

The weather has hardly favored social gaieties this week, so that there is a dearth of news just now.

Mrs. Harry de Forrest gave a very pretty and dainty violet tea on Thursday, which despite the steady down pour all the afternoon, was well attended, as was also the Crokinole party which followed in the evening.

In the evening a number of gentlemen came in for crokinole, and a spirited game was kept up until supper was served after which there was dancing. Very pretty prizes were given. Those present included the following:

- Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Rankine, Mrs. C. DeForest, Mrs. A. DeForest, Miss Smith, Miss Scammell, Miss G. Scammell, Miss Walker, Miss F. DeForest, Miss McAvity, Miss Skinner, Miss Thomson, Mr. Miles, Mr. Rankine, Mr. F. DeForest, Mr. C. Patterson, Mr. F. Clark, Mr. J. Rainnie, Mr. Ellis, Mr. G. Bostwick, Mr. W. Lockart, Mr. W. Parry, Mr. Moore, Mr. W. Harrison

Mr. George Peters was in Gagetown for a few days this week.

Miss Martha Forwell of Boston is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Mary Bailey has returned from Boston where she has been pursuing her elocutionary studies.

Last week PROGRESS mentioned the return of Miss Louise Travers from a sojourn in Lakewood, New Jersey, whether she had been taken for the benefit of her health, but even before the fact had been recorded the bright young life was ended.

Among those who came from other places to attend the funeral were Mrs. Warren Winslow of Chatham, Colonel McShane of Halifax, and Mr. Montague of Boston.

Crown of pink and white roses, carnations, valley swansons and ferns from Dr. R. F. Quigley. Cross of white roses, azalias, carnations, valley and ferns from Mr. W. H. Redmond.

Bouquet of white roses, carnations, valley and ferns from Hon. R. J. and Mrs. Ritchie. Star of pink and white roses, carnations, valley and ferns, from Dr. and Mrs. W. White. Star of white roses, gladiolus, valley and ferns, from Mrs. T. W. Anglin, Toronto.

On Wednesday the residence of Mr. Robert Staples of Milledgeville was the scene of a pretty wedding when his daughter Lena Eveline was united in matrimony with Mr. William Codner, Rev. Dr. Wilson performing the nuptial ceremony.

Mrs. A. L. Goodwin was in Sackville this week attending the closing of Mt. Allison university, and at one of the functions given in connection with the exercises wore a handsome yellow brocade sash trimmed with black lace and ostrich tips.

Mr. A. George Blair jr., left the first of the week for Edmonton N. W. T. Miss S. C. Mullin of Main street N. E. who has been quite ill is recovering and her friends hope shortly to see her able to resume her place among them.

Mrs. John H. Bond and two children left Monday for Hudson, Mass., on a visit to members of Mr. Bond's family.

Lady Tilley returned Tuesday afternoon from a visit to Ottawa. R. C. J. Dunn's friends will be pleased to know that he has almost entirely recovered from his recent attack of pleurisy.

Mr. P. Gleeson left on Tuesday morning boat on a short visit to Boston. Mr. D. Allen of Boston was seen in the city during the past week.

Miss Jessie Charlton left last week for Pittsfield, Mass., where she will enter a training school for nurses. Mrs. D. Allen of Boston, and Mrs. G. S. Moore of Sussex N. B. were in town last week attending the funeral of their mother Mrs. J. Mitchell of Rockland Road.

The funeral took place from the deceased lady's late residence on Thursday the 19th Rev. R. W. Waddell assisted by Rev. J. B. Shenton and Dr. Wilson conducting the services. The hymns had been selected some time ago by the deceased.

Rev. M. F. Richard of Rogersville was in the city for a little while this week. Among the St. John people who attended the closing exercises at Wolville seminary were Rev. J. A. Gordon and Mrs. Gordon, Rev. Mr. Maning and Mrs. Manning, Mr. R. G. Haley, Mr. W. G. MacFarlane, Rev. S. McCally Black, Mr. G. U. Hay and others.

