Mrs. Abbott's dance at her pretty house on the Arm was quite the largest and most exciting event of last week in society. As small dances go, it was quite a large affair, and, being capitally done, was yery pleasant. The floor was excellent, and there were plenty of dancing men, in spite of the missing naval element, which hostesses must be content to do without until the coming of spring. Dancing was in the drawing room and supper in the dining room, while there was plenty of sitting out room provided. The music also was very good, and altogether the only dance of the week was a charming one. Most of the guests were unmarried, but a few married people were present, chiefly intimate friends of the house.

Some very pretty gowns were worn and people as a rule looked well. The supper table was unusual'y pretty in its decorations, and the flowers all over the house charmingly arranged.

Invitations are out for a dance this (Wednesday) evening at Dr. Wickwire's, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Huddleston, who are returning very shortly to England in order to spend Christmas at their home. The outdoor skating enthusiasts spent a most disappointing week, several skating parties having been arranged on which the snow and the unexpected thaw of Thanksgiving day had a most disconcert. ing effect. It is however only a question of waiting, since the ice is certain to be with us before long, and the winter girl will appear in all her glory. It is a curious fact in Halifax that the belles of the summer season seem to disappear almost completely during the winter, their place being taken in society by either the younger or the more atheretically inclined. Smart frocks for rink wear are already being constructed, and the skating season bids fair to be a gayer one than usual. It seems a pity that the inside of the rink could not receive a little decoration, it is not to say the least a cheerful background for the bright dresses and hats of the lady skaters. Of course any elaborate decorations are out of the question, owing to the expense, but even an improvement in the lighting of the building would work wonders. Even more than the usual number of Halifax people seem to be going to England for the winter. Major and Mrs. Commeline have given up their house and Mrs. Comm line goes to England almost immediately, followed at a later da'e by Major

Miss Lawson, who has always since her first appearance in society been one of the most really popular of Halifax young ladies, leaves this month for Kingston, where she will make her home with her grandm ther, Mrs. Lawson, who was years ago one of the best known of Halifax hostesses. Miss Lawson will be much regretted by her many friends, who all hope for her return at some future

Lady Poore who was much liked during her short residence in Halifax, and is already becoming known for her clever magazine stories has written her first book, which was at once accepted by a London publisher. The novel is entitled "My Sister Barbara" and will appear at once. Colonel Moore R. E. and Mrs. Moore wno have been delayed here on their way to England by the illness of their daughter, will leave very soon now, as Miss Moore is very nearly recovered. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow also leave soon for the other side.

The Badminton club is progressing slowly but surely, and is to meet at the drill shed from four to six on two afternoons a week. Tea is to be a feature, of course, and tea members will be admltted. Of course skating people will be less enthusiastic about it than nonskaters, but it will be a good way of passing stormy afternoons and will be a means of bringing people together.

Among the passengers recently on the Parisian were Mrs. Buller Smith, whose husband arrived some time ago with the Leinster regiment, and Mrs. Brideson, who has come out for the winter

The Ethel and Lillian Tucker company will play here during the holiday season. They come splen. didly recommended by the press of the different cities in which they have appeared so far this season, St. John being especially enthusiastic over their good work. A feature of the performances is the Dyffeyn trio who delight the audiences with their beauti ul singing, little Ethel Dyffryn, it is claimed well deserving her sobriquet of the baby Patti, so wonderful is her work in this line. The plays announced all call for beautiful costumes and elaborate stage effects, and there is no deubt but that the engagement will be most successful.

Dec .- St. George's Sunday school teachers held a "mysterious tea" in the school house on the evening of Thanksgiving Day. It was well patronized and the proceeds will be used to replenish the library and to furnish a Christmas tree. The menu cards were exceedingly amusing, and so were the mock art gallery and chamber of horrors arranged by Mr. Harry Woodworth and his sisters, which provided an immense amount of fun for the "People taken in for five cents."

Mrs. Ross Smith was prettily gowned on her reception days Monday and Tuesday of last week, ooking extremely well.

Mrs. F. Loasby and little daughter arrived home on Thursday from a visit to friends in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eville are receiving con gratulations on the birth of a lit le daughter. Mrs. C. R. Smith of Amherst, who has been spending a few days with her parents, returned home yesterday.

TRURO.

