Mrs. H. C. McLeod 233 Pleasant street, gave two very pleasant 'At Homes' on Monday and Wednesday afternoons both of which were largely attended. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. McLeod and made to feel quite at home. The functions were what might be termed musical ones, as a choice programme was performed by a corps of musicians, which added much to the pleasure of the occasions. I understand Mrs McLeod also gave a children's 'At Home' last evening.

The month of December bids fair to outrival that of the leafy month of June in that their are quite a number of weddings announced to take place. In one or two cases Halifax will lose its fair daughters, but in others the happy couples will still reside in Halifax.

Among the Society events for the coming week will be the sale to be held by the junior members of the C. W. M. A., at the church of England Institute, on Friday, Dec. 9, from 3 till 10. A novelty of this sale will be that all articles are marked from 25c. to $1 co.

Mrs. Charles Archibald's Friday evening receptions are much enjoyed. Her spacious house is an ideal residence in which to entertain. We know Mrs. Archibal is one of the most charming hostessess of which Halifax can boast.

Only for the 'North British dinner' we shouldn't have known it was St. Andrew's day. This is New Scotland, isn't it ? and St. Andrew is our patron saint. We are certainly not very patriotic.

NEW YORK.

social gayety ahead before the Christmas holidays make a temporary break in the chain of the winter's functions. In that time there will be luncheons, weddings, dinners, the opera, dances and suppers to claim time and attention. The most important ball will be the First Assembly, on Thursday night, Dec. 15, at the Waldorf-Astoria. Worthington Whitehouse, who led a spirited cotillead at the Assembly. As already mentioned in PROGRESS, Mrs. Astor, Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Grand d'Hauteville and Mrs. William Watts Sherman will receive the guests. Among the important festivities of the winter already planned are balls to be given by Mrs. Ogden Mills and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry. Mrs. Mills will give two big dances in January and so will Mrs. Gerry. Both have beautiful ballrooms at their disposal. In the Gerry house, as in the As or residences, the ballroom serves also as an art gallery. When Mr. Gerry's law library adjoining is also thrown open, the space thus afforded for dancing is unusually large. Mrs. Mills wore a superb Russian headdress of diamonds with her white gown embroider-Mrs. Gerry also wore a white satingown. The wraps worn by the gorgeously attired women on opera nights have elicited even more admiration than their gowns. These have been made of brocade satin and velvet, and in some cases lined and trimmed with the richest furs, with surther embellishments of embroidery and lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Morgan will sail for Europe today (Wednesday), Dec. 7, and will be accompanied by their two young sons and daughter. They will remain at their fine country place, "Wheatly," at Westbury, L. I, up to the time of sailing. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will remain abroad until the late spring. Among others going abroad | Chapin on Thursday afternoon was the first big this week are Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Vatable and affir of the season. Miss Maguerite Chapin, who their son, Auguste S. Vatable, who will sail on Saturday on the steamship Augusta Victoria. Mr. and Mrs. William Fannestock. whose names appe red in the passenger list of the steamship Fuerst Bis narck as sailing for Naples on Nov. 19, were obliged to postpone their departure on account of the severe illness of Mrs. H. C. Fannestock. They have returned to the Waldorf after a short Southern trip, and are expecting to sail later

As yet no date has been set for the coming out of Miss Kathleen Neilson, who will, it is expected, be presented soon by her mother, Mrs. Frederic Neilson. Mrs. Neilson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs Frederick Gebhard, will go off this week to Virginia, where they have arranged to pass the winter. Mrs. Gebhard returned last Monday from Baltimore, where she bas been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Morris.

