SEPT. 14 .- The garden party which was given las, Wednesday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wright at their lovely summer home in Salisbury, was a thoroughly erjoyable affair from first to last. The guests numbered between forty and fifty nearly filling one of the first class coaches of the C. P. train which conveyed them to their destination. Mr. Wright met the party at Salisbury station with numerous conveyances and the drive of two miles to the celebrated "Wright Farm" through some of the most lovely scener; imaginable was one of the pleasantest features of the entertainment. Arrived at their destination the guests found ample entertainment in strolling about the immense model farm driving round the I-land, aud admiring scenery which to those who have never visited this beautiful spot before, is indeed a revelatior. Tea was served on the lawn in true picn'c fashion, the guests bringing thoroughly country appetites to the delicious repast. The time passed all too swiftly, and shortly after eight o'clock the party broke up and started on the return drive to the station in order to catch the evening train.
