PILES. A Most Annoying and Distressing Ailment for Which There is Only One Guaranteed Cure.

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Two Remarkable Cases.

If possible we should like every reader of this paper to look over the evidence—in grateful letters—which has collected in these offices for Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many of these letters described the most cruel and tormenting cases of piles imaginable. They tell of many treatments used in vain, and of the universal success of Dr. Chase's Ointment. No one could be skeptical after a perusal of these letters. Since you cannot call and read the evidence we publish the testimonials of those whom you are most likely to know. Ask these men if what we claim for Dr. Chase's Ointment is not true, and do you suppose Dr. Chase's Ointment would be guaranteed to cure any case of piles if there was any chance of failure. Mr. David Lockhart, a well known tanner of Hawshaw, N. B., states:—"I was a terrible sufferer with piles for over two years and was frequently compelled to give up work. Two boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment made a perfect cure." Mr. E. G. Langley, proprietor Central Hotel, Bridgetown, N. S., states:—"I was troubled with piles for two years and had frequently to quit work as the itching tortured me so. Mine was a severe case but six boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment made a perfect cure." By its soothing, healing qualities, Dr. Chase's Ointment gives immediate relief to the terrible itching, and permanent cures blind, itching, bleeding or protruding piles. 60 cts. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Mother's favorite remedy for croup, bronchitis, coughs or colds is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure radically cures Catarrh. Each 25 cents, at all dealers.

Fredericton. [Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne. Nov. 22—The Hospital Aid entertainment in the city hall this evening was an unbounded success, every available seat being secured at an early date. The comic farce, "The Snowball" was well put on; Mr. Norton Taylor in his role as "Uncle John" was imitable and acted his part to perfection. Mr. W. H. Harrison, as Mr. Featherstone, did well and in his horror of the situation in which he had unwittingly involved himself was especially good. Mr. Ralph Clark's make up as "Saunders" the butler, was well done. Mr. Chas. Allen as Mr. Pendergast and the lover of Miss Granger showed no want of practice in the role. Miss Frankie Tibbits took the part of Mrs. Featherstone, which suited her completely, her acting being much above the average, coupled with her magnificent costume and fine stage presence scored for her a complete success. Miss Carrie Winslow made a very sweet and pretty Edith Granger, and her change of costume was very pretty and effective. Miss Daisy Winslow as "Penelope" the housemaid, got everybody into trouble. Miss Tibbits and the Misses Winslow were all the recipients of beautiful bouquets of flowers which were handed over the footlights. Too much praise cannot be given to the ladies and gentlemen who have been so indefatigable in their efforts to make the entertainment a success and the great pleasure it has given to all who attended, aside from the noble cause which the aid supports. An especially fine programme of music was enjoyed, the selected orchestra gratuitously giving their services. Capt. and Mrs. Carpenter are this evening entertaining a theatre party. After the entertainment they will dine at the Mess. Mr. Fred Waterson of St. Stephen was among the welcome visitors to the celestrial this week. Mrs. Chas. Palmer is the guest of the Auditor General and Miss Beck. Mrs. E. Le Baron Smith of Oakland Heights, California, and children, Miss Fannie and Master Douglas, are here on a visit to Mrs. Smith's mother Mrs. James Tibbits, and are receiving a warm welcome from many old time friends. On Friday evening Miss Margaret Johnston gave a pleasant whist party at which seven tables contended for the prizes which were won by Miss Carrie Babbitt taking ladies first, Miss Carrie Winslow the consolation. Mr. H. Fraser Winslow the gentlemen's first and Mr. Robt. McLellan the booby in the cake walk which was introduced amid much mirth. Mr. C. Allen was the happy winner of the cake. Mrs. Bailey entertained a number of the University students the same night when a delightfully pleasant evening was enjoyed. Dr. and Mrs. Fisher of Marysville are the happy possessors of a small baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Risteen have a young daughter at their home. The up-to-date whist club met with Mrs. W. H. Fenety on Monday evening. Miss Lillie Adams of St. John is the guest of Mrs. McLellan. Miss Rose Fowler of New York, will spend the winter with the Misses Perley. The Lang Syne whist club met last evening with Mrs. George Babbitt, six tables, the prize contest was a strong one, but was ended by Mrs. Loggie taking ladies first with Mrs. W. H. Burns winning the second. Mr. Burns took gentleman's first and Mr. Geo. Clark gentleman's second. After the prizes had been awarded a dainty supper was enjoyed. Mrs. Busby is the guest of Mrs. Norton Taylor. Mr. W. F. Sharpe and Mrs. Sharpe of Boiestown are in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Risteen left last week for Southern California where they will spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burns have taken Major A. G. Beckwith's house on St. John street where they are now at home to their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Richards of Edmuntson are the guests of Mrs. J. E. Colter. Rev. George E. Payson has gone to Sackville to visit his daughter Mrs. H. A. Powell. CRICKET.

DRINK ONLY GOOD TEA.

There's a reason for it. Cheap teas are not only flavorless, and require more tea to the cup to produce color and flavor, but moreover, are often artificially colored and flavored, and are sometimes most dangerous. A branded tea like Letley's Elephant Brand is safest, as its packers' business reputation is staked on its purity.

THE CHORISTERS.

There's a little band of singers Every evening comes and lingers 'Neath the window of my cottage in the trees, And with dark throats raise their voices, While the gathering night rejoices, And the leaves join in the chorus with the breeze. Then the twinkling stars come out To enjoy the merry rout, And the squirrels range themselves upon a log, And the fireflies furnish light. And they read their notes aright— The Katydid, the cricket and the frog. All the night I hear them singing, Through my head their tunes are ringing— Strains of music straight from Mother Nature's heart: Now the katydid and cricket, From the deep of yonder thicket, Then the croaking frog off yonder dromes his part. By and by the moon appears, As the midnight hour nears, And her smiles dispel the low'ring mist and fog: Then the mirth is at its height, And they glorify the night— The Katydid the cricket and the frog.

THINGS OF VALUE.

"Do you think she will marry him?" "Do you think he will ask her?" We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething. "Spencer writes more mean things about women than ever since he got married." "It pleases his wife, he says. She is very jealous." Pleasant as syrup; nothing equals it as a worm medicine; the name is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. The greatest worm destroyer of the age. "Some doctors say that incurable patients should be helped by the use of this medicine." "Well, that would be all right if the doctors drew the line at the incurable ones only." Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again. "There is more kinship between poetry and science than one would think." "That's a fact. Both of them seem to consist mainly in riling up a lot of phrases nobody can understand."

New York Millionaires.

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, realize that the richest men in America have commenced life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exchange speculations. Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small savings of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 70 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked as a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 80 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations. To the shrewd speculator the same opportunities are open to-day as to others in the past. The smallest lot which can be bought and sold is 10 shares on 3/4 margin, making 30 dollars. Anybody interested as to how speculations are conducted can get information and market letter free of charge upon application by letter to, GEORGE SKALLER & CO., BANKERS & BROKERS, CONSOLIDATED STOCK EXCHANGE BLDG., 60 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.
