Mrs. Cameron's tea on Saturday of last week which was given for Mr. and Mrs. Huddleston, was absolutely thronged and most successful. People came early and stayed late, and there was at times a great crush round the tea table. Tea was served in the drawing room and the table was very prettily decorated. Miss Cameron who assisted her mother in receiving, looked extremely well in a very dainty andlfashionable frock.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Collard had a teaparty, which was well attended in spite of the rain. There were plenty of new faces, especially as regards the men present, and the whole affair was exceedingly pleasant. Tea was in the dining room and most people discarded their cloaks and mackintoshes in the hall, so that it did not at all present the dismal appearance of a wet-day function.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Montgomery Moore gave a large dinner for General and Mrs. Gascoigne and their neice Miss Smith, who were guests at Bellevue uring their short stay here. General Gascoigne, socially, was quite charming, though officially he seems to have been otherwise. The guests at dinner consisted chiefly of military people but afterwards a large reception was given at which almost everyone was present. Quite the most beautiful dress in the room was worn by Mrs. Huddleston, and the exquisite lace which trimmed it came in for no small share of admiration. Miss Wickwire was also charmingly dressed, and a lovely gown was worn by Mrs. Anstruther-Duncan the effect of which was much heightened by her

There was no dancing, but much quiet sitting about, and the usual consumption of ices and claret cup which takes place at a party where conversation is the chief amusement. Mrs. Montgomery Moore wore a very handsome dress, and was as usual an energe ic bostess. It was quite late when the affair

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Fuller gave an at home at Hillside Hall, where she is at present residing, and enjoying a rest from the cares of housekeeping. It was a charming tea and most beautifully managed, so well done in every way that it was difficult to believe it was not given in a private house. There were a good many people present, but no crowd, and it was altogether a delightful

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Montgomery Moore was at home at Bellevue as usual from half-past four till six, and had the usual crowd of visitors.

The chrysanthemum show at the Church of England Institute was a great success during the week and one of the prettiest sights imaginable. The large single-flower plants alone were worthy of a visit, and they were exquisite both in size and color. One pretty and new variety, with extremely fine petals resembling fringe, was much admired and as most reasonable prices were asked pots sold freely. The arrangement of the flowers was very pretty, the walls being lined with masses of chrysanthemums and tall palms, railed off by low barriers of bright scalet in the manner of a Japanese garden, in imitation of which the centre of the room was filled with low foliage plants and flowers. The bazaar in connection with the show did well, the fancy stall in charge of Mrs. Builock, Mrs.

Bright-faced, happy, rollicking, payful babies, thousands of them all over the broad land, have in their bodies the seeds of serious diseases, and while they laugh and play are facing death. The mother, in the majority of cases, is unconsciously responsible for this sad state of affairs. Where the mother, during the anxious period, suffers from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism, it is useless to expect a sound and healthy baby. Every woman may be strong in a womanly way, and have robust, happy children.

A wonderful medicine for women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the discovery of an eminent and skillful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. It is a medicine that acts directly and only on those delicate and importan organs that bear the burdens of maternity. It makes them strong, healthy and elastic. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, stops debilitating drains and soothes pain. It gives rest and tone to the tired nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It does period and makes baby's coming easy and comparatively painless. Honest druggists will not offer an inferior substitute for the sake of a little extra profit. "I suffered for years from displacement, debilitating drains, inflammation and weak back," writes Mrs. Bessie McPherson, of 38 So. Main St., Providence, R. I. "I traveled with my husband, and first noticed my weaknesses coming on when the jolt of the cars became unbearable. I stopped traveling but the trouble steadily grew worse. I suffered so that I became despondent and wished for death. I took only a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was permanently cured."

The stall for cut flowers was prettily decorated in bright scarlet and green, and realized a very large sum, the young ladies in charge of it proving most successful saleswomen.

Quite the prettiest table of all was the candy stall, which was really a study, in white and helio trope. Pale heliotrope festooned the table and was caught up with bunches of dark violets. A large amp on the centre of the table had a most exquisite shade of different tones of heliotrope, and even the mantel piece behind the table was carried out with the same delicate colors.

The sweets were all good and well made, and were as pretty to look on as they were good to eat. It was a most fashionable place, both in the afternoon and in the evening, when it was perhaps a shade more frivolcus.

Captain Thoronton, who has met so tragic an end in Bermuda, bad many friends here, where he was for some time stationed. He was much liked in Halifax, and his sad death was a great surprise to all who knew him. It is to be hoped that it may yet be proved that his death was due to accident.

Nov. 24 - A recital by the advanced pupils was given last Friday evening in Beethoven hall. The audience was not large on account of the snow falling but it was an appreciative one. A stranger present said the music was an indescribable treat to him, and it certainly was a most flattering exhibition for both pupils and teachers. Mr. Wootton's piano pupils taking part were; Mr. Crossman, Miss Snerwood, Miss Newman, Miss Cole. The vocal music was given by Miss Wright, Miss Dawson and Miss England, the violin and elocution departments were represented by Miss Benedict and Miss Lizzie Odgen. As the performance closed at an early hour, Dr. Borden kindly invited everyone to stay a little longer for the pleasure of conversation. The invitation was accepted promptly but by none so eagerly as the boys whose numbers were largely augmented by their football visitors, the students
