FEB. 23,-The University ball and conversazione which took place on Thursday evening was the grand social event of the season; never have the classic halls presented a more charming appearence, or resounded to more delightful music, than the subdued hum of the merry voices as they tripped the light fantastic to the sweet strains of Offen's orchestra. The large entrance hall was converted into a veritable bower of evergreen and bunting. while the weal waxed floor made dancing a supreme delight. In the library, Prof. Downing, Mr. Z. R. Fverett, and Mr. Harry White gave a fine selection of steriopticon views and interesting phonographs and electrical experiments. On the second floor were ample sitting out' rooms and cosy corners for those who did not care to dance. But the place de resistance was the ball room in the entrance hall where the guests we re received the chaperones, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Dav idson and Miss Sadie Sterling and Mr. Jack Fairweather of the senior class. Resplendent with light and brilliancy, the tasteful decorations of the halls and the handsome toilettes of the ladies, made it a scene long to be remembered. A light running supper was served all evening in the supper room.

Li Hung Chang has just celebrated his 76th birthday. He was entertained by a number of high officials at the Anwhei club.

There never was and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which the flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and indifferently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient what would relieve one ill, in turn, would aggravate the other. We have, however in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convergence. est systems are led into convalescence and strength. by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature' own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making sctivity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substanceresults, improved appetite. Northrop & Lymsu of Toronto, have given to the public their superior

Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine appoaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists Herbert Spencer is still living at Brighton, England. He is reported to be in exceedingly feeble health suffering from an affection of the heart. There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, been known to fail. It promo es a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal. Alexandre Siloti, the Russian pianist now in this country, is thirty-five years old and the father of five children. His wife is the daughter of M. Tretiakoff, the owner of the finest art gallery in Mos-

As PARMALEE'S VEGETABLE PILLS contain Mandrake and Dandelion, they cure Kidney and Liver Complaints with unerring certainty. They also centain Roots and Herb; which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels. Mr. E. A. Cairneross, Shakespeare, writes: I consider Parmelee's Pills an excellent remedy for Billiousness and Derang ment of the Liver, having used them myself for some time.

Lemuel E y Quigg is exciting much attention in Washington by his latest style of coiffure. Some of his friends say that an inverted bowl was put on his head and all the hairs that protruded beyond the edge were cut off. Chronic Derangement of the Siomach, Liver and Blood are speedily removed by the active principle of the ingredients entering into the com-position of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. These pills act specifically on the deranged organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease and renewing life and vitality to the sflicted. In this lies the great secret of the popularity of Parmelee's Vegetable Pill Mark Twain is very popular with the Viennese. He gave a public reating in Vienna two weeks ago, and the hal was not large enough to hold the people willing to pay five do lars to listen to him, and the reading was in English too. The Best Pills - Mr. Wm. Vandervoort, Sydney Crossing Oat. writes: We have been using Parmelee's Pills and find them by far the best pills we ever used." For Delicate and Debilitated Constitutions these pills act like a charm. Taken in small do-es the effect is both atonic and a stimulant, mildly exciting the secretions of the body, g ving tone and vigor. A British patent covers England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland and the Channel Islands, but not
