The good sleighing has triumphed over the very cold weather, and there were drives and dinners every night last week, most of these to Bedford.

There is some talk of reviving the old afternoon drives, with no hosts, but everyone meeting at some central place and driving to a convenient stopping place for tea.

A pleasant dinner was given at the residence of Senator McKee during the week, and cards are out for a similar function this evening.

Mrs. Harris, Spring Garden road has issued invitations for a tea for this (Thursday) evening, a legislative dinner is to be given at Government House this evening.

FARRSBORO.

[Progress is for sale at Farsboro Book Store.]

Feb. 1.—The first carnival of the season or for two seasons came off very successfully in the new Aberdeen rink last Wednesday evening.

The whist club spent a pleasant evening at Mrs. Upham's on Tuesday.

Rev. R. Johnston returned on Friday from the deanery meeting at Westville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Copp have been visiting friends at Amherst and Anzac.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reid are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Cecil Parsons attended the ball at Springhill. Mr. J. M. Townshend, Q. C. spent Sunday before last with Dr. and Mrs. Townshend.

Mrs. Woodworth gave a progressive euchre party on Thursday evening. The prizes a dainty cup and saucer and a beautiful ash tray fell to Miss Upham and Dr. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Timmerman returned yesterday from their bridal trip.

Mr. J. A. Johnson of Halifax was in town last week also Mr. Fred A. Upham of Truro.

The whist club meets this evening at Mrs. D. Gillespie's.

Two entertainments of a public character are in preparation a cantata by the baptists, and a play "Among the Breakers" by some of the members of St. Bridget's church. The latter will not be given before Easter week.

SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville by W. J. Goodwin.]

Feb. 2.—Curling matches occupy a good deal of attention at present. Wednesday last witnessed a fierce conflict between Amherst and Sackville. Sackville beat by one. A large number watched the match through to the freezing end with unflagging interest.

A few of the ladies were invited to the supper which always winds up these contests, and a pleasant half hour was spent, but as time, trains and electric lights wait for no man, this part of the programme had to be cut out rather short after a speech or two and a cup of coffee to "our next meeting."

A similar excitement prevailed Saturday when the Halifax curlers played before an equally large audience. The result of this match being a tie, the Sackville club is feeling at peace with all the world and at the same time hungering for another fight with the warring stones.

Taking advantage of the deep snow last week Mrs. Borden gave a snow shoe party, the first of the season. The tramp over the hills and fields by the light of a young moon was most enjoyable, the evening being just cold enough to be pleasant.

On account of the curler's match the whist players did not get in their regular meet last week, this agreeable event being postponed for a few days when they will be entertained by Mrs. Charles Pickard.

Friday evening a delightful dance was given by Mrs. Fulton McDougall. The rooms which open into each other were brightly lighted and potted plants and prettily arranged bouquets added much to the festive appearance. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Dr. and Mrs. Calkin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Pickard, Mrs. Rennie, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. McCully, Miss Black, Miss Ethel Ogden, Miss Black, Miss Estabrooks, Miss Emmerson, Miss Willis, Miss S. Copp, Miss Wood, Miss Keith, Miss Cogswell, Messrs F. Black, W. Black, Snowball, Tait, H. Wood, Fraser, Mowbray, Henderson, L. Harrison, Teed, A. Copp, Chandler, A. Smith.

The men were in full evening dress and the ladies looked charming.

Mrs. Fawcett wore pink silk.

Mrs. Ryan, green figured silk with white lace.

Mrs. Murray, black satin, yellow silk bodice.

Mrs. Calkin, very pretty evening dress of golden brown silk with white lace on the bodice.

Mrs. Foster, black silk, decorations of yellow silk.

Mrs. Allison, black, with pink silk bodice.

Mrs. Lane, dress of crushed strawberry color with white silk sash.

Mrs. McCully, a very quaint and striking costume of jetted black net with red silk bodice.

Mrs. Pickard, black satin with heliotrope decorations.

Miss Wood, an extremely dainty gown of pearl gray silk with grey chifon and natural pink flowers.

Miss Black, pale pink silk with old rose velvet trimmings.

Miss Black, a very becoming costume of pale blue crepon with shoes, gloves and fan of the same shade.

Miss Ogden, muslin of old rose and white with ribbon sash.

Mr. Estabrooks, white and yellow.

Miss Copp, black velvet with yellow decorations. There were other pretty dresses but the crowd prevented me seeing all to advantage.

Dancing was kept up with great spirit both before and after supper which was served early. It was also early before the guests could tear themselves away from the festive scene, somewhere about two in the morning.

The same evening Mrs. Wells on Weldon street gave a small tea party.

A further festivity which was much enjoyed by many was the carnival. A number went to the rink

The best thing with which a mother can crown her daughter is a common sense knowledge of the distinctively feminine physiology. Every woman should thoroughly understand her own nature. Every woman should understand the supreme importance of keeping herself well and strong in a womanly way. Nearly all of the pains and aches, nearly all the weakness and sickness and suffering of women is due to disorders or disease of the organs distinctly feminine.

When I commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine some three years ago, writes Mrs. Ella J. Fox, care of W. C. Fox, of Eldorado, saline Co., Ills. "I was the picture of death. I had no heart to take anything. Weight was 125. My husband had been to see five different doctors about my trouble (female weakness). I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicine, also wrote to him for advice. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and am now a well woman."
