I heard a rumor a few days ago to the effect that it would be well to postpone the coming charity ball until after the arrival of the "Crescent" and the new commission. As regards the postponement, they invariably turn out unsatisfactorily—do you not think so?

Of course you heard Miss Lottie McKay—who missed hearing her I should like to know? Certainly not the youth, the beauty, musical people, nor the fashionable and military element of our community—they are all there, so who was left out, I wonder! And weren't you delighted with the sweet young songstress? So much has been said and written about her already, that anything on my part would seem almost like "painting the lily."

Her voice is true, and sweet, and birdlike, while her charming personality leaves nothing to be desired—in a word, Miss McKay to her finger tips is the "artiste." Well, I first liked "Lucia" I wonder did you all quite realize what difficult music that was? And yet the clear voice never once lost a note of its sweetness, and every run and trill were executed without the slightest apparent effort. This, in my idea, is Miss McKay's greatest charm, she sings as the bird sings—the music comes bubbling forth, and she carols out her song without its costing her the slightest strain. In this regard some of our amateurs would do well to "score a point" for occasionally, when rendering some difficult passage in song, their contortions—facial and figure—are, to say the least, trying to their audience.

"Lethe" I considered the gem of the evening, while the "Ave Maria," and "Sing on Ma Belle" were not far short of perfection. We are indeed proud of our young prima donna, and though she is about to fit away across the border, we still claim the right to kinship.

The very successful dance which was held on Wednesday evening last at Wright's Marble building was given by eight young ladies of Halifax society—Miss Seaton, Miss Harvey, Miss Dwyer, Miss Albro, Miss Bullock, Miss Fa.rell, Miss Burns and Miss Stairs. Their chaperones were Mrs. Seaton, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Davys, Mrs. Farrell and Mrs. Stairs.

Mrs. Kennedy-Campbell gave on Wednesday last a most successful afternoon tea, for Miss Lottie McKay. A large number of society people were present, and among them the musical element was well represented.

FREDERICTON.

[Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

JUNE 14.—The home of Mr. J. C. Risteen was to day the scene of a very happy event when his youngest daughter Miss Annie M. was united in marriage to Mr. Edwin H. Clark son of the well known contractor Mr. H. B. Clark. The bride who was unattended was given in marriage by her father, and was gowned in a handsome travelling costume of blue velvet cloth small hat and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The Rev. J. J. Tisdale performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. After the ceremony and congratulations the bridal party and guests repaired to the dining room where luncheon was served.

The house was tastefully decorated with white flowers and ferns but in the dining room the artistic taste of decorator was best shown. The large cypress in the centre of the table filled with flowers and fruit stood directly under the chandelier which was transformed into a bower of white roses, lilies and snow balls, and from it hung garlands of smilax entwined with golden bells to the four corners of the table where it was lost amid baskets of heart-cases and valley lilies. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, among them being a cheque from her father. The groom's present to his bride was a solitary pearl ring. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left on the C. P. R. express for a bridal trip to St. Stephen and St. Andrews, followed by the best wishes of hosts of friends for a long and happy life.

The dance at the Club house on Friday evening was the pleasantest social function we have enjoyed for some time. The broad piazzas and green walks made ideal sitting out places, for the most staid of bachelors would grow sentimental sitting on the tree bank with the young moon just rising over the tree tops and shedding its silvery rays on such a majestic river, and all within the sound of the sweet music of the Strauss waltzes. Ices and cake were served all evening.

Mrs. E. S. Carter and children are visiting Mrs. Carter's parents at Linden Hall.

Mrs. Thompson and child are here from Edinburgh visiting Mrs. Thompson's mother Mrs. Powys on College road.

It is warm and weary work that the women has to undergo who cooks the year 'round for a big family. Thousands of women whose husbands are only in moderate circumstances have to bear this hardship uncomplainingly. If a woman is in thoroughly good health it does not come so hard, but when, as is frequently the case, the poor woman is suffering from the pains, nervousness, debility and ill-health that are a result of weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism, the task is too much.

Under these circumstances, unless the right remedy is used, the poor woman will soon break down completely and fill an early grave. Over 90,000 women have testified to the marvelous merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many of their names, addresses, photographs and experiences have been published by permission in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. The "Favorite Prescription" cures all weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs that bear maternity's burdens. It makes them well and strong. It builds up the nervous system. It makes weak, sickly, nervous, fretful women strong, healthy, amiable wives. All medicine dealers sell it.

"My youngest daughter, Mrs. Julia Raphe, was all run down with nervous prostration and lung trouble," writes Mrs. Julia Ann Gibson, of Nickerson, Reno Co., Kansas. "She took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and was cured."

If you want to read the testimonies and see the photographs of many grateful patients who were cured by Dr. Pierce's remedies send for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Besides telling about these cures it tells about the home-treatment of all diseases. Over 300 illustrations. Send 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of customs and mailing only, for paper-covered copy. Cloth covers 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A large party are leaving this afternoon for the picnic grounds on the Nashwaaksis, many going by canoe and others wheeling. JUNE 14.—At the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Waterson, at three o'clock this afternoon, Miss Mae Willet Simpson youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Delme Simpson was united in marriage to James Oscar Hatfield of Cambridge, Mass. Rev. A. A. MacKenzie, M. A., B. Sc. of the Presbyterian church, performed the marriage ceremony. The bride looked charming in a stylish travelling gown of grey homespun with sailor collar, trimmed with grey, and white chiffon and grey wings. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. She was attended by Miss Mary McConnell of Fredericton who wore a pretty dress of white organdie trimmed with pale blue chiffon. The house was prettily adorned with flowers, ferns and palms for the occasion. After the ceremony and congratulations, refreshments were served. The happy pair then drove to the station, and with the best wishes of their friends and guests, who assembled to wish them good luck and goodbye, left for their future home in Cambridge, Mass. The wedding presents were handsome and useful. The gift of the groom is a valuable ring, set with turquoise and diamonds. Miss Simpson was one of our most charming and estimable young ladies, and the best wishes of a host of friends follow her to her new home. The groom is a prosperous young business man in the city of learning.

A quiet but very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Folensbee Eastman at noon on Wednesday, when their youngest daughter Sarah Louise, joined fortunes for life with Fred MacCullough, a popular employe of the Washington county railroad, and son of Thomas MacCullough of Calais. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Marshall of the Methodist church, only the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride looked very sweet in a costume of white organdie and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. They were unattended by maid or groom. Dinner was served at the close of the ceremony and the bride changed her costume for a travelling suit of steel blue, with hat to match. The happy couple proceeded to the W. C. R. R., where they embarked for a trip to Bangor and Bar Harbor, a large gathering of friends being at the station. The esteem in which the popular young bride was held was manifested by many valuable gifts. Among them was a handsome lamp from the class of '96 of the Calais High School, of which the groom was a member, and an onyx table from several intimate young friends, prospective participants in similar events.
