The great event of last week was the ladies dinner given by the officers of the Princess Louise Fusiliers at the Halifax hotel It was quite a large affair, and most admirably managed, The guests were received in the drawingroom by Colonel and Mrs. Weston, and dinner was served in the large dining-room.

The tables were most beautifully decorated, and a lesson to many private houses, with their lovely arrangement of long trails of smilax, chrysanthemums, and high palms and much silver. Many of the ladies carried away their menu cards as a souvenir of one of the prettiest sights and pleasantest evenings possible.

There were, of course, all sorts of lovely frocks worn, and reports say that the prettiest of all was Mrs. Cuaren's exquisite pale green brocade. Mrs. Curry was beautifully dressed in gray and turquoise blue' and Mrs Weston looked exceedingly sweet in black over turquoise.

Among the unmarried ladies Miss Burns in black and Miss Wickwire in white and green looked charming, and Miss Nicholson in pale blue was much admired.

Miss Daisy Foster sang very delightfully after dinner, and was prettily gowned in pink. Mrs. Curren, who is heard too seldom, also sang two or three songs, to the great pleasure of the crowded drawing room.

The table was arranged in three sides of a square the upper end being occupied by the guests holding the highest rank. The Queen's health was drunk standing, and was the prettiest sight possible the lovely dresses of the ladies setting off the scar-

Mrs. W. K. Langille gave a large tea last Friday afternoon. The hostess was assisted in dispensing her hospitalities and looking after the comfort of her guests, by Mrs. Geo. Layton, Mrs. Albert Black, Mrs, Lewis Rice, Mrs. Fred Fowler, Mrs. Lee Russell and Miss Ottie Smith.

The same evening Mrs. Vernon entertained a large party, for whist. Miss Cragg, and Mr. Jack Muir were the prize winners. Beside the house party there were present: Dr. and Mrs. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. M. Dickie, Dr. and Mrs. Yorston, Dr and Mrs. Randal, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Tremaine, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. and baked potatoes. Sounds inelegant does it? Just try it once and see how it will go down. The third engagement Friday evening was an entertainment in Beethoven hall given by the Eclectric society of Mt. Allison ladies college. It was extremely well got up and agreeble as the young ladies affairs are apt to be. A well delivered reading by Miss Harrison and a decidedly clever essay from Miss M. Evans represented the literary part of the programme. There was a selection from the promising young pianist, Miss Nichol; Miss Wright gave a sweet voiced song and the boys glee club assisted with a comic medly sang with great spirit. The Brownies occasioned lots of fun while the tableaux both the Grecian and the old fashioned "Loves me, loves me not", were extremely pretty and got up with a good deal of taste. At the close ice cream was served and a sort of informal reception was held, and everyone appeared to have a thoroughly good time. Miss Maxwell the president fills her position with ability and grace and all the members of the society were untiring in their efforts to make the evening pass off well. The neat sum of $20 net was the result.

Saturday Miss Emmerson gave 'small and early' to a tew friends in honor of Miss Smith who has been her guest ov r a month. Miss Smith's departure early this week for her home in Petitcodiac is regretted by all who have met her.

when the long talked of and long wished for opening took place. The building was crowded at all three services. Not only was there a goodly share of townspeople but visitors were present from Amherst, Point de Bute, Baie Verte, Port Elgin and Jolicure. i he morning dedicatory service was conducted by Dr. Brecken at which Dr. Sprague of Summerside, delivered a most finished and intellectual discourse taking his text from 1 Cor. 1 Chap. 23 verse. "We preach Christ crucified." The appearance of the church is now handsome in the extreme with its beautiful stained glass windows quartered oak pews and spacious galleries. The pulpit and choir platform looked particularly well with the organ in the centre at the back. Under the care of Mrs. Josiah Wood, all about the front of the pulpit was tastefully decorated with palms, potted plants in bloom and cut flowers. The music throughout the day was excellent. The choir, which was considerably augmented for the occasion, have improved wonderfully under Prof. Oettiking's training and rendered all the selections with fine modulations and in goon time. The anthems were "Hearken unto Me my people" by A. Su livan, Beethoven's "The Heavens are declaring," and "The radiant morn" by H. H. Woodward all of which displayed Mr. Dettiking's conducting abili y. Mrs. Harrison's solo "Let the bright seraphum" from Handel was very beautiful and has been much admired. Although Madame has been travelling and singing incessantly she was in fine voice and took her high notes with all her old time prestige. She also gave "Star of Bethlehem," "Song of Trust," and "I will extol Thee" singing twice for the children at the Sunday school rally in the afternoon.

Arising From Dyspepsia

Gentlemen :-

This certifies that I was troubled very much with heart trouble arising from dyspepsia. I was very bad and my wife was afraid to go to sleep for fear I would have one of those smothering turns and perhaps not get over it. I heard of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills and got a box of them. I took them according to directions and in less than two weeks time I was completely cured. I used altogether about three boxes and believe there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as a box of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. I take great pleasure in recommending the Pills to all afflicted as I was. Yours truly. Alex. McFeatherin, Antigonish, N. S. If wives and mothers would only resort to the right remedy when they suffer from weakness and disease of the delicate and important feminine organs that are baby's threshold to life, there would be fewer husbands bereft, and fewer homes saddened by an infant's loss. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes the feminine organs strong, healthy and vigorous. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It banishes the maladies of the period of suspense, and makes baby's entry to the world easy and comparatively painless. An honest druggist will not try to induce a customer to take an inferior substitute for this great remedy, for the sake of extra profit.

