Among the interesting events of the week was the marriage of Miss Annie McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. D. J. McLaughlin, to Mr. George W. Babbitt, of the branch Bank of Nova Scotia, Moncton (son of Mr. George N. Babbitt, Deputy Receiver

General, Fredericton), which took place at her father's residence on Leinster street at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. John Read. Tae parlors iu which the ceremony took place were decorated with white lilacs, three large arches of flowers filling in the bay window. White satin ribbons outlined a passageway through the room to the arches, beneath which the bridal party stood. Miss Mattie McLaughlin, sister of the bride acted as brides maid, the groom being supported by Mr. A. G. Blair, jr. The dresses of the bridal party were ex ceedingly pretty. The bride was gowned in white satin made with court train, chiffon mousquetaire sleeves and a drapery of old family lace. Lilies-of the valley and orange blossoms were effectively used as a trimming and also to hold the long tulle veil in place. The bride wore aidiamond brooch, the gift of Mrs. Usher, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Mattie McLaughlin wore white dotted muslin trimmed with Valenciennes lace over pink, with pink ribbon sash and stock collar; she carried a beautiful basket of pink roses tied with ribbon of the same shade. The dining room in which break fast was served was decorated in pink and green, while banks of green ferns filled in the halls and stairways. The weddings gifts were numerous and testified to the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt are held. The young men associated with Mr. Babbitt at Moncton presented him with a chair and the Circle of King's Daughters, in which Mrs Babbitt has been an active worker, sent her a very beautiful engraving. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the bridesmaid a pearl star pendant.
