FREDERICTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.] Dec. 13.—The young Bachelors of Fredericton gave a ball on Thursday evening to which were invited all the young bachelors of the city, and some few made their first appearance there: "The Queen" is admirably adapted for such a function and the large dining-hall which had been converted into a ball-room made an ideal place for a dance. Hannon's orchestra provided music for a delightful programme of twenty-one dances and five extras. A light running supper was served all evening. The chaperones of the evening were Mesdames E. B. Winslow, G. N. Babbitt, A. R. Tibbits and A. G. Cowie, and received the guests in the ladies' parlor of the hotel. The gowns worn by the ladies were very pretty, white predominating especially among this year's debutantes. Mrs. E. B. Winslow wore Terra Cotta silk. Mrs. Babbitt, black silk with front of blue satin and white lace. Mrs. A. R. Tibbits, black brocade satin, decollete, with pearls. Mrs. Cowie, yellow silk. Miss Daisy Winslow, blue crepe de chene, with black velvet ribbons. Miss Annie Tibbitt, black satin, decollete, with jewel trimming on pink silk and pink roses. Miss Carrie Tibbitt, blue and white silk with bodice front of white taffeta, and toques with blue velvet trimmings. Miss Prudence Babbitt, white organdie with lace. Miss Nellie Babbitt, black satin and cashmere with white lace. Miss Carrie Babbitt, red silk with red chiffon. Miss Sadie Wiley, white organdie over white silk. Miss Phinney, white silk trimmed with violets. Miss Agnes Tabor, heliotrope silk and violets. Miss Balloch, white muslin over blue silk. Miss Rachel Balloch, white muslin with valenciennes lace. Miss Jean Neill, green muslin and green ribbons.

ITCHING SKIN.

In any Form, Whether Eczema, Salt Rheum or Piles Is Relieved at once and Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

One of the strongest endorsements any remedy can have is its adoption by the medical profession as the standard treatment for the ills for which it is recommended. Such is the position of Dr. Chase's Ointment today. DOCTORS USE IT. Before the introduction of Dr. Chase's Ointment doctors admitted that they could not cure Eczema and Salt Rheum, and usually resorted to the surgical operation for piles. Now they use Dr. Chase's Ointment and know of no such thing as failure. Of course they don't always tell their patients what they are using, nor do they give the treatment in the original package; but nevertheless they continually order it from their offices for use in their practice and recognize it as the only absolute cure for piles and itching skin diseases. DOCTORS ENDORSE IT. Canadian doctors are no less enthusiastic than their American brethren in the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but on account of the strict laws of the Dominion, do not care to have their names mentioned in public print. If you are in doubt regarding the wonderful virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment ask your family physician. He knows its record in the past and will endorse it in the strongest terms. Dr. C. M. Harlan, New York, writes: "No physician now refuses to acknowledge the claims of such remedies as Dr. Chase's Ointment which proves its virtue by curing where other means have failed. We know that Dr. Chase's Ointment meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, and that it is held in high esteem wherever used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader." Dr. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of piles. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for throat and lung troubles, Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. Each 25 cts. at all dealers.

