SACKVILLE.

[Progress is for sale in Sackville by W. J. Goodwin.]

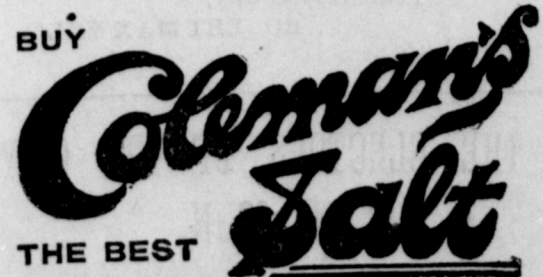

April 13.—Thursday last a party was being talked up for an expedition to the sugar woods but it rather fell through. First one obstacle presented itself, and then another till finally the prime movers, Messrs Fred Dixon and Fred Hart, stood no longer upon the order of their going but just went. Their destination was the sugar camp of Wellington, Deane, Leinster, some ten miles the other side of Amherst. They found excellent roads all the way, a warm welcome at the house of the end of the road, and a very pleasant stay. Next morning the rest of the party intended to go.

Saturday evening a reception was held at the ladies' college. This is only the second that has been held there and there will not be another gathering of the sort till the "grand" closing. As a number of the students of both sexes were away the drawing rooms were not as full as is usual on these occasions but a pleasant evening was spent with the ever useful "topics." The last topic was discussed around small tables in the dining room when the hospitality of Mrs. Borden had provided a sumptuous and cake.

Sunday was a particularly fine day and all the churches had large congregations. The Easter head gear and gala attire generally were much in evidence. The Methodist church was a mass of bloom within the communion rails. The front of the pulpit was covered with white, bearing the inscription "Fear ye not, He is risen" worked in pale blue, on either side were palms and foliage plants, colored flowers and tall Easter lilies in pots. The effect was extremely pleasing. The music which is under the leadership of Prof. Chisholm, was excellent though simple in character. Miss Florence Webb the organist filled her part at both services extremely well. The anthem was "If we believe that Jesus died" by C. S. Simper. There was a scholarly discourse by Dr. Stewart chaplain of the university. The evening service was under the auspices of the Woman's missionary society. The chief features of the programme were the scripture lesson by Mrs. Borden, a paper on China by Miss Stewart and the Easter address from Mr. Howard the pastor, in which he made graceful reference to woman's leading place in Christianity from the earliest time, "being last at the cross, first at the grave." Beside suitable hymns the choir rendered "Gloria" and "Praise ye the Father" most acceptably. The most noticeable musical feature was the quartet by Messrs. Robson, Dunn, Fulton and Crossman. The music was the old familiar "Nearer my God to Thee" arranged in this form by Mr. A. Crossman. It was creditable alike in its setting and rendering. The music altogether is considered the best the congregation have enjoyed for some time.

In St. Paul's church there was early communion, the eleven o'clock service being held at St. Ann's Westcott. In the afternoon there was a christening service in St. Paul's when Mrs. S Taylor's infant received the name of Edmund Stevens. This young gentleman who is considered the show baby of the place, was as good as gold and as pretty as a picture. In the evening there was a semi-choral service given to a large congregation. The church was handsomely decorated chiefly through the efforts of Miss Robinson. The front was covered with moss and tastefully arranged blooming plants with a calla lily in the centre. There were Easter lilies in pots before the reading desk and altar and on the latter was a beautiful cross of white carnations. The music was very good the psalms and canticles in particular showing a marked improvement.

The anthem by E. V. Hall was most melodious, the hymns 498 and 499 well sustained. The "piece de resistance" was the duet from Stainer's "Daughter of Jairus," by Miss Jennie Estabrookes and Mr. Murray. It was much enjoyed by all and will be repeated next Sunday by request. Miss Estabrookes who is not yet very far along in her teens and has received but little instruction carried through her part well, taking G. with great ease.

Every package guaranteed. The 5 lb Carton of Table Salt is the neatest package on the market. For sale by all first class grocers.

Her voice is a fresh sweet soprano of good compass. Mr. Murray was in magnificent voice all through the service so much so that one could forgive the few places where he did not strike his note quite truly. The eloquent address of the Rev. C. F. Wiggins was entirely in keeping with the day.

Miss Fanny Bliss, the organist of St. Mark's Mt. Whitley, was presented on Easter Monday by a grateful congregation with a purse of sixteen dollars.

Monday appeared to be kept a holiday by more than the bank men, many being out "for wheel or for wheel" enjoying the bright sun and dry roads.

There was a very entertaining party given in the evening by Mrs. George Black. The guests, many of whom belong to the senior class were, Miss Sprague, Miss Webb, Miss Brecken, Miss Harrison, Miss C. Webb, Miss Sherwood, Miss Bowles, Miss Maxwell, Miss L. Hart, Miss Paisley and Messrs. A. Ison, Johnson, Clegg, Porter, Steeves, Fogarty, McNeil and Euman. The amusements consisted of a large variety of progressive games, including croquet, bean bags and spooning potatoes till at last the party "progressed" to the supper table where something more attractive than potatoes were spooned.

April 13.—The Easter concert, to which we all have been looking forward, with a good deal of anticipation, came off in the Opera house on Monday evening and met with wonderful success. The opening piece, Trio for Piano, Violoncello and Violin, by Messrs. C. M. G. and Miss Alice Day and Prof. Briscoe was beautifully rendered and showed that the performers fully caught the spirit of the author.

Next on the program was the duet "Maying" by Mrs. Stephen Dixon and Prof. Briscoe. Mrs. Dixon sang very sweetly and was well received, her voice blending with the rich tenor of Prof. Briscoe's making perfect harmony.

The third number brought Ole Tobiold to the stage and he was welcomed with much enthusiasm, but for the most part was very disappointing, as he had been looked upon as the great drawing card, much was expected of him. A Norwegian tone landscape could scarcely be expected to have much appreciation from a Canadian audience. The artist was certainly unhappy in his selections. That he is a fine executionist all may see, which was particularly noticeable in his singing, but if he had only given some sweet melody, how he could have appealed to the senses, whereas his descriptive pieces found no response in his audience. His quartette accompaniment was a truly wonderful piece of execution.

Mrs. Stephen Dixon's slumber song was much appreciated and very sweetly sang.

Next came Miss Nan Thomson, her song—When the Heart is Young, showed off her voice to the fullest; the rich tones met with a warm appreciative audience, Miss Thompson fairly eclipsed all former efforts as she never sang to better advantage.

Mrs. Jaffray captured the audience with her song, "Ashore"—by Co. van, Mrs. Jaffray's enunciation was perfect, and was the great charm of her singing and has won for her a warm place in the hearts of the musical world.

Prof. Briscoe's tenor solo, Anbach Serenade was a delight to his audience, Mr. Briscoe sings with an ease that is delightful to his hearers always. To Mr. Briscoe is due the credit of the wonderful success of the concert.

The testimony is positive and concurrent that the article relieves physical pain, cures lameness, checks a cough, it is an excellent remedy for pains and rheumatic complaints and it has no nauseating or other unpleasant effect when taken internally.

Chronic Derangement of the Stomach, Liver and Blood are speedily removed by the active principle of the internal remedy, Dr. THOMAS' PAIN-EXPELLER, Vegetable Pills. A Dinner Pill.—Many people suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open secretions and convert the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.
