On Monday of last week there was a large gathering at the Garrison cricket ground to see the last match in which the Crescents would take part.

Lady Erskine who looked quite pale and depressed, went about taking leave of everyone, and bidding them to a farewell "at home" on board the flagship that evening.

Lady and the Misses Fisher accompanied Lady Erskine and made their first acquaintance with Halifax society. Lady Fisher was in black, the Misses Fisher very simply dressed in navy serge coats and skirts, and plain sailor hats.

The net evening, however, did not deter Lady Erskine's friends from going on board H. M. S. Crescent, though the rain poured through the awnings and soon made the deck too wet for dancing.

Most of the ladies were sensibly attired, in garden party gowns and hats, and the few in evening dress soon put on their cloaks. It was not a late party, though people were sorry to leave the Crescent for the last time.

On Tuesday evening Dr. Farrell gave a supper for the members of the Behring Sea commission and a few other gentlemen. There were also a couple of small dinners, and in the afternoon Mrs. MacKeen had a children's party at Maplewood, with a sprinkling of older people.

The Pallas, Partridge and Talbot all had parties on board on Wednesday morning of last week to see the departure of H. M. S. Crescent. There was also a gathering of people at the dockyard, but the chief point of view chosen by spectators was the lumber yard, where the Berkshire band was playing as the flagship passed.

The Pallas, Talbot and Partridge have also gone, the two first for the West Indies, and the latter for Cape Breton. Their places will be taken here by the Intrepid, Tartar, and Indefatigable.

Capt. and Mrs. Taylor and Miss Hill returned this week from Fredericton, where they made many friends and are much regretted.

Captain Fitz Herbert who has quite recovered from his illness, left last week for England. Mrs. Roach-Smith was a passenger on the same steamer. Colonel Wilkinson, who succeeds Colonel Leach here as C. R. E. at the end of October, is a very young man for the post and is unmarried.

Captain and Mrs. Hall left Saturday for England via New York. Miss Harvey will go to England soon again, on a visit to her sister's country place near Oxford. Mrs. Harvey gave a large farewell tea on Thursday for captain and Mrs. Maul. People came in late after the cricket match, at which Captain Maul distinguished himself by making the largest score of the season in the Army versus Navy match.

Senator and Mrs. MacKeen gave a small reception on Friday evening for the members of the Behring Sea commission. A few other guests were invited, most of them strangers, and I hear that they were charmed with the beauties of Maplewood. The party was quite an early one, the hours on the card being from nine to twelve.

On Friday afternoon there was quite an old-time gathering at the polo ground, where the garrison held a gymkhana, the prime movers being Colonel Collard and Mr. Barlow of the Berkshires.

The day could not have been improved on and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The sports consisted of bicycle races, in which the ladies had the lion's share; the egg and spoon race for ladies was most amusing and the hand in hand race would have been a very pretty one if it had not been for an accident, Miss Sinton and Miss Wallace having a bad fall, which made the former insensible for a short time.

Miss Richards won the ladies' race for single bicycles, and also the egg and spoon race.

The pony race, with umbrellas and cigars, for gentlemen, was very funny, only one competitor arriving with his umbrella right side out. The thread and needle race and the Lloyd-Lindsay competition for ponies were other features.

Tea was served in a marquee on the polo ground, and every one turned out in force. Bicycle dresses were largely worn, though smart autumn gowns were not wanting, or even muslin frocks. Lady and the Misses Fisher were present, the latter in white serge with scarlet hats, precisely alike.

We are to have a number of distinguished visitors in exhibition week, but contrary to expectation there will be little gaiety a few diners excepted. Sir John Fisher, who has Lord Kelvin for a guest, has also invited Lord and Lady Aberdeen to Admiralty House, and also Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Their excellencies however will stay as usual at Government House while the Premier's movements are very undecided.

St. Paul's presbyterian church was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings imaginable, on Wednesday afternoon when Rev. James Whiteside united in the bonds of matrimony Miss Jessie Ellen Munro youngest daughter of the late David Munro and Lieut. Howard P. Wetmore of the 62nd, St. John. The bride who was one of Woodstock's fairest and most popular young ladies, looked very lovely in a most elegant dress of pearl white duchesse and brocade satin, with court train. She wore the regulation bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She entered the church as the choir sang "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden", leaning on the arm of her brother Mr. Donald Munro, and preceded by her bridesmaid Miss Weeks, and her three little nieces. Miss Jessie Helen Beveridge Miss Eleanor Slipp, and Miss Carrie Munro as maids of honor. Miss Weeks wore a most charming and becoming dress of yellow and white changeable taffeta silk, with trimmings of silk lace and pearl pampantier. Hat of white chiffon with yellow gloves and leathers. Bouquet of yellow roses.

