of the guests consisting of the hostess's married friends, with the usual sprinkling of young people. The tea and drawing rooms were charmingly decorated, the color scheme of yellow, being carried out through them all. Miss Archibald assisted her mother in receiving the guests while Mrs. Edward McSweeney Mrs. L. Somers and Mrs. F. P. Reid dispensed tea, coffee, chocolate, and the Misses Janie Harris, Ethel Sumner, Selma McKean, and Helen Cole, made charming assistants in looking after the wants of the summer guests. The number of fresh and pretty dresses worn both by those receiving and also by the guests, made the room resemble a bright flower garden, and the effect was most attractive.

The dance celebrating Miss Archibald's entrance into society, and her seventeenth birthday at the same time, took place last evening and was by far the most brilliant function of the season. The guests numbered over a hundred, many of them from other places. The spacious parlors were given up to dancing, supper being set in the dining room, the latter being what is termed a "running supper" and continued throughout the evening. The music was provided by Baker's orchestra which is a sufficient guarantee of its excellence, the floors were perfection and as both Mr. and Mrs. Archibald are perfect hosts, and the fair debutante herself ably assisted them, it goes without saying that the evening was delightfully spent. Amongst the guests were: Mr. Justice and Mrs. Landry of Dorchester, and their guest Miss Barry of Ottawa Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hall, and their visitor Mrs. Wegan of Smith Falls, Ont. Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. L. Somers, Mr. and Mrs.

FOOT ELM Hardens Tender Feet.

The trials and troubles associated with the feet are often such as to cause great annoyance and discomfort. The Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Toe Nails make walking a misery. When the feet swell, ache, tire easily, sweat profusely, or become sore readily, there is only one remedy that will overcome these disabilities and that is FOOT ELM. It keeps the shoes sweet and dry and the feet cool and clean.

Mr. W. J. Calgary, Cor. Wilton Ave. and Berkeley St., Toronto, Ont., says:—"I found Foot Elm an excellent foot remedy. I have been troubled with tender, sweating feet for a long time. The soles of my feet were always very sore. The use of Foot Elm has removed the soreness and excessive sweating. It proved a splendid remedy for my feet."

Price 25c. Sold by druggists and shoe dealers, or sent by mail on receipt of price by addressing Stott & Jory, Bowmanville, Ont.

The BEST PILLS.—Mr. Wm. Vandervoort, Sydney Crossing, Ont., writes: "We have been using Parmelee's Pills, and find them by far the best pills we ever used." For Delicate and Debilitated Constitutions these pills act like a charm. Take a small dose, the effect is both a tonic and a stimulant, mildly exciting the secretions of the body, giving tone and vigor.

Liberal advertising, whether it be valuable or not, invariably is a factor of liberal business.