Mr. J. H. Whitaker of Boston spent a few days in the city this week. Messrs. Reginald Fairweather, Harry Hall and Ralph Markham went to Charlotte county the first of the week on a little fishing expedition.

Mr. F. L. Jones of Ottawa was here for a day or two the first of the week. Mr. R. L. Johnston went to Sackville for a short stay this week.

Among the Canadians registered at the High Commissioners office, London, last week were Rev. J. deSoyses, Mr. Percy Tomson and Mr. W. K. Dunlop.

Mr. Fred Jones has returned from a lengthy and very pleasant trip to Europe and the United States. Mr. Sandy Murray spent a day or two in St. Stephen this week.

Mrs. W. B. Ganong and Miss Marguerite Ganong, have returned to St. Stephen after a three weeks' visit to the 'Cedars' on the St. John river. Mrs. George Hegan is in St. Stephen the guest of Mrs. C. H. Clerke.

Mrs. W. A. McLaughlin has been visiting her mother Mrs. Newcomb of Andover, N. B. Mr. Mont McDonald and family have gone to their pretty summer home at Woodman's Point for the season.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, Hazen street, when the Rev. J. W. Clarke, pastor of the Free Baptist church, Waterloo street, solemnized the marriage of Miss Sadie A. Patterson to Mr. John H. Hamilton, in the presence of about thirty of the immediate friends of the contracting parties.

The groom is a young man who has many friends in this city and is embarking on the matrimonial sea with excellent prospects. Dr. Wm. Christie who was seriously ill for a few days is much improved.

Mrs. George McLeod and son are visiting Mrs. Isaac Burpee. Mr. G. F. Clark left Tuesday afternoon for St. Paul, Minnesota, to visit his father Mr. R. W. Clark who resides in that part of the west.

Mrs. C. DeW. Smith and Miss Smith of Windsor N. S. are visiting city friends. Mr. George King has returned from the South much improved in health, for the benefit of which the trip was taken.

Rev. Mr. Barton and Mrs. Barton of Canterbury made a short stay with city friends this week. Mrs. J. D. Hazen is in Fredericton with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Tibbits.

Messrs. Ralph March of Hampton and Thorne Phair of this city spent Sunday at the capital. Mrs. George F. Gregory of the celestial is spending the week with friends in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Scammell are entertaining Mrs. Risk of Fredericton for a short time week. Among the St. John people who went to attend the closing exercises at the Provincial university were, Dr. and Mrs. Walker, Dr. J. Bridges, Dr. Murray McLaren, Sheriff Sturdee, Mr. Douglas Hazen and many others.

Mrs. C. B. Foster and baby daughter are in Truro visiting Mrs. Foster's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Page.

Mr. D. A. Hearn of Sydney, C. B. made a brief stay here this week. A very enjoyable entertainment was given in the old building of the Main street Baptist church on Thursday evening.

Miss Adelaide B. Jump of Emmerson College of Oratory, Boston, was present and rendered a number of selections. The following excellent programme was rendered during the evening: Piano duet, Polka Brillant (Russell), Misses Vincent; mixed quartette, Come Where the Lillies Bloom (Thompson); reading, Where the Lillies Bloom (Thompson); reading, Bobby Shantoe (Green), Miss Adelaide Barrett; solo, Zephyrs (Torry), Miss Jennie True-man; corset solo, selected, Prof. Williams; reading, A Sisterly Scheme (Banner), Miss Adelaide Barrett; vocal solo, True Till Death (Allen), Herbert Mayes; gramophone selections; banjo selection, Miserere Il Travatore (Verdi), Frank Whetsel; reading, Trying the Rose Act (Joshua Allen's Wife), Miss Adelaide Barrett; mixed quartette, Away to the Mountains (Christie); God Save the Queen.

Miss Ada Munro of Yarmouth made a few hours stay with city friends this week en route to Trull B. C. where she goes to take part in an interesting ceremony at an early date. She received many beautiful and valuable presents from her friends. She will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson of Trull for a few days after reaching the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Harmon Murchie of Carleton have been spending a few days in Carleton. Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeVeber arrived this week from St. Stephen and will make their future home in this city.