After a pleasant visit of three months spent in Kansas city with relatives, Mrs. F. L. Cooper and child returned home on Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Jean Cooper who has been visiting for the same length of time in Kansas and Colorado. His Lordship, the bishop of Fredericton and Mrs. Kingston visited in St. John this week. Miss Crosskill of Hillsboro, Albert Co., is visiting friends in the city. Miss Lyman has returned home after a few days visit with Mrs. M. Dever. Capt Davidson was host of the rather unique picnic or skating party, which sprang into Killarney lake on Thursday afternoon. The party left the city in two large teams and arrived at the lake which they found a perfect sea of glass, soon after three o'clock. After a couple of hours spent in gliding over the smooth surface of the lake, tea was much enjoyed at Mrs. F. B. Coleman's summer cottage. The return home was made by moonlight all having enjoyed the novel outing a great success and the general guest a jolly good fellow, among those present were Capt. and Mrs. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gregory Dr. and Mrs. McLearn, Postmaster Hilyard, Collector Street, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burns, Major and Mrs. Loggie, and Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy Taylor. Among the most pleasant of tea parties we have had lately was the one given by Mrs. Lee Babbitt at which she entertained her elderly married lady friends. Tea was served all on small tables seating four, after tea covers were removed, the company enjoyed whist during the evening. The "Up to date" whist club met last evening with Mrs. Dever, quite a large number of outside friends were invited for the evening; the prizes were won by Miss Edna Coburn and Mr. George Hodge. The young ladies Sewing club met on Monday with Mrs. A. R. Tibbits and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon and five o'clock tea. Today they are meeting with Miss Phinney. Miss Hatt has returned home from a pleasant visit of several months with her sister Mrs. Colter at St. John. The musical club met on Monday evening with Mr. Lemont, when most of the members were present, and the usual musical evening was exceptionally pleasant. The first on the programme was a Piano Duet, "Husarenritt".....Spindler Miss Carman and Prof. Bristowe. 2 Song, "The Soldiers Departure".....Glover Mrs. Lemont. 3 Song, "Birds in the Night".....Su llivan Mrs. W. Translation from Leander Dr. Scott. 11 Song, "Asthore".....Troite Mrs. Jeffrey. 12 "Of Thee I am Thinking".....Streyleki "Goodnight My Love".....Rudolf King Serenade. Prof. Bristowe. 13 Song, "Kissing Bridge".....Watson Miss Gertrude Fenety. 14 Song, "Soldiers of the Queen".....Leslie Stewart Mr. M. Lemont. 15 Poem, "The Seasons".....Mrs. S. A. R. McDonald. 16 Song, "The White Squirrel".....Mr. Wm. Lemont.

At the close of the programme a dainty supper was served. Beside those taking part in the programme, there were present; Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Risk, Mr. Wm Jeffrey and Mr. S. A. R. McDonald. CHUCKY. ST. GEORGE. Dec 13.—Everyone seems engaged with their preparations for Christmas so there is very little going on socially. The baptist Sunday school scholars and teachers intend holding a Christmas concert and tree on Christmas evening. The presbyterians are preparing for a concert and St. Mark's will have a tree. Miss Dick is visiting relatives in Montreal. Rev. Mr. Murray (presbyterian) of Milltown exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Fraser on Sunday. Mrs. Fred Maxwell and Mr. Hugh McLeod are still dangerously ill. Max. TRURO. [PROGRESS is for sale in Truro by Mr. G. O. Fulton, J. M. O'Brien and at Crowe Bros] Dec. 13.—Miss Daisy Chase, Canard, Kings Co., is visiting Mrs. Martin Dickie. Miss Main, Amherst, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. A. Bishop, has gone to New Glasgow to visit her sister Mrs. Arch. McColl. Mr. Arthur Cochrane, who has been quite ill with typhoid at the Lesment, is rapidly convalescing.

Mrs. H. P. Wetmore has returned from a short visit in Halifax. Mrs. G. O. Donkin, was visiting friends in Halifax last week. The first Quadrille assembly of the season is to be tomorrow, Thursday evening Mrs. E. A. Randal and Mrs. F. S. Yorston, are to be chaperones. The music is to be from Halifax, the orchestra, and everyone anticipates a pleasant evening. PEO.

Put Up the sword. I have sung of the soldier's glory As I never shall sing again; I have gazed on the shambles gory, I have smelled of the slaughter-pen.

There is the blood in the ink well clotting There are stains on the laurel-leaf, And the pages of fame are blotted With the tears of a needless grief.

The bird is slaughtered for fashion, And the beast is killed for sport; And never the word compasser Is whispered at Meloch's court.

For the parent seal in the water Is slain, and her child must die, That some sister or wife or daughter Her beauty may beautify.

