[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen by Master Ralph Trainor, and at the bookstores of G. S. Wall, T. E. Atcheson and J. Vroom & Co. in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

JUNE 16.—Every one is so engrossed in preparations for Jubilee day that there is very little going on in society and I have but few things of interest to write.

This afternoon at three o'clock Miss Ida Smith, eldest daughter of Mr. Frank Smith is to be married to Mr. Aubrey Upham of Parrsboro, Nova Scotia. The wedding is to be at the home of the bride and directly after the happy young couple leave for a wedding trip to be spent in Parrsboro with the parents of the groom.

Yesterday Mr. George Downes took Mrs. A. E. Neill, Mrs. Ellen Cony and Miss Jessie Hamm, for a carriage drive to Pembroke Maine, to pay a visit to General and Mrs. B. B. Murray.

A large party of excursionists arrived from Woodstock and Houlton this morning and are enjoying themselves riding in the electric cars and visiting the different stores.

A grand jubilee service is to be held in Christ church on Sunday morning. The military are to be present and the band. At twelve o'clock the handsome marble bust of the Queen is to be unveiled by the wardens of the church, and "God Save the Queen," to be sung by the congregation. The church is to be appropriately decorated for the occasion with flags, bunting and flowers. The Sunday school children are to be present in a body at this service, and in the afternoon, they met again in their school room, and will be addressed by Mr. James Vroom and each child will be presented with a medal as a souvenir of the day. The other churches in town are to be decorated for the occasion and each church will be attended in a body by a secret society. In the afternoon a children's service is to be held in the curling rink and the children will be addressed by Rev. W. C. Goucher of the Baptist church.

This month has been famous for the number of weddings that we have already had and a number more are yet to come.

On Tuesday morning at half past six at the church of the Holy Rosary, Miss Jean Shaughnessy, was united in matrimony to Mr. A. W. McFaul of Machias, by Rev. Wm. Dollard. The bride looked lovely in a handsome travelling gown of blue made in military style and trimmed with black braid, she wore a stylish hat to match. The bridesmaid was Miss McFaul sister of the groom, and Mr. Frank Shaughnessy, attended the groom. The wedding gifts were very handsome, among them the gift of the groom, was a valuable horse, and handsome carriage. At eight o'clock Mr. and Mrs. McFaul, amid the congratulations of their friends who assembled at the train to wish them happiness, and good luck left for a wedding trip to be spent in Boston and vicinity, before returning to their home in Machias.

There was a dramatic and musical programme in which the young ladies were assisted by Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Howard B. McAllister, Miss George Thompson, Miss Annie Port, Miss Beatrice Vroom, and Mr. Frank Sparhawk. There was a large audience who were greatly pleased with the entertainment and many pleasant comments have been made on the acting of the young ladies who took part in the plays "Gaffer Grey's Legacy" and "Antidote." Mr. Godfrey Newnam as the "invalid" was especially good and deserves special notice as it was his first experience in an entertainment of this kind.

A BEAR CHANGED.

A Montreal lady writes—"K. D. C. has changed my husband from a bear to a kind and loving husband and father." The sufferer whom Dyspepsia renders miserable, peevish, crossgrained and often dejected, is not only tortured in himself, but the cause of torture to others. Companionship with a dyspeptic is rarely a dream of bliss, and well might the Montreal lady be grateful to K. D. C., which she stated, changed her husband from a bear into a kind and loving husband. K. D. C. for the stomach, and K. D. C. Pills for the liver and bowels.

Samples mailed for the asking.

Miss Maria Watts who recently arrived from Brooklyn, New York will spend the summer in Calais with relatives.

Miss Nellie Lowell's friends most cordially welcomed her home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrews, most pleasantly celebrated the anniversary of their marriage day with a reception at their residence in Calais on Thursday evening, to which a number of their friends and acquaintances were invited. There was a musical programme, and the evening was greatly enjoyed by their guests. At midnight a delicious and dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. McAndrews were presented with a number of handsome silver gifts, as souvenirs of the happy occasion.