The series of dinners which the Executive Committee of the Badminton Club gives prior to its meetings is soon to begin. The committee this winter includes Amory S. Carhart, Barclay Ward Kounize, Howland Pell, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, John T Wainwright and J. Norman de R. Whitehou e. The first meeting of the Badminton Club will be neld on Saturday afternoon Jan. 28 from 3 until 6 'clock in the Berkeley School bu lding, 20 West Forty-fourth street. The number of applicants on the waiting lis is very large. The club is inte sely proud of its war roll. Fortunately all of the members who went to the front have returned, and are likely to be well enough to participate in the opening games of the club. Schayler Schieffelin is the exception. He is still in bad health according to most recent reports. He was an aide to Gen. Fran. cis V. Greene. The Badminton roll of honor in Robert L. Livingston, Capt. F. ion single-handed, out he is not taking chances, and is not going to disdain the assistance of helpers with hot irons. The same is true of wise man who is naving a tussle with ill - health. It is barely possible that he may have the natural inherent resisting power that will enable him to conquer disease without the assistance of medicine, but he is not willing to take the chances and will not disdain the help of the right remedy.

When a man feels out-of-sorts, when his head is achey, dull and heavy, his body lazy, his nerves jerky, his sleep broken, his appetite finicky, his skin sallow, his breath foul and his mouth bad-tasting, he is having a struggle with ill-health. If he is wise he will take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It gives edge to the appetite and makes the digestion perfect. It invigorates the liver. It makes rich, red, pure blood. It puts vim into every organ and fiber of the body. It drives out all impurities and disease germs. It imparts the glow of health to the skin and the vigor of youth to the muscles. It tones the nerves and gives refreshing sleep. It builds firm flesh, but does not raise the weight above Nature's normal. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. All medicine stores sell it. An honest dealer will not suggest a worthless substitute for the sake of a little extra profit.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid thousand - page volume, with over three hundred engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 31 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing and customs only, N. Y. Cloth-bound 50 stamps.

It is several seasons since Mrs. John King Van Rensselaer, who has no daughters introduced her sons at a tea. The elder of the two, F. Harold van Rensselaer, and his wife, formerly Miss Lucy J. Grinnell, are abroad for the winter. After their sedding at Nice last spring they returned to this side for a time.

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and her sister-in-law Mrs. Almeric Paget, have been among the much noticed young matrons at the opera the past week. DEC. 6,-There are still a couple of weeks of They have appeared in superb gowns and gorgeous Fuller, Miss N. Chapman, Miss F. Hewson, and newels. Mr. and Mrs Harry Payne Whitney will participate in the season's gayeties, and will then betake themselves to Hickory Hollow, Tenn., where some of the hunter's from the Whitney stables are to be sent. Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Duryea will start on Wednesda for this Southern retreat, and have already shipped their horses there. Mr. and Mrs. Duryea have been occupylon on Friday night at the Knollwood Club, is to ing Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg's Long Island country house. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, pr. started in the blinding snowstorm on Saturday, Nov. 26, from Broad Hollow Farm, their Westbury establishment, for Aiken, S. C.

Cards will be sent out at once for the wedding o. Miss Grace Hortonand Ernest Mortimer Lockwood. This will take place at 3.30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 4, at St. Thomas's church. The bride is the youngest daughter of Henry L. Horton, the wealthy banker. The reception after the church ceremony will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horton, 144 West Fifty-seventh street. The bridegroom is the son of the 1ste Samuel Frost Lockwood. He is a member of the Larchmont and New York Yacht clubs and of the Essex and Ocean coun ed in silver on the opening night of the opera. | ty hunts. He returned last spring from Europe after an absence of eleven years.

> Mr. and Mrs. J. F. D. Lanier of 30 East Thirtyseventh street will go abroad this month, to remain until the summer at least. Some time ago they leased their country house, Sunridge Hall, at Westbury, to Clarence H. Mackay for three years. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay are so fond of country life that they now anticipate taking possession of the Lanier place in the early spring.

Mrs. Lindley Hoffman Chapin will give a dinner on Thursday night Dec. 15 for which cards are now out. Mrs. Chapin's guests will go with her afterward to the Assembly. The tea given by Mrs. was introduced, is only ten years younger than her stepmother. She is an uncommonly pretty girl. Mrs. Chapin proposes to give a series of entertainments this season. Mrs. J. H. A. Tremenheere, her sister, whose home is in India, is passing the winter with her.

Frank Gray Gris wold, a former M. F. H of the Meadowbrooks, set out with a few of the members last Monday for a run in the snow with Mr. Gris. wold's pack of hounds. A fox was started on the Duryee farm, and was pursued so hotly that it entered its burrow. With the aid of snow shovels, spades and pickaxes, Reynard was finally unearthed. It was found to be a splendid specimen, and was taken triumphantly in a bag to the clubhouse.