And the merciful thought was mother— For such is the way of man— As we murder the useless mother For the "unborn astrakhan."

But a season of rest comes never For the rarest sport of all; With His patience endure forever, Who noteth a sparrow's fall?

When the volleys of hell are sweeping The seas and the battle plain, Do you think that our God is sleeping And never to wake again?

When hunger and ravenous fever Are slaying the wasted frame, Shall we worship the red deceiver, The devil that men call Fame?

We may swing the censor to cover The odor of blood—in vain; God asks us, us, and our neighbor, "Where, is thy brother, Cain?" —James Jeffrey Roche.

To a Childhood's Friend. In that strange dance which men call life, With lighter feet, with limbs more supple, We raced together, you and I, Under the trees, a childish couple.

I think that stern musician, time, Smiled as we romped down the middle; I'm sure that he played the while A sweeter tune upon his fiddle.

Its simple harmonies forgot, The tune has vanished from my mind, But something of its sweetness yet Lingers, I like to think, behind.

And you have found a parcer, dear, Has filed your card, and I now at leisure A wily, mother still you tread A joyous but a snail's pace.

And though I face a harsher tune, A wit-wit prillle, a pace more frantic, Panting, perhaps, and painfully Fryate through many a curious antic.

Enough, it at the end of all. A sea-born breeze with kindly warning Sounded once again on Memory's harp That tender melody of Morning! N. P.

THINGS OF VALUE.

What is a solecism? Wearing golfstockings with a rainy day skirt.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for the ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of man's curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate for a number of years with gratifying results. It is a constant and distressing fact of the market. All druggists sell it.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is prepared from Drugs known to the profession as thoroughly reliable for the cure of cholera, dysentery, diarrhea, griping pains and summer complaints. It has been used successfully by medical practitioners for a number of years with gratifying results. It is a constant and distressing fact of the market. All druggists sell it.

Then you cannot be the sunshine of my life? asked the young man with the insistence of one under a fixed idea. "No," replied the lady detective toly. "You know I am a professional shadow."

TO THOSE OF SEDENTARY OCCUPATION.—Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to the ills of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmentier's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question, and one of the most efficacious on the market. It is easily procurable, easily taken, acts effectually, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

"At last," wrote the enthusiastic but somewhat incoherent correspondent, "the Boers have got Cecil Rhodes secretly buried up in Kimberley and have thrown away the cork!"

A SURE CURE FOR HEADACHE.—Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and the mind is a constant and distressing fact of the market. It is easily procurable, easily taken, acts effectually, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

What tall mantles you have, Mr. Jim? "Yes; I want to put my bric-a-brac up so high that I can't see who her it is dirty or not."

Sore Feet.—Mrs. E. J. Neil, New Armagh, P. Q. writes: "For nearly six months I was troubled with burning and smarting pains in my feet, such as often kept me from sleeping at night, and as my feet were badly swollen I could not wear my boots for weeks. At last I got a bottle of Dr. 'RHOADS' EUCALYPTUS OIL and resolved to try it, and to my astonishment I got almost instant relief, and the one bottle accomplished a perfect cure."

"Young man," said the old gentleman, "my daughter is too young to marry. A girl of her age cannot be sure of her own mind in a matter of such importance." "I fully realize that," replied the young man, who had just secured the fair one's consent. "That's why I don't want to wait."

Father—So you want to get married, eh? Tell me why pray? Daughter—Oh, I suppose it's one of the traits I inherited from my mother.

New York Millionaires.

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, saying that money could be made through speculation, realize that the richest men in America had commenced life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exchange speculations. Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small savings of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 70 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked as a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 80 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations. To the shrewd speculator the same opportunities are open to-day as to others in the past. The smallest lot which can be bought and sold is 10 shares on 3/4 margin, making 50 dollars. Anybody interested as to how speculations are conducted can get information and market letter free of charge upon application by letter to,
