Leonard, at Westville was the place of gathering of fifty or more relatives and friends to celebrate the marriage of the oldest daughter of the household, Miss Clara Maude Leonard, to Dr. Harry P. Congratulations were followed by delicious refreshments, and the whole occasion was one of unusual enjoyment.

The marriage of Mr. James Haliburton Silver of Montreal with Miss Ella Tupper Hillson only daughter of Mr. E. T. Hillson, Havelock street, took place in Christ church at ten o'clock on Wednesday. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful dress of ivory duchesse satin trimmed with pearl embroidery and chiffon, the bridal veil of tulle was fastened with orange blossoms and the bouquet, was of white carnations and maiden hair fern. She was attended by three bridesmaids, Miss Lola Winchester of Chelsea, Mass., who was attired in white organdy with trimmings of valenciennes lace and blue green ribbons over a silk of same shade. Miss Lillian Shaw, Halifax, in a dress of rose pink bengaline prettily trimmed with cream lace and pearl embroidery; Miss Mabel Pugsley in a pretty frock of pale blue silk with chiffon trimming. The little flower maids Nellie Hilloot and Beatrice Harris were in white frocks and completed a charming picture as the procession moved towards the chancel to join the groom who was supported by his brother Mr. Herbert Silver of Montreal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. V. E. Harris, Rev. Dr. Steele being present; the ushers were Mr. John Curry, Mr. Harold Main, Mr. Tom Sayre, Mr. Harry Biden, and Mr. Rob Douglas. Upwards of a hundred guests were invited and the church was filled to its utmost capacity. Miss Hillson being one of our most popular young ladies and a member of Christ church choir who put up the floral decorations in a very novel and artistic way, a large arch of green supported a magnificent bell of white asters with festoons to the pillars of sweet peas and ferns, on one side was a design in green with a horseshoe of white and the opposite bore the monogram H. S. in white and pink; the altar and font were profusely trimmed with sweet peas and asters.

Among the many guests present some very stylish costumes were seen, the bride's mother wore a toilette of black corded silk trimmed prettily with jet and a bonnet of purple velvet with osprey of white. Several St. John people were present.

The Miles Ideal Stock Company which began a week's engagement at the Opera house on Labor day, have played to good houses throughout the week, that of Monday afternoon breaking all previous records in the way of large audiences. The work throughout the various performances has been quite equal to that done during a previous engagement, as is evidenced by the appreciative audiences drawn to the theatre. The specialties are bright and sparkling, and, after the talented young star Mr. John E. Miles, perhaps the most popular members of the company are Jack Tucker and Eva Williams who are a whole entertainment in themselves, and their appearance nightly is the sign of an abounded applause. Baby Vavens has improved wonderfully since her last appearance here and her graceful dances wins much praise. The company is a splendid one in every respect, and well worthy generous patronage.

Westfield is again alive, and society has taken a very lively turn; it would seem as if the people were not going to allow the summer to depart without making an effort to retain it. Thus far only two families have left for the city. But next week will no doubt call a few more away, although everyone says otherwise.

The principal society event of the week was the delightful dance given by Mr. Fred Kirkpatrick in the hall on Wednesday evening which proved a grand success. His mother Mrs. Arthur Kirkpatrick assisted her son in receiving his guests, and performed her duties as a chaperon in a charming manner. She was attired in silk trimmings with rich cream lace. Her guest Miss Stephens of St. John who is stopping with her for a few days and who assisted in making the evening a pleasant one wore a very becoming waist of soft white chiffon trimmed with pink. The music was excellent being furnished by St. John's local musicians. I need hardly say the young ladies looked lovely. The dresses of Mrs. T. Milligan, Mrs. N. Lister, Mrs. Finley, and the Misses Allan, Ethel Milligan, Mabel Lingley, Jessie Lyons, Ella Valentine, Miss Valentine, all looked particularly well. About twelve o'clock a dainty supper was served to the guests who numbered about forty. At one o'clock the programme of seventeen dances was completed and the company broke up all declaring Mr. Kirkpatrick had given them a very pleasant evening.

On Labor day a number of young folks, had a pleasant excursion to Bald Mountain; Mr. Alonzo Watters, team of five black horses left the White House at seven thirty and when it had reached Woodman's Point it had collected a crowd of twenty boys and girls, in an hour and a half the excursionists had reached the foot of Bald Mountain and then the climb began; when half way up the mountain, the young folks opened their baskets, and sat down to a good dinner, after that they proceeded up the mountain and spent an hour in admiring the magnificent view. The party reached home about nine o'clock having a fine moon to complete the pleasure of the day. Mrs. (Dr.) Inches chaperoned the party in a manner that deserves great credit; it was a great climb, but Mrs. Inches was often ahead of the boys. Her little son Charlie who is not yet three years of age was the jolliest one of the crowd and the youngest person that ever ascended Bald Mountain. The organizers of the excursion, Miss Mary Inches Lou Robertson, Mr. Ned Sears, and Mr. Charles McDonald, deserve praise for the way everything was carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stevenson entertained a few friends on Saturday afternoon with a very enjoyable sail on the river, in the yacht Winna. The young folks left Westfield early in the morning and went up the river as far as Devil's Back. Returning they sailed to Brandy Point and burnt an old wood boat. The party returned about ten o'clock after a very pleasant outing. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Finley, the Misses Mabel Langley Maggie and Ida Caulfield, Ella and Miss Valentine and Miss Stevenson and Mrs. Edward Stevenson, Oscar Finley, Mr. Robertson.

Sept. 8.—Moncton has been unusually quiet of late, and except for a few private picnics and a five o'clock tea or two, there has been nothing going in society circles at all.

Mrs. F. A. McCully gave the initial bicycle picnic of the season on Thursday, and the novelty of the entertainment added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. Some twenty young people wheeled out to the reservoir, the elder and non-wheeling members of the party driving. Unfortunately a heavy shower of rain rather marred the enjoyment of the picnic party towards evening, but otherwise the party was a very great success.

Another very enjoyable private picnic was given on Monday at the Gorge, and as the weather was simply perfect the day was thoroughly enjoyed.