A number of our young ladies intend to join in the bicycle carnival to be a feature of the entertainment at the driving park on Tuesday. I have heard of several costumes being in preparation that are both handsome and unique.

Very pretty was the wedding this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, when their daughter Miss Ida Gertrude Smith was married to Mr. J. Aubrey Upham, by Rev. O. S. Newnam of Christ church. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers. In the drawing room where the marriage service was performed an arch of white lilacs was erected and a beautiful marriage bell of the same delicate flowers, was suspended from it; under this the bride and groom stood during the ceremony. The bride was dressed in a cream colored satin trimmed with soft silk lace and sprays of orange blossoms. She also wore a tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor was the tiny sister of the bride, who wore a pretty dainty dress of white lace. There was no best man. After the ceremony, and congratulations, the bride and groom, guests, repaired to the dining room, and refreshments were served. The floral decorations of the dining room were yellow, and white, flowers of these colors were used in profusion, and produced a most charming effect.

The wedding gifts were unusually handsome and rare, many of them sterling silver. At five o'clock the happy young couple drove to the station and left in the train for Parrsboro, Nova Scotia, where they will spend a fortnight with the parents of the groom. The guests from out of town were Mrs. Taylor, and Mr. George Upham, of Parrsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Upham, will reside on Water street, and will begin house keeping at once upon their return from their wedding journey.

MONCTON.

Progress is for sale in Moncton at the Moncton Bookstore, by W. G. Stanfield and at M. B. Jones' Bookstore.

JUNE 16.—I believe we are really going to have quite a respectable celebration after all in spite of the gloomy prophecies, and constant croaking of some of the papers. The school children are going to sing—which will of course be heavenly—and it is understood that they will be rewarded for the performance with very prettily designed silver jubilee medals. The citizens band has been engaged for the day, and the display of fireworks on the Athletic grounds will exceed anything hitherto witnessed in Moncton, so we shall not have to hide our "diminished heads" after all even though we were obliged to give up the idea of competing with St. John or Halifax in our jubilee display.

The first of the weddings at which I could only hint darkly last week, took place not in Moncton but in Dorchester, Mass. though both the principals were Moncton people, the bride being Miss Nina Jamieson, formerly a well known and popular resident of Moncton the groom Mr. John Russell of the business department of the "Daily Times." The ceremony was a very quiet one, and took place at the residence of the bride's sister Mrs. Lely of Dorchester, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride, the newly wedded pair leaving immediately for Portland, Maine, where they intend spending some days. The numerous Moncton friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russell will join in wishing them every happiness in their journey through life.

Miss Henry of Chatham who has been spending some weeks in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton on Bonaccorsi street, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. T. W. Bell who is spending the summer at Dorchester, came up to town on Wednesday evening for the performance of "Brother for Brother" given in the opera house by the Harkin's company. Mrs. Bell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Borden during her stay.

Mr. A. Stewart Embree B. A., nephew of Mr. W. B. McKenzie, assistant engineer of the I. C. R. who has just graduated with honors in civil engineering at Mount Allison college, left town on Saturday evening for British Columbia where he intends making his permanent home. Mr. Embree's numerous friends in Moncton will unite in wishing him every success.

The Misses Dot and Sadie Borden who have been visiting Judge and Mrs. Hanington at Dorchester, returned home last week.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen passed through Moncton on the Quebec express on Sunday morning. Their Excellencies were en route to Halifax.

Mrs. C. F. Hanington and Miss Trixie Hanington were in town on Wednesday evening attending "Brother for Brother" at the opera house.

Mr. J. W. Kaye, whose serious and prolonged illness has already been noted, left town last week to seek change of air and scene in St. John, where he will visit relatives.

The congregation of St. George's church propose celebrating the Diamond Jubilee with a permanent memorial in the shape of a new Sunday school house. It is a most excellent idea as the present school house is not only inadequate in size but terribly out of repair, and it is to be hoped that the requisite funds will be forthcoming.