As it is always pleasant to hear good news from St. John citizens who have travelled afar, the following from the Vancouver World of a late date will be interesting: "Isaac Burpee returned from St. John yesterday and is a guest at Hotel Vancouver. He now becomes a permanent resident, and is a gentleman who is destined to carve out a name for himself in the west. A militant young liberal, he yet is broadminded enough to appreciate the sentiments and instincts of those who disagree with his party views. It is probable that early next month he and Col. Domville, M. P., will go north and penetrate into the vast interior."

Mr. J. L. McAvity also of this city arrived in Vancouver last week and will go north with the Domville expedition. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hall of Montreal spent a day or two in the city this week.

Miss Jean Seeley and Mr. Robert Seeley spent a day or two in St. George last week. Mrs. B. Laurence is in St. George with her mother Mrs. Hugh McCallum.

Mrs. A. S. Baldwin and Mrs. Wallace who spent a little while with St. John friends lately have returned to St. George. The Misses Rourke of St. Martins were in the city for a short time lately.

Mr. L. D. Fritz of St. Louis was in town for a little while during the week. Mr. Montague who came to St. John to attend the funeral of Miss Louise Travers returned to Boston on Thursday. Col. McShane who came on the same mission is a guest of the Count and Countess deBury.

Miss Wade who has been visiting friends here for several weeks returned to St. Andrews this week accompanied by Mrs. John Wade. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith paid a visit to Mrs. Adam Smith of St. Andrews this week.

Mr. Scott Morrill left Thursday for a trip to Boston. Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Cockburn arrived here Tuesday and they together with Mrs. Evans will make a trip through the Annapolis Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Parker Harding of Minneapolis, are guests of Mrs. George Harding.

FREDERICTON.

(Progress is for sale in Fredericton by Messrs W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.) June 1.—Some of the musical friends of Mrs. Wm Jeffrey held an impromptu musical evening at Glenola last night, when a most charming evening was spent.

Mrs. Jeffrey in her solos surpassed all her former efforts. Mr. Bristow was in excellent voice, and delighted those present with his solo singing. Mrs. W. T. H. Fenety sang a charming little song. The most enjoyable feature of the evening was the singing of the new baritone, in the person of Mr. Lemuel Tibbits, who gave with admirable taste, "The Lover and Bird," by Guglielmo. Miss Carman and Prof. Bristow gave an instrumental duet. Mr. Martin Lemont sang in his customary happy manner.

Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen of St. John is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Tibbits, York street. Miss Nan Thompson, daughter of Hon. F. P. Thompson, is visiting friends in Sackville where she has gone to be present at the graduating exercises at the college; her sister Miss Sadie Thompson, besides graduating with the degree of M. L. A., captured a $10 prize for proficiency in natural science, and at the graduating exercises read an excellent essay on Tennyson's women.

Mr. Jones of Woodstock is visiting his daughter Mrs. Walter Fisher. Mr. Thorne Phair of St. John, spent Sunday here. Miss Cumming returns to her home in Sackville on Friday after spending four weeks with relatives here.

Mr. Ralph March of Hampton spent Sunday in town. Mrs. Geo. F. Gregory is spending this week in St. John.

Mr. Allison Bartlett of Charlottetown, was in the city over Sunday. The Misses Winslow of Chatham are here the guests of their aunt Mrs. E. Byron Winslow at "Vivedere."

Mr. James McKay of Montreal is spending a few days in town. A number of the college boys are enjoying a picnic up the Nashwaakias today.

Miss Winifred Johnston has returned home from Sackville and expects in company with her father Mrs. Leonard W. Johnston to leave for Montreal next week.

Mr. Geo. Trites of Halifax is in town for a few days. Mrs. J. A. Vanwart has her niece Miss Reed here visiting her.

Miss Bessie Clowes has returned from her visit to the Wholesale Depot, 8 Place Royale, Montreal.

The New Home Dye

Progress is the watchword of all economical and careful women of to-day. Home Dyeing with the English Maypole Soap is rapidly taking the place of the old-fashioned disagreeable-to-handle Powder Dyes and rightly, too. The colors are absolutely fast and very brilliant, Clean to use, Quick, Safe, Sure in the even Colors they yield. Druggists and grocers sell them—all colors.

