On Monday evening of last week there were several Hallowe'en parties, with all the timehonored ceremonies of melting lead, bobbing apples, and every mystic (and untrustworthy !) method of discovering your future partner in life. The largest of these gatherings was given by Mrs. Wickwire, the guests being all unmarried, though some of them had no excuse for searching the future as to their own matrimonial intentions. All sorts of games and an excellent supper wound up a very pleasant party, which was a cheerful event in a rather dull week.

Cards are out for a large afternoon party at Bishopsthorpe on Thursday next, where Miss Courtney will be hostess in the absence of her mother. Very good news has been received of the health of Mrs. Courtney, who has been so sad an invalid for the past year. If she continues to improve as she is now doing, it is expected that she will very soon by able to return to Halifax, where she has, of course, been much missed, both socially and in church work.

Mrs. West gave a very pleasant musical tea on Thursday afternoon, probably one of the last enterments at which Miss West will assist as hostess, as her marriage takes place very soon now. It was a very cheery and pleasant entertainment, several ladies among the guests singing delightfully. Miss Argles, who is the guest of Miss Wickwire, has a charming voice and sang very prettily, as did Miss Wickwire, who contributed two songs. Mrs. Curren, whom people would be only too glad to hear more often, gave great pleasure by her singing and O'Brien. dining room

On the same afternoon Miss Chipman had a large tea which was one of the pleasantest of the week, and much enjoyed by her large circle of friends.

Dr. W. Slayter R. N. is here on leave, the guest of his mother Mrs. Slayter.

Dr. and Mrs. Wickwire have gone on a short trip to Western Canada, to visit their son, Mr. W. Wickwire, who is farming in Manitoba. Miss Wickwire's marriage takes place early in January, and the dresses of the bridesmaids are to be the prettiest Halifax has seen for many a day.

The officers of the Royal Canadian regiment have postponed their ball for a month on occount of the sad news of the death of their brother officer, Mr. Keating, in Africa. Mr. Keating will be remembered as a boy in Halifax, though he never was here after entering service. Africa has claimed many victims among the Canadians who have gone there, some well known names among them being Stairs, the explorer, Huntley McKay and Beverley Robinson, of St. John. Mr. Keating is another on the sad list. Captain Geoffrey Twining seems to be one of the few Canadians who have returned safe and sound after some years in the African service.

There were several teas after the football match Saturday afternoon, two being given by bachelor hosts in the garrison and one by a lady whose football teas are celebrated. There has not been any- | are to come to New York immediately after their thing like the usual number of such autumn, and ramor says the difficulty of obtaining enough men to hand cups has been the cause !

Among the men who lately distinguished themselves in Egypt was Major Ark wright, who was in this garrison as Mr. Arkwright some years ago. His honorable mention in despatches goes to show that physical health has very little to do with bravery, as he has been for years a great sufferer from asthma, as his friends here will remember.

NEW YORK.

Nov. 10.-Preparations for the coming Horse Show afford the requisite apology for the return to town of many well-known people. The Vanderbilts are of the number. William K. Vanderbilt has just arrived on the steamship Campania, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt will be in their big town establishment by tomorrow week. Mr. and Mrs. W. Douglas Sloane and family will be located at 640 Fifth Avenue George W. Vanderbilt's house. Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb, who are still at Shelburne Farms, their Vermont establishment, can be depended on to be present at the Horse show. They will linger in the country until after next Saturday, when they are to give a reception in honor of the officers of the Third United States Calvary. Mrs. Astor and Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor are in their adjoining Fifth avenue houses. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Orme Wilson returned to their town house, 414 Fifth avenue, from Long Island last Thursday. They will only remain in this dwelling pending the cempletion of their new house further uptown.

The cards for the wedding of Miss Josephine B. Brooks and John R. Livermore will be sent out directly after the Horse Show. The day fixed for the event is Wednesday, Dec. 14. Trinity Chapel, in which the ceremony will take place, is likely to prove to be somewhat small for the occasion, so many invitations will be issued. The choice of Trinity Chapel will be a surprise to many who had expected a Roman Catholic ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Brooks, the bride's parents, were maaried in Trinity Chapel, and for this reason it was chosen by their daughter. As to all appointments this wedding wilbe one of the smartest of the winter. Miss Brooks will be attended by ten bridesmaids, all of the younger Newport set There will be ten ushers. After the church ceremony, at noon, there will be a b idal breakfast and reception at the Fifth avenue residence of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks. Mrs. Brooks is, with the possible exception of Mrs. Brice, the most lavish entertainers of the Newport set, rivaling Mrs. Bradley Martin and Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes. Miss Brooks, who was introduced a couple of seasons ago, is a remarkable pretty girl and one of the richest prospective heiresses in town. Mrs. Brooks and her brother, Eugene Higgins, are said to have each inherited $30,000,000 from their father. Mr. Brooks himself has a substantial fortune. Eugene Higgins, who has been abroad for a year, is about

