

The exhibition has been the all absorbing interest of the week, and has brought numerous visitors to the city. The opening of the fair had its social side, the presence of two Governors, - Lt Governor McClelan of our own province and Lt Governor Daly of Nova Scotia, besides a goodly number of leading society people, giving the affair a desirable eclat, and in being made the occasion of an extension of hospitality to visitors. Of course the visiting governor was feted during his stay in the city as the guest of W H Thorne, Mecklenburg Terrace, and the most successful of the functions was the dinner given in his honor by Lieut Governor McClelan at the Union Club on Monday evening and for which thirty covers were laid. The table was artistically decorated with sweet peas and altogether presented a most charming appearance. The usual toasts were drunk and honored by the guests, among whom were the following:

Judge Barker, Recorder Ritchie, Mr. J V Ellis, M P; Recorder Skinner, Sheriff Sturdee, D J McLaughlin, Hon Albert Dunn, J D Hazen, M P P; H A McKeown, M P P; Geo Robertson, M P P; Lt. Col McLean, Lt. Col Jones, Lt Col Markham, Col Clark, Major Edwards, Major Sturdee, Capt Sharp, Lt Rankine, Dr Daniel, Dr White, Mayor Sears, W H Thorne, Dr James Hannay, A Macaulay, R B Emmerson, W M Jarvis, James McAvity, H Tibbitts, Mr. Barker, the governor's private secretary. The marriage of Miss Edna Jones, daughter of Mr. Simeon Jones of this city, and Mr. David Landsdale Wilson of London, England, took place this week, and though the event was extremely quiet it created a great deal of interest in society, as the bride has always been a great favorite with those who perform the smart set. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. J A Richardson, Trinity's new rector, was solemnized in that church at four o'clock on Monday afternoon and the only persons who witnessed the ceremony were the near relatives of the bride. Mrs. Usher and Mr. Fred C Jones, sister and brother of the bride were in attendance upon the bride and groom. The bride was handsomely crowned in a tall made gown of lawn covert cloth which fitted to perfection her beautiful figure, and wore a hat to match. After the ceremony luncheon was served at Caverhill hall and later Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for Montreal and from thence will go to New York and will sail from there next Wednesday for their future home in London, England. An interesting event took place in Rochester, N. Y., on September 6th, is thus chronicled in the "Rochester Democrat" of that date: "Yesterday morning, at the residence of the bride's father, occurred the marriage of Miss Annie May Currie, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Dean F. Currie of Albion, and Edmund Littler of St. John, N. W. Brunswick. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis S. Dunham of Christ church. Miss Nina Chapman of S.racuse, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Frederick Wesley Brown, best man. Owing to the recent illness of both Mr. and Mrs. Currie the wedding was a very quiet one attended by only a few friends. The bride and groom started immediately for their residence in St. John, going by way of Niagara Falls, Toronto, Montreal and other Canadian cities. Mr. and Mrs. Littler passed through St. John last Friday on their way to Yarmouth to visit the groom's home. They returned this week and have taken up their residence at 156 Germain street, where the bride will receive her friends on Monday, the 25th inst. Lt. Governor Daly who was here to assist in the opening of the exhibition on Monday, was the guest of W. H. Thorne during his stay in the city. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lesman were here this

Mr. Watt is the editor of the "Woodstock Sentinel" and was a warmly welcomed visitor to the press room of the exhibition, during his stay. One of the prettiest weddings of this month of pretty and big was that of Miss Grace Florence Carter, youngest daughter of the late Wm. A. Carter and Mr. Malcolm B. King of Chipman, son of Senator G. G. King, which took place at Trinity church, Kingston, at four o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. S. Wainwright officiated, and the church which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, contained a large number of spectators. The invited guests included only near relatives of the contracting parties and among them were friends from St. John, St. Stephen and Chipman. The bride who entered the church with her brother, Mr. W. S. Carter, was dressed in a very stylish and becoming travelling gown of grey cloth with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. A pretty feature of the wedding was the attendance upon the bride of her four little nieces the Misses Edith, Boyce, Nora and Mary Carter, all of whom were gowned in white rouselle de soie, and carried baskets of sweet peas - and Master George Carter, a little nephew, who led the interesting procession in a dignified manner. After the ceremony a luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother, and later Mr. and Mrs. King left on a wedding trip to the Upper Canadian cities. Many beautiful gifts were showered upon the bride from friends all over the province. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Peck of Hillsboro were in the city on Wednesday of this week. Miss G. G. of Parrsboro is spending a little while with Miss Elliott of Germain street. Mr. George H. # WHEN YOU WANT a real tonic Ask for "ST. ACUSTINE," (Registered Brand) of Pelee Wine.

THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS. Gagetown, July 26th, 1897. E. G. SCOVIL, Agent Pelee Wine Co., Dear Sir: - My wife had been afflicted with nervous prostration for several years, using every kind of medicine recommended, but obtaining no relief until I procured a tin of your Pelee Wine, which I am delighted to say, has had the desired effect. It is the greatest tonic of the age, I think too much cannot be said in its praise and no house should be without it. We have recommended it to several suffering from la grippe debility, with like good results. I am, yours gratefully, JOHN C. CLOWES. E. G. SCOVIL, Tea and Commission Merchant (62 Union Street.
