

A Massachusetts correspondent sends to Progress the following item which will be of interest to the friends of the parties mentioned.

On the afternoon of the 15th June, a very pleasant company of relatives and friends were assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Flewelling, Carleton street, Somerville, Mass., to witness the marriage of their daughter Esther Ann to Henry D Holloway of Halifax, N. S.

The spacious hall and staircase were tastefully decorated with field daisies, as were also the tables with a fine collection of cut flowers. The national bunting was in evidence throughout the two large rooms in which were laid tables on which an elaborate wedding breakfast was served, at one of which the bridal party and nearest relatives were seated.

The bride was attended by her double cousin Miss May Flewelling of Clinton, N. B. and Dr. Flewelling brother of the bride supported the groom. The bride was tastefully gowned in white silk and lace with a garniture of lilies of the valley that also gracefully caught the veil and wore a crown of roses. The only jewel worn being a gold brooch which her mother wore at her marriage. The maid of honor wore white organdy over pink and carried pink roses.

The ushers were Harry Fuller, Ralph Wetmore, Gerard Fraser and Stanley Flewelling. The latter rendered the music for the occasion while the other three ushers preceded the bridal party separating at the entrance to the parlor through which the party passed, then the ushers stood just behind them while the impressive episcopal ceremony was performed by Rev. George Prescott of the church of the Good Shepherd, Boston. The bride was the recipient of many useful and elegant presents, among which were two costly and elegant pins, one by the groom of pearls and diamonds, the other a gold star set with pearls from the best man. The maid of honor was presented by the groom with a handsome gold bracelet with garnet setting, also noticeable among the gifts was a sterling silver key fitted to the house door, this being a token from her father that the door of the home was forever open to her. This was also accompanied by a substantial cheque.

About five o'clock the happy couple bade adieu amid a shower of old shoes for a trip to New York when they will return to Boston and thence to Halifax by rail where they will be at home July 6th and 15th.

The groom was attended by his brother.

The first wedding in Grace church took place at 6:30 this evening when the usual Methodist custom of presenting the newly couple with a Bible and hymn book was adhered to. The recipients in this instance were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Langille. The church had been beautifully decorated by the young friends of the bride, with potted plants, banks of mosses, ferns and daisies and an arch and marriage bell of moss and syringa blossoms, under which punctually at the time stood Mr. Langille supported by Mr. Cooper, where he was joined by the bride, who entered on the arm of her father, Capt. Howard, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Chambers, the organist. The bride was gowned in white silk en train with veil and a bouquet of white roses and was attended by her sister, Miss Vida Howard, who wore pink nun's veiling with cream trimmings, and two tiny maids Misses Rose Smith and Maria Fullerton carrying lovely baskets of flowers. A flower strewn carpet extended from the carriage to the church door. Messrs L. S. Gower, B. Henderson, H. McMurray and Valford Tucker acted as ushers. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Sharp assisted by Rev. H. H. McLean. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to Capt. Howard's where refreshments were partaken of and Mr. and Mrs. Langille then left for As. hol where they take the midnight train to Halifax. A substantial sum in gold was Capt. Howard's present to the bride, who received other sums in gold and many valuable presents besides from relatives and friends.

KENTVILLE.

JULY 6.—Last Tuesday evening Miss Alice E. Webster entertained in her charming manner a number of friends at the "Chestnuts." Tennis and music formed the delights of the evening.

This is in reality a Tennis year for us, not that tennis has not always had its number of admirers, but that there are more nice courts, more players and consequently more enthusiasm and gaiety displayed at the lawns.

Beside the club Courts which have always been patronized, one of the most popular lawns of the season is that at Fores: Hill the property of the Misses Moore. These courts were never in better condition and are never vacant.

Although many were away from town on the 1st, yet the funeral of Miss Lilla Lovett was a very large one Miss Lovett was one of our most popular young ladies, always took a leading part in our social life and possessed a large acquaintance. The floral contributions which required an extra wagon to convey them to the "Oaks" were the most beautiful ever seen in Kentville.

Miss Alice E. Webster accompanied by Miss A. Stewart and Miss Abbott of Halifax spent Friday at Partridge Island. Mrs. G. A. Parker and little daughter have been in Annapolis for a few days. Miss Abbott of Halifax who has been spending several weeks at the "Chestnuts Sanitarium" returned on Monday.

Miss Cadwell of Fredericton is visiting her brother W. E. Cadwallader of the bank of Nova Scotia. Mr. A. H. Chesley the popular stage director of the "Burnt Corks" enjoyed Sunday at his old home in Clementsport.

Mrs. Joseph Wood of Halifax has been visiting in Cornwallis. Miss McCollough of Pictou is visiting her sister Mrs. Goucher. Mr. John Campbell returned from Cambridge, Mass., last week where he has been in attendance at Harvard University.

Mr. Jack Crighton of the Union Bank, Halifax, is visiting his aunt Mrs. Leslie Eaton. An "Evangeline Tea" will be held in the near future in which a number of our charming and popular young ladies will assist. I will write you of this later. VALDEMAR.