If men would only realize that ill - health robs them not only of life, but of their fortune as well, there would be fewer penniless widows and orphans to drag out cheerless lives. When a man holds a dollar close up to his eyes, it shuts out the light of good judgment, and looks bigger than life or death, or wife or child. The facts are that ill-health very soon puts a stop to a man's money-making powers and turns them into money-losing dis-

When a man's digestion is out of order and his liver sluggish, his brain gets dull, his muscles sluggish, his blood impure and every organ in the body-brain, lungs, heart, stomach, liver and kidneys-becomes crippled. A man with a crippled lung, liver, heart, brain or kidney, is a worse cripple ten times over, than a man who is minus a leg or an arm. The man who is crippled ontside may live a long life but the man who is crippled inside is taking a short cut to the grave. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures indigestion, makes the appetite keen, the liver active, the blood pure, and every organ healthy and vigorous. It makes blood and builds flesh up to the healthy standard. Honest dealers don't recommend substitutes.

"I wish to say to those who suffer from kidney and bladder trouble—take Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Dr. Anderson, of Carthage, Jasper Co., Mo. "A patient of mine says it is worth $50 per bottle to any one who is afflicted as he was. Three bottles cured him entirely. Perfectly miserable he was before telling. tirely. Perfectly miserable he was, before taking the 'Discovery' and now is one of the happiest men in this County. Prof. Chreine would gladly sign this if he were in town. He requested me write a testimonial and make it as strong as the English language could make it."

A $1.50 home doctor-book FREE. For a paper-covered copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser send 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of customs and mailing only. Cloth binding 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

to return. Baron and Baroness Seilliere, the youthful bridegoom's stepfather and mother will arrive here after Thanksgiving. Their latest visit to Paris has been but a flying one. All of Mr. Livermore's immediate relatives are particularly identified with the Roman Catholic church. He has made his home since his mother's remarriage, seven years ago, with his grandmother, Mrs. John

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederic Tams have ing a few days at Lenox with Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Gurnee. Mr. and Mrs. Tams are among the number who have recently arranged to build cottages at Tuxedo. There will be quite a rush to town from Lenox immediately after the marriage there next Wednesday of Miss Heien Stuyvesant Folsom and the Rev. Churchill Satterlee. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Winthrop Felsom of this city and the bridegroom is the son of Bishop Henry Yates Satterle of Washington. The Folsoms returned to New York last winter after a stay of several years abroad.

Hermann Danforth Newcomb gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night at the Pendennis Club, Louisville, Ky. His marriage with Miss Matilda Florence Churchill will be an event of next Wednesday evening at that city. Among those who left. New York during the week to attend the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Victor Newcomb, and members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Katte. Edwin Britton Katte is to be the best man. Mr. and Mrs. H. Victor Newcomb came to this city from Louisville years ago. They still have many relatives and friends there, and their son elected, when he was graduated from college to practice law there. Mrs. Hermann Danforth will be one of the many brides who will be seen at the Horse Show. The Newcombs marriage and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H, Victor Newcomb.

Recent news from abroad as to the health of Miss de Garmendia of this city is very discouraging. She is with her mother, Mrs. Carlos G. de Garmendia, and other members of the family at Nymphenburg, having left Sorrento. Miss de Garmendia, who is an exceptionally pretty and attractive girl' is a sister to Mrs. Julien Townsend Davies and of the late Martin de Garmeudia. Mr. and Mrs. Spalding de Garmendia, nee Jenness, who were married early in September, are still travelling abroad, but will make their future home here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crocker, who have been at San Francisco since his return from Europe are expected in New York this week. They will travel in their own private car. Mr. Crocker's fortune will be much greater than antic pated according to re-Cent accounts. Mr. and Mrs. Crocker have a new uptown house of which they will take possesion on their arrival. Mrs. Crooker has a daughter, Miss Rutherford, who may be one of the season's debu-

The Hemstead set will be represented at the Horse Show, Hamilton W. Cary, William C. Whitney, Sidney J. Smith, E. D. Morgan, and Thomas Hitchcock, jr. are among those who have taken arena boxes. Soon after the show Mr. and Mrs Thomas Hitchcock, jr. will leave Broad Hollow Farm, their Westbury, L. I., establishment, for their winter home at Aiken, N. C.

One of the weddings still to come for which the war is responsible is that of Miss Helen F. Hoffman and Dr. William Kinnicutt Draper. The date has just been fixed and is Dec. 28. The cards will be sent out after the Horse Show, and the ceremony will be performed in the Church of the Heavenly rest by the rector, the Rev. D. Parker Morgan. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoffman, the bride's parents, will give a reception at their home afterward. Miss Heffman intererested herself actively last spring in the work of the Red Cross society. So did Miss Martha Draper, who freq uently called on her brother, Dr. Draper, for aid. In this way he met Miss Hoffman, and the early winter wedding is the result.

