

Among the pleasant little events of the week were two teas one of which was given, by Mrs. George McLeod and the other by the Misses Bayard, the cool weather making such a form of hospitality very welcome and enjoyable. A third was given by Mrs. Keator on Thursday afternoon for the entertainment of Mrs. Charteris Symonds, now of London but formerly of this city, where she has many friends who will be very glad to welcome her among them once more. Mrs. Keator was assisted in her pleasant duties by Mrs. Ruel who poured tea, and the Misses Bayard and Miss Lollie Harrison. During the afternoon the ladies who called were Mrs. Symonds, Mrs. Isaac Burpee, Countess de Bury, Mrs. (Dr.) Allison, Mrs. Starr, Mrs. Carl Clinch, Mrs. Bois de Veber, Mrs. Cudlip, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. Charles McDonald, Mrs. De Soyres, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, Mrs. W. Hazen, Mrs. Jos. Allison, Mrs. J. McLaren, Mrs. Woodford Smith, Mrs. Thos Walker, Mrs. E. G. SOLD EVERYWHERE

Where the Shoe Pinches.

Often it nips just over your favorite corn, or squeezes the ingrown toe nail. Wearing shoes, perhaps, to you is not fraught with much pleasure.

Your feet sweat in them, get tired in them, swell and ache, especially in the warm weather.

Then, too, your shoes don't smell as sweet and clean as you'd wish. All these little troubles may be obviated by the use of Foot

Elm. It gives you comfort with your feet. Makes walking easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Toe Nails. Keeps your feet and shoes sweet, dry and wholesome, and renders shoe wearing a delight.

J. B. Stringer, Chatham, Ont., says:—"I cheerfully recommend Foot Elm. It relieves that hot burning sensation and has benefited my feet very much."

Price 25c. a box by all druggists and shoe dealers, or sent by mail on receipt of price by addressing Stott & Jery, Bowmanville, Ont.
