JUNE 23 .- "The Sunny Side" the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. George was look. ing its best on the evening of June 17, Amid its magnificent surroundings of grand old elm trees and thick foliage of vines; standing on the broad verandas and overlooking the beautiful grounds surrounding the cathedral and beyond the quiet river, flowing placidly on to the sea one would hardly expect to see a more charming view, but once within the hospital doors of "The Sunnyside" quite as pret:y a scene was enacted, as promptly at the hour appointed, half past six, Miss Adelina Elizabeth Armington, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Farrington George entered from the extreme end of the western parlor, leaning on the arm of her father. A choir of young ladies at the piano sang 'The voice that breathed o'er Eden' as the bridal procession passed through lines of guests, separated by bands of white satin ribbons held in the hands of the ushers, through the spacious hall, to the east drawing room where they took their position under an immense canopy of white lilacs. The bride was pi eeded by her maid of honor Miss Elith O'Dell. The groom Mr. John Gibson Bauld of Halitax, had the support of Mr. J. A. George brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. D. Freeman.

The bride looked regal in a magnificent co stume of white satin, with trimmings of chiff on and duchess lace the gift of her mother, and train nearly four yards long, tulle veil, with orange blossoms and lilies of the valley and carried a gorgeous bouquet of white buds, hly of the valley and maiden hair fern, and wore a pearl and opainecklace, the groom's bridal gift. The maid of honor Miss O'Dell, was costumed in white organdie muslin with bolero of crimson satin with crushed belt of crimson satin and large hat with crimson trimmings and carried a bouquet of red and white carnations, and wore a diamond pendant brooch the gift of the groom. After the ceremony the wedding march was played and Mr. and Mrs. Bauld received the congratulations of the guests. Mrs. George mother of the bride wore a silver grey silk with lace and diamonds and carried a bouquet of crimson roses.

Mrs. Bauld the groom's mother wore a handsome costume of black slik brocaded grenadine with trimmings of lace heliotrope.

The trials and troubles associated with the feet are often such as to cause great annoyance and discomfort. The Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Toe Nails make walking a misery. When the feet swell, ache, tire easily, sweat profusely, or become sore readily, there is only one remedy that will overcome these disabilities and that is FOOT ELM. It keeps the shoes sweet and dry and the feet cool and clean.

Mr. W. J. Calgary, Cor. Wilton Ave. and Berkeley St., Toronto, Ont., says,-"I found Foot Elm an excellent foot remedy. I have been troubled with tender, sweating feet for a long time. The soles of my feet were always very sore. The use of Foot Elm has removed the soreness and excessive sweating. It proved a splendid remedy for my feet." Price 25c.