Mr. Charles Fawcett of Sackville paid a short visit to Moncton on Thursday.

Moncton people heard with very deep regret on Friday morning of the death of Mrs. Howard E. Gross which took place at her residence on Church street on Thursday evening, after a short illness of peritonitis. It is not yet two years since Mrs. Gross came among us a bride, and during her short residence in Moncton she had won hosts of friends by her sweet and gentle disposition, and many attractive qualities, and her early death has called forth many expressions of sorrow, while the bereaved husband has the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, the remains being taken to Hillsboro for interment. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. W. B. Hewson, while Rev. Mr. Camp of Hillsboro officiated at the grave. The floral tributes were beautiful and so numerous that the casket was almost entirely covered with flowers. The pall bearers were Messrs R. H. Minnis, W. C. Paver, G. A. Dodge, W. Brown, W. F. Humphrey, and J. D. Steeves. Mr. Gross' infant daughter aged five days passed away shortly after the mother's burial, thus leaving Mr. Gross doubly bereaved.

The many friends of Mrs. George W. Daniel will be pleased though not at all surprised to hear that she has carried away the Howe first medal in Toronto for miniature painting, which as a Toronto paper remarks is "exquisitely done." Mrs. Daniel's ability as an artist is well known and it is gratifying to her Moncton friends to know that her talents have now recognition in so artistic a city and so wide a field as Toronto.

Mr. John Dewar of Aberdeen Scotland, is spending a few weeks in town in the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris of Queen street.

Mr. D. W. Mitchell and bride of Sydney Cape Breton, are spending a few days in town. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are on their bridal trip.

TRURO.

[Progress is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton, and D. H. Smith & Co.]

JUNE 16.—The marriage of Mr. Charles Beverley Foster of St. John travelling passenger agent of the C. P. R. and Miss Eta Page, second daughter of James Munroe Page Esq. of this town for which so many had been on the qui vive for some weeks past, was consummated with considerable eclat this afternoon in the first Baptist church. Long before the church was thrown open to the public crowds had gathered in the grounds and vicinity; the church itself presented a beautiful appearance, flowers were everywhere in great profusion about the pulpit and desk the effect was particularly lovely palms and ferns overtly varietally potted and cut flowers, being banked most artistically. The ushers throughout the function were, Messrs Page, C. F. Layton, A. F. Gray, New Glasgow; and J. D. Chipman, Halifax. With the exception of the seats reserved for guests, of whom there was a large number, the edifice was literally packed above and below.

Promptly at half past two the hour announced for the ceremony, the bride entered leaning on her father's arm, and with three charming attendants in the persons of Miss Ruth O'Day, maid of honor and the Misses Geraldine and Dorothy O'Day as flower girls.

As the bridal party made their appearance and the groom entered from the vestry. The organ pealed forth under Mrs. Theodore Hill's skillful manipulation, with full choir, in "Lohengrin's beautiful wedding march; Rev. H. F. Adams, officiated the short service of the Baptist church being much enhanced by music throughout. The nuptial knot was quickly tied, and as the party left the church, Mendelssohn's triumphant march rang out. The bride was attired in a handsome and elegant gown of Pearl princess Olga, the bodice elaborately trimmed with white satin em. broided in pearls and steel, yellow lace and sash with ends of knotted silk, pearl ornaments, vivot hat of gray with feathers, and bouquet of bridal roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Ruth O'Day, wore a charmingly dainty toilette of white organdie and lace over mile green silk, muslin hat. The Misses Geraldine and Dorothy O'Day, wore frocks of white organdie and lace, over pink silk, muslin hats. All wore pearl wreath pins, the favours of the groom.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Wadell street, where an elaborate lunch was served, and when, Mr. and Mrs. Foster received the congratulations of their large number of guests, beside the numerous friends and relatives, present from Truro and vicinity, the following were among those present, from other places:—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Day and family, New York; Mrs. R. L. Foster, (mother of the groom) Kingston, N. B.; Mrs. Page, Bedford; Mrs. H. E. Marsters (aunt of the bride), Moncton; Mrs. Cochran, Matland; Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson, Buffalo, N. Y.; M. A. H. Norman, D. P. A. C. P. R. St. John; Messrs C. M. and Percy Page, (brothers of the bride), Ohio. The presents to the bride and groom were of great and unusual value, and most profuse, silver and gold plate, several purses of gold, statuary in Parian marble, antique china, and bric-a-brac, most elegant.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster left per. Quebec Express for Quebec, where they will make a short stay at "Frontenac," in this interesting city are proceeding to other points of interest. The bride wore a handsome suit of navy cloth tailor-made on going away with navy straw hat profusely trimmed with flowers. The crowds that gathered to witness her departure, made the station platform almost inaccessible.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Day entertained a small party at lunch yesterday, in their private car "Riva." There were besides their travelling party, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Page, Dr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dickie, Miss Page, Dr. D. H. Muir and C. B. Foster.