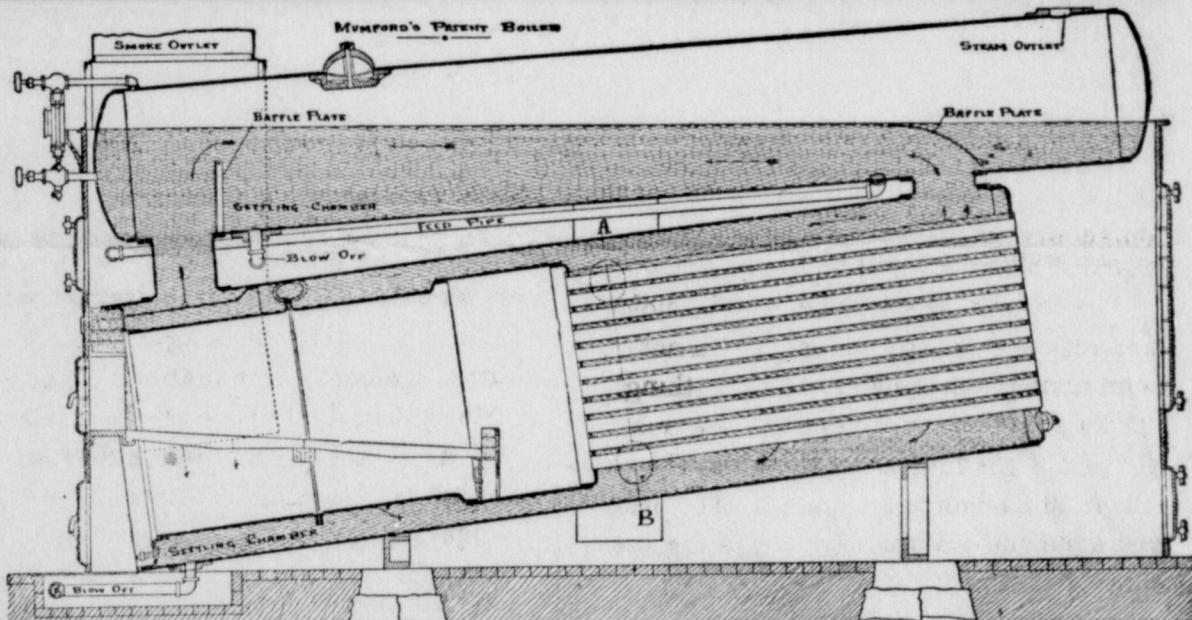

Maypole Soap

Free book and samples of the work by sending to the Wholesale Depot, 8 Place Royale, Montreal

Welcome Soap advertisement. Text: 'Welcome Soap Is the Housekeeper's Best Friend. It sweetens the woollen goods and gives a new lustre to colors.' Includes logo for 'The Welcome Soap Co., St John, N. B.'

Stowers' Lime Juice advertisement. Text: 'Stowers' Lime Juice. Made from West Indian Limes, only—they are especially cultivated for it. There are no injurious adulterants in it—it is absolutely pure.'

CAMPBELL'S QUININE WINE advertisement. Text: 'The Ideal Tonic. Tones up the System, Restores the Appetite. No other Quinine Wine is just as good.'

Mumford's Improved Boiler advertisement. Text: 'Mumford's Improved Boiler. Internally fired and the hot gases pass through the tubes and return around the shell, making every foot of the boiler effective heating surface.'

What Do You Think of it? advertisement. Text: 'What Do You Think of it? A dollar and a half book for only 50 cents. We are offering as an inducement to new subscribers the book, Life and Times of Hon. Joseph Howe, by G. E. Fenety, together with a year's subscription to PROGRESS for $2.50.'

PELEE ISLAND WINES advertisement. Text: 'When You Order PELEE ISLAND WINES BE SURE YOU GET OUR BRAND. Wine as a restorative, as a means of refreshment in Debility and Sickness is surpassed by no Product of nature or art.'