MAY 25 .- Both St. Stephen and Milltown were gay with flags yesterday, and Calais also displayed a goodly amount of bunting in he nor of her majesty's birthday. The town was full of holiday seekers all day, supplemented by the large excursion from St. John, St. George and vicinity. There were sports of all kinds, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at the Driving park, and the ladies of the presbyterian church held a dinner and supper in the Y. M. C. | ing. A. hall. The Young People's association of Trinity church held an ice cream party which was liberally patronized. In the evening there was a military entertainment in the Curling rink, and the Artillery band from St. John gave a concert in the St. Croix hall. The town was very lively all day the streets were a moving panorama of pedestrians, bicyclists, and an endless variety of teams, business was suspended on both sides of the river with few exceptions and everyone seemed to enjoy the national