" Mrs. Seagle was a great sufferer from a combination of female diseases, a few years ago, from which she has been entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Geo. A. Seagle, Esq., of Box 130, Wytheville, Va. "She is thoroughly convinced that there is no medicine on earth equal to the 'Favorite Prescription, and she doesn't hesitate to say so. She has rec-ommended it to her lady friends, and in all cases, where it has been given a fair trial, it has given entire satisfaction.

have suddenly changed their minds. And this dance the debutantes vowed, was the very loveliest that could be, and they did hope there would be more. So on Saturday, in the old Racquet Court, an afternoon dance was given as a farewell by Colonel and Mrs. Lake, who leave for India on the 10th. It was a great crush, and a few who liked dancing tripped blithely to the music, and the many who did not tried to get out of the way and all who could found their way to the supper room. There was still an other dance last week but you may be tired of the Altogether the Sixty-Sixth must be congratulated on their thoroughly sporting departure, the success of which speaks for itself.

The junior members of the Church-woman's Missionary society held a bazaar at the Church Institute on the ninth, which was quite as successful as last week's and was by way of being a society function at tea time. There were all sorts of small parties, and a very respectable sum was realized.

The frost has come at last and all sorts of plans are already on foot for skating parties, including a garrison one, at which the band will play for dancing. There is, as yet, no committee appointed to take the private afternoons in hand, but that will be all arranged as soon as the skating fever really sets in. Rink parties are very sensibly to be begun early in the season, as they were left so late last year that the ice was often of a very doubtful quality.

Lady William Seymour is having a children's fancy ball, if report speaks truely, in Christmas week, with no guests but children of all ages, and it will be one of the prettiest sights possible. All sorts of pretty costumes are being devised for the small guests, and their pleasure will be a real joy to watch. It is a most delightful innovation, and Lady William will be a most popular person in juvenile circles. Of course the mothers with the children, as some of them are quite too wee to go alone.

Miss Oliver's wedding is now fixed for the 29th of this month, and Captain Draske will arrive here about Christmas.

Colonel Wilkinson's best man at his marriage with Miss West will be Captain Lake, but the wedding is to be a small one; according to a fami y t adition, only the girl friends of the bride and members of the garrison being invited.

And still there is an another engagement ! This time not in the garrison, but purely clvilian. However, it is not yet announced, and no one is quite sure whether to offer congratulations or not. Such things have a way of leaking out, and there is likely to be yet another smart wedding at Easter. Truly, people will be at their wits end this year to vary their wedding presents. The really great society event of recent date was the performance of " The Highwayman" given at the Russell theatre, for their Exceliencies were present, and with their house party occupied two boxes. Lady Minto wore a gown of black net over red, while Lady Sybil Beauclerc was in pale yellow satin. In the audience were all the notable people of the Capital, most of them in evening dress. I believe that I gave a description of the new theatre in that much-lamented letter that never saw the light of day, so I am going to write about it again. It is considered to be one of the prettiest in Canada. One can leave the Russell parlors and go through a covered archway till the lights of the theatre burst upon one. SACKVILLE.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Sackville by W. J Goodwin.]

Dec. 14,-Friday last was lucky Friday in the way of entertainments. An agreeable social event was the progressive whist party given that evening by Mrs. Thos. Murray in her pretty home on York St. It was at the same time a meeting of the Bread and Butter club, but as there were other distractions, not all the members were there. The guests present were; Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Tupper, Miss Grace Fawcett' Miss Janie Fawcett, Miss McMurray, Miss Stevens Miss Emmerson, Miss Smith, Miss Cogswell, Miss Ella Copp, Miss Sigra Copp, Miss Emily Willis, Miss Minnie Estabrookes and Messrs. A. Smith, A. Copp, B. Teed, H. Henderson, G. B. Chandler. B. Rayworth, Hillie Ford, Dr. Sprague, Dr. Knapp. This number with host and hostess made eight tables at which the game was kept up with great spirit till the party had "progressed" nine times when a halt was called. The ladies first prize, a pretty little pearl and silver paper cutter, was taken by Miss McMurray, the men's first, a silver soap box, by H. Ford, while a dainty metal pin tray was offered to Mrs. Tupper as consolation for having more blue stars on her card than red and for the same reason Dr. Knapp was made the proud possessor of a ' yellow kid," one of the puppets that on the slightest provacation, would clap its hands joyfu'ly as much as to say, "Never mind old chappie, better luck next time." The luck was really pretty well divided, however, no one card showing a startling perfonderance of either red or blue stars. After this weighty matter was settled, the toothsome oyster and other dainties was the next feature of the programme. The party brokeup about twelve after a most pleasant evening. Some of the toilettes were very pretty. Mrs. Wiggins wore black with light silk bodice trimmed with blue chiffon. Mrs. Tupper was becomingly attired in black silk with white lace jabot. Miss Grace Fawcett looked very dainty in a Dresden muslin with blue satin ribbon sash. Miss Emmerson was charming in soft dove grey with white garnitures. Miss Sigra Copp wore a pretty light blue cashmere trimmed with shirred white silk. Miss Estabrookes was artisticly gowned in golden brown silk and the general impression the rest of the ladies gave was attractive. The same evening the Whist club met at the resi-

Madame's appearance was most charming. She wore a skirt of handsome black and green mixed material with bodice of black silk overlaid with beaded lace. Her large feathered hat of green velvet was very becoming. Both choir and congregation were deli. hted to have her once more in her eld place. The organ, morning and evening, was played by Miss Florence Webb, whose technique has broadened wonderfully in the last year. She played during the services a large quantity of music, some of it decidedly heavy, with unerring taste and skill and in the choruses, she led the attack with great precision. The evening service was conducted altogether by Rev Wm. Dobson and while differing from the morning's was equally inspiring and enjoyable. Mr. Dobson preached a fervent sermon from St. John's words, "This is life eternal" to a crowded church, the congregation being estimated at over nine hundred.