[Progress is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton, & Messrs. D. H. mith & Co.] DEC 1 .- Mrs. C. B. Foster is here from St. John spending a few days with home friends. Miss Jones of the W. U. Telegraph office leaves on Monday next to visi home friends. The impromptu dance gotten up last Friday for that evening proved a great success. The decorations in the ball room were still all up and the floor even in better condition than it had been for the larger function of the preceding Tuesday. Tae chaperones were, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. T. W. Crowe, Mrs. H. A. Lovett. Among those en-Joying this very pleasant evening were: Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Gourley, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. DEC 1 .- The usual social quitetude which generally precedes the Christmas festivities has settled upon Amherst in right earnest and unless one draws from the past or reaches into the future there is nothing very brilliant to note. Dancing seems almost obsolete and the pleasant functions that were of so frequent occurrence a few years ago seem to have been ru'ed out to a great extent and "clubs" have become the order of the day, as near as can be at present ascertained there are eight of these organizations great and small, with another slowly developing, and all bid fair to furnish many pleasant evenings to the various patrons.

I regret to note the departure of Mrs. Lockwood and family who left town on Tuesday for their future home in Guelph. Mr. Lockwood will leave on Saturday having been appointed manager of the Bank of Montreal of that place; during their

When a man feels out-of-sorts, when his head is achey, dull and heavy, his body lazy, his nerves jerky, his sleep broken, his appetite finicky, his skin sallow, his breath foul and his mouth bad-tasting, he is having a struggle with ill-health. If he is wise he will take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It gives edge to the appetite and makes the digestion perfect. It invigorates the liver. It makes rich, red, pure blood. It puts vim into every organ and fiber of the body. It drives out all impurities and disease germs. It imparts the glow of health to the skin and the vigor of youth to the muscles. It tones the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It builds firm flesh, but does not raise the weight above Nature's normal. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. All medicine stores sell it. An honest dealer will not suggest a worthless substitute for the sake of a lit-

Among the pleasant things in store for us next week is a grand concert which is announced for Monday evening in the Academy of Music, Madame Marie Harrison assisted by Miss Webster Miss Newman and the Misses Webb teachers at Mount Allison, and the Glee club of Sackville will be the performers, and without doubt it will be something of high merit and fully worth hearing.

DORCHESTER.

DEC. 1 .- A very quiet but none the less interesting event took place here last Wednesday evening when Mr. James Friel and Miss Maude Wetmore eldest daughter of Mrs. T. Medley Wetmore were married in St. Edward's church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Cormier. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Nellie Wetmore, Mr. Roy McGrath supported the groom. The bride wore a lovely gown of mauve and white striped silk trimmed with chiffon and ribbon. Miss Wetmore was dressed in a dainty and becoming gown of white dotted muslin. Every effort was made to keep the marriage a secret but the hour leaked out as such things will and at six o'clock there was an expectant crowd gathered outside St. Edward's church. The doors were kept locked for about half an hour, a few people went away without seeing anything of the ceremony, but the more curious waited and were rewarded by being allowed to go inside after a time. After the ceremony the happy couple went to the home of the bride's mother where a sumptuous supper was served. Only the family and intimate friends of the bride were asked to the house. The bride received many elegant presents.

Quite a number of visitors honored our little town at Thanksgiving. Among the strangers in town were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allison, Master 'Elmhurst', while in town, has returned home, to Beverley and little Miss Gretchen Allfson of Sackville, who were the guests of Mrs. George W Chandler at Maplehurst.

Miss Faulkner and Miss Gibson and Messrs Smith and Hale of Mount Allison were the guests of Mrs. Joshua King for Thanksgiving day.

DEC. 1.—The supper and sale held by the young ladies' association of St. Luke s church on Thanksgiving day was eminently successful. The young ladies were very materially aided by the married ladies of the congregation. The decorations of the numerous tables were in yellow presenting a very festive appearance. The young ladies wore caps and aprons of yellow. A flower table at which chrysanthemums, carnations and roses were rapidly sold, a fancy table laden with many dainty and artistic creations, and a refreshment table were the attractions of the upper room. Those taking part at the various tea tables and other departments were: Mrs. Neales, Mrs. Bellis, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. Ingraham, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Augherton, Mrs. Glidden, Mrs. Tapley, Mrs. Bourne, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Wm. Connell, Mis. Clark, Miss Smlth, Miss Dibblee, Miss Hilda Bourne Miss Viva Connell, Miss Maud Wright, Miss Maud Dibblee, Miss G. Connell, Miss M. Stewart. Miss T. Augherton, Miss N. Gables, Miss F. Smith, Miss F. Phillips, Miss Jenner and others.

The concert given by the band in the Opera house on Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable entertainment. A good programme was carried out Several waltzes played by the band were highly appreciated by the young people who danced them, as well as by the more sedate portion of the audience who listened to the inspiriting airs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wetmore spent Thansgiving in Woodstock returning to Truro on Monday morning. Mrs. Wetmore's many friends were charmed to welcome her again.