The little "maids of honor" looked very sweet and dainty in dresses of white dotted muslin with valenciennes lace, made low neck and short sleeves and carrying baskets of yellow and white 'chrysanthemums. Mr. Robert B. Rankine of St. John supported the groom. The ushers were Messrs. F. Hay, C. A. Appleby, J. S. Leighton, and B. F. MacKay. The church was artistically decorated with brilliant flowers by the young ladies of the congregation under the direction of Mrs. Charles McLean and Mrs. McAfee. A mass of flowering plants in crimson and pink formed the centre piece with pink and white flowers at the sides. The chancel rail was covered with flowers, asters, dahlias and gladioli in white, purple, yellow and scarlet with ferns, being profusely used. Bouquets of bright flowers were placed on stands making the whole a gorgeous adornment. After the ceremony the wedding party consisting only of the relatives of bride and groom, repaired to the residence of Mrs. David Munro, where a reception was held and wedding luncheon partaken of. Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore took C. P. express for Fredericton en route to St. John and Nova Scotia. They reside for the winter at Truro. Mrs. Wetmore's travelling costume was of purple black and green novelty cloth, with vest of green broad cloth braided in gold and purple; with hat of green and purple. The bride was the recipient of many lovely presents including a silver service from the choir and congregation of St. Paul's, of which she was a valued member.

The wedding guests included Mrs. Wetmore, Miss Wetmore, Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Munro, Picton, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Munro, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Foster, Truro, Mr. J. E. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. DeW. Slipp, Mrs. Frank Beveridge, Miss Weeks, Miss E. S. Mills, Mr. R. B. Rankine, St. John. F. Hay, C. A. Appleby, B. F. Mackay.

Mrs. Munro mother of the bride wore a dress of black silk, with maitese lace trimmings, black jet bonnet with white aigrettes.

Mrs. Frank Beveridge, Michigan, white silk, green velvet trimmings, black velvet hat with feathers.

Mrs. Donald Munro, black velvet and jet, lavender ribbons, bonnet of lavender.

Mrs. Wetmore, black silk, with white lace, bonnet of black and white.

Miss Wetmore, green and white silk, hat of green and white chiffon and feathers.

Mrs. A. D. Munro, black silk, white satin and jet, black hat, white trimmings.

Mrs. W. Slipp, black silk, jet and chiffon, black hat white flowers.

Miss Ella Smith, heliotrope and white silk.

The marriage of Miss Ella Blanche Jewett, daughter of the late E. B. Jewett and Rev. Miles Trafton, pastor of the reformed Baptist church, St. John, was prettily solemnized by Rev. W. B. Wiggins at the residence of the brides' mother on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. The bride wore a dainty and most becoming dress of lavender silk with white lace and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations. She was unattended. The guests were the relatives of bride and groom.

Mrs. Trafton was the recipient of many presents. Her Sunday-school class presented her with a very pretty silver cake basket.

Mr. and Mrs. Trafton left on the C. P. K. express for St. John their future home. Mrs. Trafton's travelling dress was of green cloth with vest of white cloth embroidered in green braid, hat of green and purple.

Mr. Trafton's congregation in St. John tendered him and his bride a reception at the parsonage on their arrival Tuesday night. ELAINE.

THOMAS DEAN,

[City Market.]

Death Pulls the Trigger.

A man doesn't have to pull the trigger himself in order to commit suicide. He doesn't even need a gun or any kind of weapon. All he need do is work hard and at the same time neglect his health. Death will do the rest. Men nowadays are all in a hurry. They bolt their food, and get indigestion and torpid liver. The blood gets impure. When the blood is impure, sooner or later something will "smash." The smash will be at the weakest and most overworked point. In a marshy country it will probably be malaria and chills. A working man will probably have a bilious attack. A clerk or bookkeeper will have deadly consumption. A business, or professional man, nervous prostration or exhaustion.

It isn't hard to prevent or cure these diseases if the right remedy is taken at the right time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the appetite keen, digestion and assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves steady and strong. It drives out all disease germs. It makes rich, red blood, firm flesh, solid muscle and healthy nerve-fiber. It cures malaria and bilious attacks. It cures nervous prostration and exhaustion. It cures 98 per cent of all cases of consumption, bronchial, throat and kindred affections. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains the letters of thousands who have been cured.

I have been one of your many patients, by taking Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. Peritt Cook, of 140 W. 38 St., Covington, Ky. "Your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' have saved my life when it was despaired of."
