On Tuesday of last week Lady Fisher gave a dance at Admiralty House, her first in Halifax. There were very wisely a great many more men than ladies, a state of affairs very pleasant here, where for the most part things have been just the other way. People looked extremely nice as the Misses Fisher who were dressed exactly alike looking very well. Dancing was in the dining room. The floor was good and the band of H. M. S. Renown supplied excellent music. The evening was fine and quite warm so that the balcony and gardens lit with Chinese lanterns were well patronized.

There were not so many soldiers as one sees at a dance but of course many new figures in the familiar naval uniforms. Lady Fisher made a charming hostess and looked so well after her guests that there was not a single wall flower and the whole affair was most enjoyable.

It is rumored that the Leinster regiment, which is the second battalion of the Royal Canadians, meant to give a ball very soon after coming here in order to celebrate their arrival on Canadian shores. It is a very long time since Wellington barracks has seen a dance, and it is almost difficult to believe that at one time such things were yearly occurrences there. Very few of the officers of the Leinster regiment are married men, which makes a great difference as far as entertaining is concerned.

Last week there were several small teas, among them one given by Mrs. Montgomery-Moore at Bellevue, and one by Mrs. Slater for her daughter Mrs. Hartley, who leaves shortly for the West Indies to join her husband Captain Hartley, King's Regiment.

On Friday Mrs. Jones gave a tea at "Bloomingdale," which was quite a large affair in spite of bad weather. It was given for Rev. G. and Mrs. Armitage.

There were no less than three foot-ball teas after Saturday's match.

The marriage of Mr. Austin R. A. and Miss Moir, sister of Surgeon-Captain Drew-Moir, will take place in England very shortly. Mr. Austin was well known and much liked here as was Miss Moir, and people will be sorry not to see them in Halifax this autumn as Mr. Austin will probably go direct to St. Lucia to join his battery there.

The work of the Orpheus club in "The Beggar Student" has been spoken of as most meritorious and met with a wonderful success both in the support of its actors and theatre goers in general. "The Beggar Student" was a difficult undertaking but the large scope it afforded only served to bring out the full ability of the performers. Mr. Wikel won golden opinions as did also the ladies in the cast. Taken all together the recent production was splendid and much credit is due Mr. C. H. Porter the director for his untiring efforts to make the performance just what it was.

The officers of the Mackay-Bennett gave a dance at Masonic Hall one evening last of the week. The original intention was to have the dance on board ship but the rain made the hall a more desirable place. The room presented a lovely scene when the principal amusement of the evening was well under way, the bright decorations of bunting, Chinese lanterns, flags, etc., together with the

THE WHEELS OF HEALTH.

There is no better exercise for a young woman in thoroughly good health than bicycling. On the contrary, if she suffers from weakness or disease of the distinctly feminine organs, if she rides, at all, such exercise should be very sparingly indulged in. Women are peculiarly constituted and their general health is peculiarly dependent upon the health of the specially feminine organism.

It is the health of these delicate and important parts that "makes the wheels of general health go round." Their strength and vigor are as important to a woman as a mainspring to a watch, or a sprocket and chain to a bicycle. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all medicines for delicate women. It makes them strong where they most need strength. Taken during the "interesting interval," it banishes the usual squeamishness and makes baby's admission to the world easy and almost painless. It fits a woman for in-door work and out-door sports. Honest druggists don't advise substitutes.

"I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has undoubtedly saved my life," writes Mrs. Florence Hunter, of Corley Logan Co., Ark. "I miscarried four times; could get no medicine to do me any good. I tried the Favorite Prescription and after taking several bottles, I made my husband a present of a fine girl. I think it is the best medicine in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers.

DOUBLED UP!

UNABLE TO WORK.

Suffering Agony Day and Night.

"For nearly two years," says Frank J. Wray, 211 Sherbourne St., Toronto, "I suffered greatly with lameness and pain in my back. It often happened that my back and kidneys pained me so badly that I was doubled up and could hardly walk, except in a stooping position. Very often I was unable to work, suffering agony both day and night. I had severe pain in the lower part of my stomach, and other symptoms which proved conclusively that my kidneys were in a very unhealthy condition. My appetite was lost and my strength declined rapidly.

"I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills in March last, and after using three boxes of them was completely restored to health. I have not had the slightest pain or stiffness in any part of my back, or any indication of my former trouble, since using these wonderful pills.

"With the restoration of my kidneys to a healthy condition, my appetite was restored, and my strength returned, so that I am now strong and hearty. I make this statement of my cure by Doan's Kidney Pills with the greatest pleasure, because when I commenced taking them I did not really expect so remarkable a cure as that which followed their use. I am very thankful that I hit upon this remedy, and gladly recommend it to all sufferers."

One Laxa-Liver Pill every Night for Thirty Days Cures Constipation.

beautiful gowns of the ladies made a scene to be remembered. The floor was in excellent order and good music was supplied for the dancers. Cozy card rooms were fitted up for those who did not trip the fantastic. The chaperons of this enjoyable affair were Madames Carney and Winter.

MONCTON.

Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton bookstore, by W. G. Stanfield and at M. B. Jones.