Mrs. R. R. Jenes and Miss Beulah returned from Fredericion on Wednesday. Mrs Jones left for Boston and Providence on Monday for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart returned from a few weeks visit to Boston on Saturday.

SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville by W. J

DEC. 1.—Thanksgiving day was not observed to any great extent the exceedingly unpleasant weather making most people inclined to stick closely to their own firesides. There were a few quiet family dinner parties; a number took advantage of the low railway fares to visit neighboring towns and a few visitors came here. Not as many students as usual went bome this year from the institutions but with the aid of sundry boxes of good things kept holiday in the schools.

Mrs. Archib ld spent several days at the hospitable mansion of Sheriff McQueen, Point de Bute. Miss Cook was the guest of Mrs. Robert Borden, Moncton lately. Miss Thomas, Miss Ogden and Miss McLeod visited also in Moncton at Mr. Clifford Robinson's. Miss Williams and Miss Cleave were the guests of Mrs. Wesley Fawcett Upper Sackville.

Mr. Waiton Miles of Moncton spent Thursday in Sackville.

Miss Ida Warwick of St. John went home for the holiday from the Ladies' college. A small but very agreeable tea was given by Mrs. H. Powell on Wednesday from four to six, in honor of Miss Palmer the guest of Mrs. Wood. Tea was served in the large drawing room on little tables each with a very dainty centre piece. It was strictly a ladies affair but Mr. Powell arrived in time to say a few words, pleasant and witty with each group of ladies, before the hour of departure. The guests were: Mrs. Wood, Miss Palmer, Mrs. Hunton, Mrs. Wootton, Mrs. Calkin, Mrs. Borden, Miss McLeod, Miss Johnston, Mrs. Charles Ford, Mrs. Trites, Miss Stewart, Miss Annie Trueman.

On Friday afternoon an At Home was given by Mrs. Brecken, the guests being chiefly the teachers of the Ladies College and the university young men. Among the other visitors were Miss Stewart and Miss Annie Trueman, Mr. Sprague and Mr. Parlee of the Academy, Professor Tweedie, Mr. Charles Stewart and Mr. Will Harri on. Tea was served on the usual small tables in the dining room and Miss Winifred Brecken and Miss Edna Austin, neices of the hostess, assisted the waitress in look ing after the creature comforts of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs John McDonald and child expect to leave Sackville this week and make their home in Hopewell, Pictou County. Mr. McDonald has been for some years the very efficient cutter in the tailoring establishment of Geerge C. Ford, but has decided to go into the business on his own account in Hopewell where a good opening has offered. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will be missed by a large circle of friends, many of whom have been giving them farewell entertainments, among which was a very enjoyable datce given by Mrs. Montrose, Main street.

Mrs. W. H. Chatterton Smith, who has had the position of type-writer in the office of Powell, Bennett and Harrison, leaves this week for her home in O.tawa. The vacancy will probably be filled by Miss Grace Towse, who held the position previously to her finding employment in Boston. Everyone will be glad to welcome Miss Towse back to her native town but many regrets have been expressed at Mrs. Smith's departure.

Mrs. Herbert Wetmore, while with her father Mr. Freeman, who death was spoken of last week, received a telephone message from Liverpool stating that her husband was seriously ill, so much so that she was obliged to return home before her father's

On Saturday evening one of the receptions which are given every four weeks took place at the Ladies college. This was rather a special occasion as the University students were all invited to tea. The evening was spent in conversation for which topics on small programme cards were furnished, but it was by no means obligatory to stick to the text, some prefering instead sticking to the same partner all the evening In spite of the rain a number were present from the village, among them were Messrs. Fraser, Mowbray, C. Fawcett, and Dr. Sprague.

The Rev. Joseph Sellars, who was to have filled the pulpit of the methodist church on Sunday last was prevented from doing so by the bad weather and our roads which between here and Point de Bute were anything but desirable.

The roads were also accountable for the non appearance of Rev. Mr. Steele of Amherst in the baptist church at the evening service. In consequence of driving some distance over the frozen hubbles, Mr. Steele was suffering from a lame back so instead of the usual evening service a meeting of the young peoples christian union was held in which all took part; the subject under discussion being missionary work among the negroes. Judge Emmerson presided and made a short but effective speech. There was a large congregation present.

In St Paul's church the rector announced that in future the weekly prayers which have been held from time immemorial on Friday evening would take place instead on Wednesday. The change which seems a wise one has been made chiefly because on Friday evening so many concerts and entertainments take place, which all and particularly the young people wish to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allison drove across the marsh on Sunday afternoon to call on Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milner in Point de Bute. Miss Elsie Harper and Miss Agnes Prescott of
