AMHERST.

[Progress is for sale in Amherst by W. P. Smith & Co.]

JAN. 4.—The old year went out very pleasantly with several entertainments, among them was a charming party for the young ladies and gentlemen who are at home from school for the holidays, given by Mrs. N. Curry at her pretty home "Seven Gables" Havlock street, and in honor of her sons Victor and Eric. The pleasant affair came off on Wednesday evening and was greatly enjoyed by about forty of these young people who are just on the borders of coming out.

Another pretty function came off on Thursday when Mrs. T. Sherman Rogers entertained a number of ladies at afternoon tea. It was an ideal winter day and Mrs. Rogers lovely home looked particularly inviting and cosy and the cup that cheers was decidedly welcome.

Mrs. J. Halliburton Silver of Montreal is in town visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hillson Havlock street. As Miss Hillson was a great favorite and her large circle of friends always give her a hearty welcome home.

Mrs. J. A. Davis was at home on Friday afternoon to a large number of invited guests. Her delightful residence on Havlock street is well adapted for large and social gatherings and Mrs. Davis is an ideal hostess.

The Sunday school in connection with the Methodist church held their annual Christmas treat in the vestry on Friday evening.

Miss Ernie Liddell is spending her holidays in Halifax with her young friend Miss Slayter.