Oct. 13.—The unusually heavy pressure on my column last week prevented me from giving more than a very brief notice of the wedding of Miss Alice Trites of Petticoat, to Mr. Herbert Harris of St. John. But as I feel sure that the fair bride's many friends in Moncton will look for a more extended description of so important an event, I will endeavor to gratify their desire this week. The ceremony was performed in St. Andrew's church by Rev. Mr. Fullerton, rector. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by friends of the bride, the sides of the chancel being banked with handsome potted plants, the pulpit, reading desk, font, and pillars wreathed with evergreens and autumn leaves, even the window frames being outlined with banks of moss, studded with cut flowers, while from the chancel arch hung a floral marriage bell. As the strains of "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden" arose, the bride party entered the church, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. D. L. Trites, and looking lovely in her bridal robes of white silk, with ruffles of duchesse lace, veil and orange blossoms. She carried beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Seelye of St. John, who was charming in a gown of white organdie over maize colored silk, and large picture hat of white chiffon, and Miss Marie Trites, sister of the bride who wore a most becoming dress of white organdie over white silk, and large white chiffo hat. Miss Seelye carried a large bouquet of yellow roses, and Miss Trites its counterpart in pink roses.

The groom was assisted by his friend Mr. Walter Gilbert of St. John, and the ushers were Mr. Chas. Trites, brother of the bride, Mr. Frank Magee of St. John, Mr. Leonard Peters of Hampton, and Mr. Lionel Hainington of Dorchester. After the beautiful and impressive marriage service of the Church of England was concluded, the wedding march pealed forth under the skilful fingers of Miss Lena Keith, the wedding bells rang out, and the bridal party which included some fifty guests, returned to the home of the bride's parents where luncheon was served. Amongst the many beautiful presents were conspicuous a beautiful engraving of the Valley Farm, from the groomsmen, and a handsome divan from the employes of D. Magee & Sons. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful amethyst ring, and a handsome Russia leather travelling case while to each of the bridesmaids he presented an opal ring. Mr. and Mrs. Magee left by the noon C. P. train for a trip to New York and Boston, returning by Montreal and Quebec.

The event of last week was the concert given by Madame Marie Harrison, who was greeted with a large and most enthusiastic audience on this, her first appearance in Moncton after her sojourn on the Continent. Madame Harrison's admirers found her in magnificent voice, the upper notes more birdlike than ever, and the middle register much improved and strengthened. Her appearance on the stage was followed by an outburst of almost deafening applause, signaling the pleasure her friends in this city felt in welcoming her back again. Madame Harrison was ably assisted by Miss Jean Bruce violinist, Miss Georgia Cole, who gave a charming reading. Mrs. W. H. Watts, whose sweet contralto voice was heard to great advantage. Mr. G. S. Mayes of St. John, Mr. F. Stokes, flutist also of St. John, and Professor J. H. Watts accompanists. The Watts' Amateur Orchestra also contributed largely to the success of the evening by furnishing excellent selections. Mr. Watts is to be warmly congratulated upon the success of the concert which was largely due to his able management.

The funeral takes place this afternoon from the family residence on Union street.

Oct. 13.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Christ Church yesterday afternoon when Miss Lilian Gertrude Whelpley daughter of the late Wilmot W. Whelpley of Oak Point and niece of Mr. Geo. T. Whelpley of this city, was united in wedlock to Mr. George Clifton Tabor son of Mrs. Clifton Tabor of this city.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white corded silk trimmed with white chiffon, and wore a veil of Irish point lace, and carried a large bouquet of cream roses, smilax and maiden hair fern, and was given in marriage by her uncle Mr. Geo. T. Whelpley. She was attended by Miss Ida Tabor, sister of the groom who wore a beautiful gown of green Dresden silk with red chiffon trimmings and carried a bouquet of red carnations. The groom had the support of his brother Mr. Arthur Tabor. As the bridal party entered the church the choir sang The Voice that breathed o'er Eden. After the reading of the service the choir again sang How Welcome was the Call, and as the bridal party approached the altar the choir chanted the CXXVIII psalm. The organ presided over by Miss Carman pealed forth Mendelssohn's Wedding march as the party left the church and the merry peal of joy bells sounded far over the city as the carriages rolled away to the residence of Mr. Whelpley where luncheon was served. The guests included only relatives and immediate friends of the families. The ushers were Mr. Frank I. Sherman, Mr. Aubrey Tabor and Mr. Douglas Tabor.

The groom's present to his bride was a gold watch and chain. To the bridesmaid he gave a brooch set with pearls. The groom's mother and the bride's uncle Mr. Whelpley each presented them with a substantial cheque. A cheque was also received from Mr. Tabor's employers in Boston. Other numerous presents were received from friends in England, the Upper provinces and United States. The Gold Brick Business.

There's a slicker way of doing up the public than by luring them to some lonely spot and there taking their good money for a spurious gold brick. Right over the counters of some unscrupulous dealers the exchange is being made every day. People troubled with sore, aching, sweaty, swollen, tired feet, know that Foot Elm will do them good. They ask their dealer for it. He has a big profit-making substitute on hand, which he represents as the genuine article or "as good as." Refuse it. It will do your feet harm. Insist on getting the genuine Foot Elm. Price 25c. at all dealers, or by mail post paid STOTT & JURY, Bowmanville, Ont., Canadian Agents.
