On Monday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Blackadar, Pleasant street, gave a large at home to welcome Kev. Mr. Armitage, the new rector of St. Paul's church, and Mrs. Armitage. A large and representative gathering from St. Paul's congregation was present and had an excellent opportunity of making the sequaintance of the new incumbent. Mrs. Armitage, who was exceedingly popular in the parish recently vacated by her husband, will be a great addition socially here, as well as in church work.

On Tuesday evening the Lieut-Governor and Mrs. Daly gave a dinner of forty people for his excellency the Governor General and Lady Aberdeen, who arrived in Halifax on Tuesday morning for a short visit of three days at Government house. Dinner was served in the ball-room, which was beautifnlly decorated with flowers and autumn leaves. Among the guests were Admiral and Lady Fisher the Misses Fisher, dressed alike and looking very pretty-Lord and Lady Kelvin, the Mayor and Mrs. Stephen, the Attorney-General Colonel Leach -both Mrs. Longley and Mrs. Leach are at present away-Col. and Mrs. Arstruther-Duncan, Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Curren, Dr. and Mrs. Tobin, Captain Riddell, and Mr. Ward, H. M. S. Renown, M:s. A. Dickey and Colonel Kingscote.

Lady Aberdeen wore a very handsome gown and looked extremely well in spite of her long railway journey. Mrs. Daly, who has not been well of late, seemed quite recovered and looked exceedingly handsome in black. There were some lovely jewels worn. Lady Aberdeen's being much remarked. After dinn - r a small reception of some thirty or forty people were held, and the whole affair was exceedingly pleasant and as free from stiffness as a state dinner can possibly be. On Wednesday night Sir John and Lady Fisher gave a dinner for their Excellencies at admiralty house followed by a small reception and dance. Lady Fisher was in black, and the Misses Fisher wore white, their dresses being exactly alike. Lady Aberdeen wore black with red, and looked very well. After dinner the guests adjourned to the balcony behind the drawing room to see the illuminations on board the flagship, which was precisely the same as at the Queen's Jubilee. The whole ship was outlined in light and was a most lovely stght, even the white ensign being [clearly visible. It was not a late entertainm ent, their excellencies retiring quite early, which was, of course, the signal for other guests to leave. Or Tuesday evening a second dinner was given at Government house, at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the guest of honor. Among other people present were Sir John and Lady Fisher, Hon A. G. and Mrs. Jones, Senator and Mrs. McKeen. Sena_ tor and Mrs. Power, the Mayor and Mrs. Stephen, Dr. and Mrs. Farrell, Hon. Arthur Colbourne, Hon, Sidney Fisher, minister of agriculture, and a good many others, some forty n all. Dinner was in the ballroom as on Tuesday, and the band played throughout the evening in the anteroom. Mrs. Daly was in black, looking very nice, as did Miss Daly. Lady Aberdeen wore a very handsome gowa of peach colored brocade. which was most becoming. Mrs. MacKean was v ry well dressed in green, and Miss Tourton look :d as usual, extremely well. Many other hand-

Dr. and Mrs. Wickwire, Miss Cameron and Miss Lewis arrived last week from England and will be followed shortly by Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor Huddlestone aud Miss Wickwire. Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor-Huddlestone will remain for some weeks, and will stay at Keith Hall the old home of the bride.

Mrs. and Miss Chearnley are making a short visit to Halifax, where they have many old friends. Mrs. Chearnley who was a Miss McNab, was married here to Colonel Chearnley and spent most of her married life here, going to Eng'and some years ago for the education of her daughter. Yet another engagement is talked of in society. which is to lose, it report speaks truly, one of its

and the maid of honor Miss Hazel Sheppard of Toronto. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the residence of the bride's mother where a wedding break fast was partaken of, after which Mr. and Mrs. Roberts departed by the steamer Northumberland, on the first stage of their wedding purney which will include a trip to the Western cities, after which they intend going abrcad to reside for some time in Germany. A number of friends assembled on the wharf at Summerside to wish the newly wedded palr bon voyage, and the Summer-ide Cornet band serenaded them gaily as the boat moved away. Mrs. Roberts' numberless friends in Moncton will unite in wishing her all possiple happiness. The second wedding was that of Miss Alice Maud

Trites, daughter of Mr. D. L. Trites of the firm of Humphrey & Trites, Petitcodiac to Mr. Herbert Harris Magee of St. John, which took place on Wednesday morning, at St. Andrew's church Petitcodiac. The bride was very well known and a universal favorite in Moncton where she has been a frequent visitor; and the many friends she possesses in our city will join in wishing her every blessing and happiness in her new life.

Amongst the guests from Moncton were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Trites, Mrs. Addy, Mrs. F. W. Sumner, and Miss Ethel Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wright Mrs. J. H. Marks, Miss Marks, Miss Georgie Marks Miss Alice McEwen, Miss Georgia Cole and Mr. W. Marks.