The fox will be used for future sport. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont now have three large establishments on their hands. They will entertain considerably during the next few months in their town house, at 677 Fifth avenue, formerly the City Club. Mr. and Mrs. Belmont are constantly adding to their Newport and Hempstead places. Recently they bought the A. D. Lewis country seat, comprising thirty acres, just across Jerusalem avenue from their Long Island estate. Preparations for planting trees and plants are already under way. A bridal path and a cycle path are to be laid ont in the early spring.

At the wedding of Miss Mabel Hayden and Calvin Burr next Wednesday the decorations will be in keeping with the approaching Christmas season. The residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hayden at 150 West Fifty-ninth street, will be the scene of the ceremony. The musical programme will be an enjoyable feature. With the arrangement of aisle ribbons in view the bridal procession will have a long march through the cludes: In the army, Lieuts, J. Philip Benkard, drawing rooms. The surpliced choir of All Angels' Percy M. Burrill, Danca: Mc Ra Livingston- Church will precede it, singing the wedding march Lieut. Philip Van Born Lonsdale, U. S. S. on Wednesday evening, Jan. 4.

Mrs Moses Taylor of 6 Eas: Seventy second street will give atea on Thursday afternoon, of this week. There were a number of teas and receptions this week given in honor of the debutantes whose first appearance in society they marked. Mrs. Charles Henry Adams of 16 East Sixty-seventh street gave a tea to introduce her daughter Miss Agnes Crittenden Adams. The rooms were embellished with palms, as well as quantities of roses and chrysanthemums and the bouquets sent to the debutante. Miss Adams was cducated abroad. Miss May Marriott, Miss Eleanor Keyes, Miss Bertha Spear of Philadelphia, Miss Jacdson, Miss Minton, and Miss Lucy Call assisted in receiving. Mrs. John Robinson of 15 East Twenty-second street gave a tea to introduce her grand-daughter, Miss Lucy Bond Morgan, second daughter of Mr and Mrs. W. Forbes Morgan, who are now at Pau, France. Mrs. Robinson wore a gown of white and violet brocaded satin. The debutante was in white lace with satin. Mrs. Robinson and Miss Morgan, who were unassisted in receiving, had several hundred callers. Mrs. Horace Wolcott Robbins of 56 East Fifty-seventh street gave a tea in bonor of her youngest daughter, Miss Augusta Robbins. Mrs. Robbins received in a rich purple velvet gown. The debutante was in white silk with chiffon. The receiving party included Miss Robbins, Miss Agnew, Miss Perkins, Miss Jacquelin, the Misses Niles, Miss Woodford, and Miss Erb. The drawing rooms were filed with guests from 4 until 7 o'clock, the hours of the reception. Mrs. Henry B. Platt of 356 West End avenue gave a reception from 4 until 7 o'clock. She presented her daughter, Miss Maybelle Grace Platt. Miss Pernypacker of Scrapton, Pa.; Miss Reed of Montclair, N. J.; Miss Louise Platt of Poughkeepsie,; the debutante's cousin, and Miss Fyles and Miss Barron of this city assisted in receiving. Mrs. Platt, with her daughter and a party of their guests of the afternoon, occupied boxes at the Broadway Theatre in the evening.

Four Years of Suffering

A Story of Torture Now Past and Gone

Gentlemen :-

For the past four years I have suffered tertures from dyspepsia. I could not digest any solid food and was unable to eat a hearty meal, there being an uneasiness of the stomach when empty, and severe pains after partaking of a full meal. The raising of sour gas, throwing up of undigested food, and sickness of the stomsch, palpitation of the heart and no energy. I bought no end of dyspepsia cures but obtained no relief. I fully expected to be an invalid all my life as I was gradually growing worse. A friend brought me a box of Dr Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills to try. I did so and after taking one box I felt a different person I can eat a hearty meal now and, after four years of torture, life to me now is worth living and it is solely due to Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. Yours truly, Miss EMILY HILL, New Glasgow,
