"The marriage of Miss Ella Beatrice, daughter of postmaster J. R. S. Devereux, who is also head book-keeper for the Shell Lake Lumber Co. and one of our oldest residents, to Rev. Alexander Coffin, took place at St. Stephen's Episcopal church here at 8 p. m., June 9th, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, preceded by the bridesmaids, to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. They were met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by Mr. W. H. Zwick, as best man. The bride was given away by her father. Rev. James Trimble performed the ceremony which united the young couple. She was gowned in white Swiss lawn, trimmed with Valenciennes lace; wore a beautiful bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Estella Harrison, sister of the bride, and Miss Elvina Mead, was attired in pink and white organdie and carried bouquets of pink carnations. The church was beautifully decorated by the bride's friends for the occasion. Miss Serena Anderson presided at the organ. The ushers were Messrs. Smith, Kirk and Watkins. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. The parlors and dining room were decorated with ferns, smilax, cut flowers and potted plants. The bride and groom received the congratulations of their friends in the front parlor, after which all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous feast was partaken of. They received many handsome presents from their friends here and also were kindly remembered with presents from friends at St. John, Cumberland, La Crosse, Rice Lake, River Falls, Still water, Minn., Parker, S.