The third wedding was that of Miss Ida Steeves, daughter of Mr. Warren Steeves of Coverda'e which ook place on Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, the bridegroom being Mr. W. R. Williams youngest son of Mr. W. H. Williams of this city. The bride was beautifully dressed in . hite silk with pearl trimmings, and carried a handsome bouquet. The house was most artistically decorated with flowers and ferns, the bride and groom standing under a floral arch and bell. After the ceremony the guests numbering nearly a hundred partook of a sumptuous repast, and shortly afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Williams departed on their bridal tour. The unusual number of beautiful gifts lavished on the youthful couple testified to the atfectionate regard in which they are held by their friends all of whom wish them every happiness.

A fourth wedding in which Moncton people were the principals took place in St. John on Tuesday week, when Miss Ella Hicks formerly of this city, but lately of Boston, was married at the Centenary church to Mr. A. D. Ayer of the I. C. R. general manager's office in this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Read formerly pastor of Wesley memorial church here, but now of centenary in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. George McSweeney returned last week from Sunmerside, where they had been attending the marriage of Mrs. McSweeney's sister, Miss Doro:hy Lefurgey.

Miss Minnie Galt of Montreal, who has been spending some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of this city, returned home on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benedict and family took their final departure from Moneton on Friday last, most charming members and one of the best skaters to the very deep regret of their numerous friends. The drawing rooms at Hotel Brunswick was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on the evening before their departure when a number of their friends assempled at the invitation of Mrs. George McSweeney to bid them fare well. During the evenin ; Rev. E. Bertram Hooper on behalf of a number of Mrs. Benedict's frieuds, presented that popular lady with an address of farewell, accompanied by a beautiful set of toilet articles mounted in sterling silver, brushes, whisk, co.nb. mirror, etc. on a very beau iful silver tray all engraved with the recipients modogram. The address most feelingly expressed the regard in which Mrs. Benedict w.s held, and the appreciation of her friends for her unvarying kindness in using her beantlful voice for all charitable objects, and for the valuable service she had rendered not only in St. George's church, where she was the leader of the choir, but in the musical circles of Moncton: as well as the.

When the appetite fails and the liver becomes sluggish, the whole system is dragged down and deadened by imperfect nutrition. There is nothing in the world which restores organic tone and vigor so quickly and scientifically as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It acts directly upon the nutritive organism: it gives the stomach power to extract a high percentage of nourishment from the food, and enables the liver to filter all bilious poisons out of the circulation; it puts the red, vitalizing life-giving elements into the blood, and builds up solid flesh, musPARRSBORO.

Ocr. 6,-Weddings seem to be the order of the day, and it would almost seem as if the time honored proverb of a young man's fancy turning to love in the spring, would have to be reconstructed so to read : "In the fall a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." Three weddings were the record for last week and though none of them actually took place in the city, all the brides were well known in Moncton, having visited here so often He often suggests simple means for rethat they almost seemed as if they actually belong ed to us. The first of these interesting ceremonies took place on Tuesday week, at St. Mary,s church, Summerside, at eleven o'clock in the morning when Miss Dorothy Lefurgey, youngest daughter of Mrs. John Lefurgey of Summerside was wedded to Mr. Horace G. Roberts of Devonport, Iowa. The church had been beautifully decorated in anticipation of the event, by friends of the bride and was filled to over formation. flowing with relatives guests and friends. Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Steeves retuined last week from a week's driving tour through Nova Scotia. Mr. Graham Jardine junior clerk in the Merchant's bank of Halifax was transferred last week to Kingston Kent county. Mr. Jardine who has made hosts of friends in Moncton during his short residence here, was entertained at an oyster supper at Connor's restaurant on Thursday evening by a number of his young friends. Mr. Forster of Dorchester takes Mr. Jardine's place in the Moncton branch.

The masonic hall was well filled on Friday evening on the occasion of the Shakespearian recital given by Mr. George B. Williams. It would be difficult to praise this gentleman's performance too highly as it was admirable from first to last, his wonderful dramatic power enabling him] to represent a variety of characters with an accuracy really marvelous. Mr. Williams should be greeted with crowded houses wherever he apppears. Moncton is the stronghold for Presbyterianism for poignant regret her friends felt in losing her from

GREENWICH.

Oct. 4 .- The marriage took place at the Roya Hotel, St. John, on Wednesday last, of Mr. W. W. Hay, Mayor of Woodstock and Mrs. Henrietta Marley of this place. The bride was given away by Mr. James Hanny of St. John. Tae Rev. D. W Pickett of this place performed the ceremony. Mrs. J. Jones the bride's mother was also present. Mrs. Hay's genial presence will be much missed here. Miss May Marley the little daughter of Mrs. Hay ccompanied her aunt Mrs. McKiel to Woodstock. Mr. Fred Pickett came from St. John on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Holder of Boston, are visiting Mr. Holder's mother at Sunnyside.

Rev. H. A. Cody made a visit to St. John on Monday.

Rev. Mr. Bonnel also went to St John on Mon. day.

His Lordship Bishop Kingdon is expected to and we will then get Dr. Mason's advice visit this parisn next week for the purpose of administring confirmation to a large number of candidates.
