Last week was a week of weddings and very pretty ones at that, with real wedding weather.

The marriage of Miss Anderson and Mr. Robertson took place on Tuesday morning of last week at half past eleven, and after the ceremony the guests went to breakfast at the Cottage, Jubilee Road.

There were some very pretty frocks worn by the guests, and among the older ladies some very handsome gowns.

The house had been decorated for the reception with quantities of flowers, vines and apple blossoms and a very pretty idea was the suspension of a dove made of flowers over the arch, where the bride stood to receive congratulations.

Miss Tremaine, whose wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, of the same week, was certainly one of the prettiest and most graceful brides ever seen in Halifax.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Tremaine and Miss Pittman, sister of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony there was the usual wedding tea at the residence of the bride's parents, where everybody looked at the presents which were in Miss Tremaine's case, well worth seeing, after congratulating the happy pair.

One of the prettiest frocks at the wedding by the way, was a very pale pink one, which was almost prettier than those worn by the bridesmaids.

Captain Semlin had an unfortunate accident last week while riding his bicycle; he had a collision and injured his knee, so much that he has been confined to the house ever since, and was, for a day or two unable to walk.

There were several dinners given last week as farewells to Mayor Hamilton Smythe, who left Saturday for England where his marriage with Miss Kinnear will take place early in July.

Among old friends in the navy returning here this summer is Commander Riddell, who has been coming and going here for the last ten years or more.

Mrs. Bartley and Mrs. Brush are expected shortly from Barbados and will spend all the hot weather here.

Mrs. Collard gave a small dinner on Friday evening for Major Hamilton Smythe and on Tuesday evening there was a very pleasant dinner given by one of the most energetic of Halifax hostesses.

The military tournament to be held in the Exhibition rink on June 19th, 21st and 23rd, will be a very grand affair.

The programme will consist of a grand sham attack on a Julee village. The attack will be made by soldiers and sailors. The engineers will build a bridge over a river flowing across the route.

The village will be subsequently blown up and the wounded attended to by a detachment of the medical staff corps under Surgeon Capt. Wright.

Also cutlass drill by the sailors who will take part in other events. Halifax ought to be very grateful to the admiral for reconsidering his decision as to going to St. John's.

Rev. Mr. Johnson will spend the summer here looking after the welfare of the presbyterian congregation.

Our popular station agent Mr. N. A. Turnbull is off on a vacation.

A Row in the Choir

Henry Ward Beecher used to say that the evangelization of the world could never be accomplished until the church choir was dispensed with. It is proverbial that choirs are given to internal dissension. We do not pose as missionaries. We are selling Throat Kumforts for the money there is to be made out of it. But it has been shown time and again that where we have introduced Throat Kumforts into choirs the enthusiasm they have created has spread oil on the troubled waters. They make the voice clear as a bell for speaking and singing, and the choir that has once used them will never thereafter be without them. Put up in neat tablet form, convenient to carry and use. Invaluable for smokers' sore throat. Try a box for next Sunday.

TRURO.

(Progress is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. J. Fulton, and D. H. Smith & Co.)

JUNE 9.—The marriage of Mr. Frederic Schurman son of A. B. Schurman Esq. and Miss Lena Fulton youngest daughter of Mrs. Wm. Fulton, attracted a large crowd to Immanuel baptist church yesterday morning. The function was an extremely quiet one there being no invited guests. The bridal party appeared promptly at the hour arranged, a quarter past nine. The bride, who was given away by her brother Mr. E. M. Fulton, wore a very becoming travelling toilette of green and brown novelty cloth, with short waist front of rose and green shot silk, and pretty straw hat to match.