Miss Caroline Suydam Duer and George Xavier McLanahan of Washington will be married next Tuesday at New Haven. This will be the third big wedding in the Duer family within a few months. A large party of members of prominent families, all relatives of the bride, will go from here to be present at the wedding. An elaborate breakfast at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denning Duer, 691 Whitney avenue, will follow the ceremony. Miss Duer is a granddaughter of the late Denning Duer of Hawkhurst, Weehawken, and a niece of Edward James and William A Duer of this city.

Nov. 9.-This is one of the off weeks in society circles, no weddings to record, no social functions of any kind taking place, and a general settling down for the winter which, however, necessary it may be is rather depressing as far as society happenings go. I am atraid all the indications point towards a quiet winter, as we have lost so many of the people who used to entertain, and of the few who are left some will be away this winter and others are in mourning; so the social outlook is not of the brightest. However, one must hope for the best, and I have heard already of one or two large dances to be given during the holiday season.

It is a fortunate thing that the ladies of Moncton take such an interest in the sports of the opposite sex, as the rink, the Hockey games and the curling rink never fail to draw crowds of fair spectators. Sp eaking of the Curling club reminds me that the friends of the club will be glad to hear of its continued prosperity, and the sound financial basis on which it stands. At the annual meeting held last week the treasurer reported a surplus of six cents in the tressury after all expenses were paid. N ta larg e balance certainly but quite sufficient to indicate the solvency and financial health of the organ-

The admirers of Madame Marie Harrison are looking forward eagerly to her appearance in Moncton next Wednesday, when she gives one of her always popular concerts in the Opera house. Mrs. Harrison will be assisted by such well known local talent as Miss Jean Bruce violinist, Mr. F. H. Blair, planist, Mr. W. S. Bonness and the Citizen's Band. Madame Harrison never fails to draw a large and enthusiastic audience in Moncton, and as t he tickets have been placed at popular prices she will doubtless have a crowded house.

A basket social in aid of the methodist Sunday school of that place was given in Memramcook last Wednesday evening, a number of well known Monct on people taking part. Those who assisted were Mrs. H. W. Dernier, Mrs. H. J. Brown, Mrs. Barse, Mrs. C. S. McCarthy, Miss Parlee, Miss McCarthy, and Messrs. Lea, Tingley, and Sangster. The e ntertainment was most successful realizing a good sum for the worthy object in view.

Mr. W. B. McKenzie chief engineer of the I. C. R., and Mr. R. W. Simpson of the engineering department who have been in St. John for the past ten days in connection with the Colpitts case, in the Exchequer court returned to Moncton on Saturday. The many friends of Miss Hennigar who has been spending the greater part of the summer and all the autumn, with relatives in Nova Scotia and St. John, are delighted to welcome her home again after her long absence. Miss Heningar returned to the city on Saturday.

Amongst the absentees this winter will be Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, who leave this afternoon for New York, where they will join a party of friends and sail for Genoa, to spend the winter in Southern Europe. The greater part of the time will be spent travelling in Italy. Mr. and Mrs. Smith's Moncton friends will regret their departure exceedingly as they can ill be spared from our already sadly diminished circle, but they will try to remember that their loss will be the travellers' gain, and unite in wishing them a prosperous journey and a safe return. The numerous friends of Mr. T. V. Cooke were greatly surprised and shocked on Wednesday morning to hear that he had been taken sudden anp violently ill the night before, and that the physician had pronouncad the cause of the seizure to be paralysis of the brain. Sympathizing friends were of course promptly at hand to make inquiries and ofier assistance to the doubly stricken family, and were glad to receive the assurance that Mr. Cooke was not considered to be in any immediate danger although his condition was undoubtedly very

The terrible shock received by Mr. Caoke a few weeks ago in the death of his son Captain W. E. Cooke, who was killed in action in East Africa, and his unselfish efforts to hide his own grief over the death of his only, and idolized son, and to keep up a semblance of cheerfulness for the sake of those who were dear to him, are supposed to have proved to great a strain even for his excellent constitution, and caused a sudden and complete collapse. The same good constitution and the perfect health he had always enjoyed previously, are strongly in the patient's favor and there seems every reason to hope for a favorable termination of his illness especially as his strength holds out wonderfully, and shows some favorable symptons. Meanwhile, Mrs. Cooke and the Misses Cooke have the warmest sympathy of their friends in their fresh trouble and anxiety.

some time with the Colpitts case in the Exchequer Court.

Miss Hanington presided at the organ in St George's Church at both the morning and evening. services on Sunday, during the illness of the organist, and gave universal satisfaction by the able manner in which she conducted the musical part of the service. In St. John's Presbyterian Churh Clare's beautiful anthem "Hark, hark my soul," was a feature of the service. Mr. Lyman rendering the solo part in magnificent style. The musical directors of the church has undoubtedly shown great wisdon in securing this charming vocalist to assist in the choir.

The death of Mrs. W. D. Simpson, which occurred at an early honr on Monday morning, was heard of with very deep regret by her large circle of friends in this city. Mrs Simpson was fifty one years of age and the widow of the late Wm. D. Simpson, who was employed by the I. C. R. for some years, and had been in failing health for some morths past, never having really recovered from the shock of her husband's death.