Mrs. C. A. Armstrong is visiting home friends in Windsor.

With an Eye to Safety.

A savage dog was sniffing about a market place in search of something to eat. He came too close to a choleric gardener from the suburbs and received a kick, whereupon he fastened his teeth in the leg of the hicker, greatly to that person's consternation and the terror of the assembled customers.

The wife of the gardener, who was assisting him in disposing of the stock of vegetables on hand, did not lose and prepared to crush the animal with it.

"Katrina," yelled her husband, frantically, "don't drow it at te tawg! Drow it at me, Katrina! Drow it at me!"

THINGS OF VALUE.

Barber—"What will you have on your face, sir?" Customer (faintly)—"Erysipelas, I think; it feels that way."—Judge.

"I hear young Nollekins has gone into the sculptor's business." "Yes but he don't cut much of a figure."

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailties of the system are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased sustenance—results, improved appetite, Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gaged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

"What cowards these men are! Here I am forty years old, and no one has had the courage to propose to me!"—Fliegende Blaetter.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.—C. W. Snow & Co., Syracuse, N. Y., write: "Please send us ten gross of Pills. We are selling more of Parmelee's Pills than any other Pills we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint." Mr. Chas. A. Smith, Lindsay, writes: "Parmelee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these Pills have cured her."

The Cannibal—"You are sweet enough to eat." His Wife—"But the doctor said you must not eat sweet things."—Texas Sittings.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices without which digestion cannot go on; also being the principal cause of Headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills taken before going to bed, for a while, never fails to give relief and effect a cure. M. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "Parmelee's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."

"Don't you think your son a little fast, Mrs. Sweetly?" "Far from it. He is so slow that we can never get him to breakfast before noon."—Detroit Free Press.

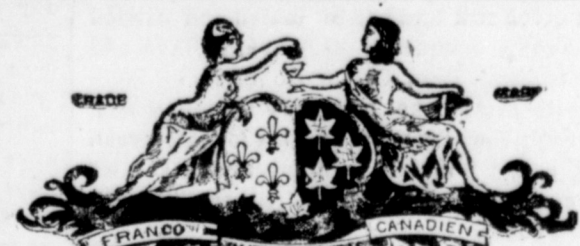

OUT OF SORTS—Symptoms, Headache, loss of appetite, furred tongue, and general indisposition. These symptoms, if neglected, develop into acute disease. It is a trite saying that an "ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and a little attention at this point may save months of sickness and large doctor's bills. For this complaint take from two to three of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills on going to bed, and one or two for three nights in succession, and a cure will be effected.

"This is surely a cribbed joke." "Yes; but it must be in its second childhood."—Yale Record.

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Stieki's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

Maek—"What is your idea of a perfect woman?" Wyld—"One who acknowledges her faults."—Puck.

A Life Saved.—Mr. James Bryson, Cameron, states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by the physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on his advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle relieved me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
