FREDERICTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.]

MAY 24.-Regular Queen's weather has prevailed all day and the large party of excursionists to the celestial have thoroughly enjoyed the many beautiful walks and drives around our lovely city.

The Choral Society concert of Thursday evening was an undoubted success and afforded a rich treat to the large and appreciative audience which crowded the hall. The programme of 12 numbers was excellently well rendered and reflect : the greatest credit upon the very efficient leader Professor Bristowe. The programme opened with a piane ductt by Prof. Bristowe and Miss Carman, and was charmingly rendered. The choruses of over thirty voices was very fine the harmony being perfect and were all much enjoyed especially the last, "Angel of Peace" when they really surpassed all former efforts. Miss Gardiner sang a solo which was well received, Miss Gardiner has a fresh sweet voice but enunciation was not so clear as to make it thoroughly enjoyable. Mr. Cooper sang in his usual good style and received a curtain call. Mis. Jaffrey's solo "The Land of Home" received hearty applause and an encore when she responded with "Astore" Mrs. Jaffrey being in particularly good voice never sang to better advantage. Mr. H. V. Bridges sang "The Holy City" which also called for a hearty encore, Mr. Bridges has a deep bass voice with a wealth of volume and his singing was much enjoyed. But the gem of the evening was the Quartette "The Soldier's Farewell" by Prof, Stockley, Mr. A. R. Tibbitts, Mr. Spurden and Mr. Cooper which was magnificently rendered. Of course the audience demanded an encore and never I think has anything been sang in Fredericton which elicited higher praise was given the quartette this evening. Mr. A. Perkins gave a cornet so'o which was thoroughly enjoyed, thus ended the first concert of the society which will discontinee the practices for the summer months. Those taking part in the concert were, Professor Bristowe, conductor; Mrs. W. P. Flewelling, pianist; Miss Bridges, Miss Perkins, accompanists; In the choruses were: sopranos Mrs. F .L. Cooper, Mrs. B. Meritt, Mrs. J. E. Payson, Mrs. W. Phair, Miss Winsiow, Miss Akerley, Miss Whittaker, Wiss Williamson, Miss Dolan Miss Heskin, Miss O'Connor, Miss Tippet, Miss McFarlane, Miss Partridge, the Misses Corker, Altos-Miss Carman, Miss Clov es, Miss Haviland, Mrs. Davidson,, Tenors-Prof. Stockley, Mr. A. R. Tibbits, Mr. C. H. B. Fisher, Mr V. Boyle, Prol. Woodbridge; Bassos--Rev. Dean Patridge, Rev. Canon Roberts, Mr. J. W. Surden, Mr. F. L. Cooper, Mr. H. V. Bridges, Mr. E. Mullip, Mr. H. Frodsham.

Mrs. William Glassey of Halifax is visiting friends at Antigonish.

On Wednesday the 17th at St. Patrick' church, Montreal, the order of Confirmation was held by Archbishop O'Brien of Halifax.

While Mr. Mulhall who has charge of the Liverpool branch of the Union Bank is on his vacation, Mr. H. W. Jubien of Halifax will take charge.

Mr. A. O. Morse, who has made his home in Liverpool, Eng., for the last 18 years, is on a visit to his mother of Liverpool, N.S. He is accompanied by his niece, Miss Mabel Ackhurst of Halifax. Miss Campbell of Chandler street Amherst will take up her residence for the future in Halifax, N.

Mrs. J. W. Longley who has been to Bermuda for her health has returned and is visiting friends in Hartsport. Her health is not much improved. In a few days Prof. McQuarrie will produce the carnival of Nations.

The fourth subscription concert of the Orpheus club, was held on the 17th at the Orpheus hall in Halifax This hall has been lately renovated and it now looks quite handsome, particularly when it was lighted and filled with a large and fashionable gathering. The music was well rendered and showed what care and patience has been taken to make it a success. Miss Hubley sang "May Laurels Crown thy Brow," which was so well rendered that she was called for another. Miss Lewis sang "The Romanza" and "The Cabelletta," these two pieces are rather difficult, but Miss Lewis had perfect control over them. Miss Tupper's solo on the piano was also good. Songs were sung by Mr. Wesl and Mr. Wikel, which were well rendered. The violin solo given by Mr. Siebelts accompanied by Mr. Potter was an enjoyable one. Mrs. Kearney and Mr. Currie also gave their assistance. The concert on the whole was a very enjoyadle one and we congra ulate the Orpheus club upon their success.

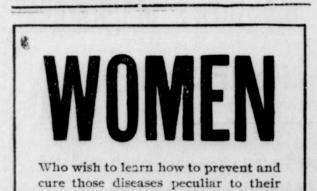

RICHIBUUTO.

ST. STEPHEN AND OALAIS.

AURORA.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen at the book-stores of G. S. Wall, T. E. Atcheson and J. Vroom & Co. In Calais at U. P. Treat's.] MAY 24 .- The day is fine and beautiful, Queen's weather, and fitting indeed to celebrate her majesty's birthday. The town is gay with flags and bunting. Calais is also showing a goodly number of flags joining with St. Stephen to celebrate the day. A large number of excursionists arrived from different points to witness the bicycle races at the St. Stephen Driving Park this afternoon, and the town is full of strangers who are riding on the electrics and visiting various points of interest. This evening a grand ball is to be given in the Curling rink, by the Knights of Pythias, and much pleasure is anticipated by those who expect to be present. The At Home given by Mrs. John Black which I mentioned in my letter last week was a most charming affair. The home is particularly adapted to entertaining, and was beautifully adorned with potted plants and flowers. Mrs. Black with her guests Mrs. Forsythe and Miss Black received in the deep bay window of the drawing room. Mrs. Black was attired in a costume of green and black silk. Mrs. Forsythe wore a handsome black silk gown with trimmings of jet, and Miss Black a pretty dress of dark blue with trimmings of cream lace. The hours of the At Home were from four until six o'clock, and during that time the house was thronged with guests. Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. George J. Clarke, Misses Noe Clarke, Kate Stevens, Alice Graham and Florrie Sullivan. Mrs. Henry Graham poured coffee and Mrs. Howard McAllister presided at the tea table. The day was such a glorious one, that the ladies who attended were in summer toilettes, and in every way the re-

The Songster.

Early hour of morning, Chanting on a tree, Piping for the dawning, Magic song of warning, With a chee, chee, chee.

Little charmer, happy ever Is thy merry heart, Bidding mortals sorrrow never, Pointing upward-yes forever, Ne'er in Heaven to part!

Roaming in the grove, Soft thy midday song Falls like holy love From bright Heaven above, Winning man from wrong.

> Pealing sweetly evening song; Misty night is coming With quick step along, While thy notes prolong, With their merry humming.

Through the forest hieing.

Or the dewdrops vieing, Flowing is thy chee, chee, chee.