Miss Annie Graham (New Glasgow) officiated as bridesmaid, attired in a pretty costume of fawn and brown canvas cloth with hat of mixed straw. Both the bride and her maid carried handsome bouquets. Mr. Richard Schurman supported his brother as best man. The nuptial knot was quickly tied by Rev. Mr. Waring, immediately after which the newly married pair were driven to the depot where numerous friends and acquaintances had preceded them all anxious to proffer congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Schurman left per. C. P. R., for a trip through the principal upper Canadian cities, New York, Boston and Niagara. The presents which this popular bride and groom were the recipients of, were numerous and elegant.

Miss Etta Yuill, is a guest of her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Yuill Queen street, Miss Yuill who has just graduated from Acadia, leaves her college with honors crowding thick upon her, and is the recipient of the highest and most flattering commendations from the college faculty and the visiting educationalists attending Acadia's closing, her essay on "Herbartian Principles of Education," delivered at last Wednesday's closing, reflecting the highest credit on herself. Miss Yuill also stood second, in the competition for the Governor General's gold medal for general scholarship.

Mrs. Mcweeney and Miss Eileen are visiting friends in Antigonish and attending the closing exercises at St. Francis Xavier.

Mrs. Charles Archibald and two of her children from Antigonish are visiting home friends at the Hookery.

The second of this week's weddings, was that of Rev. Avery A. Shaw, of Windsor, and Miss Clara S. King, was solemnized last night in the Townsend baptist church at seven o'clock. Though long before that hour, the church was filled to overflowing and the crowd had spread to the grounds and adjacent street. The church looked lovely, in the vicinity of the desk, many beautiful palms and potted plants, and cut flowers, being gracefully disposed about, when the bride arrived she was a joy to look upon in a lovely though simple gown of white silk, en train, bodice of chiffon, with ribbon and chiffon trimmings, bridal veil surmounted by a cluster of lilies of the valley, a beautiful bouquet of white roses, and maiden-hair fern, completed, a very charming tout ensemble. The bride-maid, wore a charming gown, of pink organdie, with chiffon trimmings, and chiffon picture hat. The groom was attend by Rev. Lew Wallace, Wolfville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Parker, Yarmouth, assisted by Rev. Mr. Waring, Miss Seabourne, Wolfville, presided at the organ. The guests, of whom there was a large number, were entertained, after the ceremony, at the home of the bride's mother Pleasant street. The brides going-away dress, was of blue-grey cloth, tailor made, braided in black tubula and with short waist front, a charming little blue straw hat, with trimmings of flowers and ribbons, completed the travelling toilette.

The bridal presents were of unusual elegance and profusion, among them several purses of gold. Mrs. Shaw's removal from Truro will be felt as a great loss by all who knew her, particularly in musical circles where she was a brilliant and shining light well this be so. Rev. Mr. Shaw and his bride left per C. P. R. for Halifax en route to Windsor their future home. Messrs G. A. Hall, B. Black, L. K. Payzant, (Dartmouth) and Jas. Lawrence, acted as ushers throughout the function.

Major Black of Halifax was here on Friday inspecting the army militia company No. 7.

Capt and Mrs. Charles Howard on their return from the West Indies spent a few days with friends here and have left for New York.

Mr. Arthur Mc. N. Patterson of Acadia villa school spent Sunday before last here and gave an address in the evening in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Roy McDougall who has been paying a visit at her father's, has returned home to Truro.

Rev. L. J. Lingley and Mrs. Lingley of Freetown have been guests of Mrs. C. H. Stronach lately.

Mr. L. B. Dodge and Miss Dodge attended the marriage of their cousin Miss Ethel Cox's at Cambridge, Kings Co. on May 31. Miss Dodge who was to have been maid of honor was prevented by ill health.

You think of Scott's Emulsion as only for those who have consumption or who have inherited a tendency to it. Almost its greatest use is for those whose condition is so impaired as not to be able to get the good they should out of their ordinary food. In nearly every case with these, Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil brings back appetite, stimulates digestion, restores color and plumpness, and controls the diseases of thinness. Book about it, free, 50 cts. and $1.00, at all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville, Ont.
