Forgiveness. If I should die tonight, And you should come to my cold bier and weep While I lay there asleep, With my white face and lips death's purple white, Like some silent marble statue expressive of great might; My heart would yearn for you With such unutterable tenderness If I should die tonight, With longing for an aoiden-time caress, And you would bend o'er me in tears my far-off soul to bless!

THINGS OF VALUE. A horse always gets up on its fore-legs first, and a cow directly the opposite. Brakemen refer to the saloon free lunches as "trading stamps." Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs, and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children. At a sale held in London the other day, Rembrandt's "A Jewess," with the engraving after it, brought $1,575, and Van Dyck's "The Infant Christ" $825.

Fagged Out.—None but those who have become fagged out, know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there is nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—a box of Farmelee's Vegetable Pills will do it. It restores the health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Farmelee's Pills. "Mamie," said the father, who looked as innocent as he could, "I accidentally overheard some of your conversation with that young man in the parlour last evening. Why didn't you sit right down on him when he said you could begin economizing by both using the same chair?" "I did, papa," and she also looked as innocent as she could. Mr. Thomas Ballard, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I have been afflicted for nearly a year with that most-to-be dreaded disease Dyspepsia, and at times worn out with pain and want of sleep, and after trying almost everything recommended, I tried one box of Farmelee's Vegetable Pills. I am now nearly well, and believe they will cure me. I would not be without them for any money."

John Wesley realized a fortune by his literary publications. He is said to have made by his religious writings fully $150,000. Every penny of the money was expended by Wesley in charity. Fever and Ague and Bilious Derangements are positively cured by the use of Farmelee's Pills. They not only cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effluvia from the blood into the bowels, after which the corrupt mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the bowels. They are used as a general family medicine with the best results. In 1,000 cases of the morphia habit, collected from all parts of the world, the medical profession constituted 40 per cent. of the number. Safe, Certain, Prompt, Economic.—These few adjectives apply with peculiar force to Dr. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL a standard external and internal remedy adapted to the relief and cure of coughs, sore throats, hoarseness and all affections of the breathing organs, kidney troubles, excoriations, sores, lameness, and physical pain. "See here, my boy, you mustn't hum at your work." "Why 'ir, you wouldn't check the hum of reviled industry, would you?" Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother travels' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced. "Is this our train?" said one waiting passenger to another. "No, it belongs to the company, but we'll take the cars."

Halloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, not and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and efficient remedy within reach? A man is never entirely satisfied with his son-in-law, and a woman's daughters-in-law never suit her. In a Lady's Autograph Album. A valuable lady's album was recently offered for sale in London. It was the ordinary quarto volume, with embossed pages, gilt-edged, and nicely bound, like those with which our grandmothers used to victimize their friends years ago. It was an ordinary book, but it had extraordinary contributors. Among the writers might be found Douglas Jerrold, Mark Lemon, William Macready, Mrs. Amelia Opie, Mrs. Howitt and W. M. Thackeray. The artists comprised Sir David Wilkie, Westall, Sir Edwin Landseer, Cattermole, Prout, John Leech, Sir John Tenniel and Thackeray. There were many sketches by the last-named, in which might be recognized some of the original designs for "Pendennis" and other of his books. After a spirited competition, the volume was knocked down at £180.—Tit Bits.

Left Prostrate Weak and Run Down, With Heart and Kidneys in Bad Condition—Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla. "I was very much run down, having been sick for several months. I had been trying different remedies which did me no good. I would have severe spells of coughing that would leave me prostrate. I was told that my lungs were affected, and my heart and kidneys were in a bad condition. In fact, it seemed as though every organ was out of order. I felt that something must be done and my brother advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I procured a bottle and began taking it. Before it was half gone I felt that it was helping me. I continued its use and it has made me a new woman. I cannot praise it too highly." MRS. SUMMERVILLE, 217 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.
