FREDERICTON.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H

Fenety and J. H. Hawthorne.] Dec. 6,-The Musicale given on Saturday evening at "Vine Cot" the cosy home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tibbits, when they so charmingly entertain ed over half a hundred of their friends, was one of the pleasantest parties we have had for a long time. The programme consisted of vocal solos from Mis, Lemont, Miss Nan Thompson and Mr. F. L. Cooper; Miss Sherman gave two whistling solos, Mr. F. H. Blair, piano solo. There were recitations by Mr. Barry Allen and W. A. Welsh, all of which were much enjoyed Mr. Cooper's song, "Soldiers of the Queen" being very timely

At eleven o'clock a very dainty supper was served, the supper room being exceptionally pretty with its artistic decorations, wax tap rs in silv r candelabras lighted the pretty table which was a symphony in pink and green, chrysanthemums being the chosen flower, mingled with smi ax and pink ribbons. Large chinese lanterns suspended from the ceiling shed a pretty softening glow ever all. The handsome toilets of the ladies added much to the pretty effect.

Try It.—It would be a gross injustice to comfound that standard healing agent—Dr. Thomas' ECLECTRIC OIL with the ordinary unguents, lotions and salves. They are oftentimes inflammatory and astringent. This Oil is, on the contrary, eminently cooling and soothing when applied externally to re-lieve pain, and powerfully remedial when swallowed.

It is a Liver Pill.—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin in a disordered liver, which is a delicate organ, peculiarly susceptible to the dis urbances that cone from irregular habits or lack of care in eating and drinking. This accounts for the great many liver regulators now pressed on the attention of sufferers. Of these there is none superior to Parmelee's Vege-table Pills. Their operation though gentle is effec-tive, and the most delicate can use them.

'I never but once put my money in one of these 10-p. c. a week concerns 'How did you come out?' 'I got 10 p. c. The concern got 90.

Tested by Time. - In his justly-celebrated Pills Dr. Parmelee has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausca, and that would purge without pain, it has met with all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alterative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicines.

Same old billing and cooing that made up the days of courtship, I suppose?' Well, no. It's all 'billing' now.—Richmond Disp atch.

Not the Worst.

As an instance of the sort of things one might wish to have expressed diff rently, a prominent physician reports a remark made to him by a patient.

The doctor had written a note to the lady, and on his next visit she asked him to tell her what two words in it were, as she had been unable to decipher them.

'It has been said of me that my writing is the worst thing about me,' said the physician, laughingly, as he surveyed his own scrawl with doubt. 'Oh, but I'm sure that it is not so !' was the hasty disclaimer. 'Far from it, doctor, far from it !'

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, saying that money could be made through speculation, realize that the richest men in America have commenced life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exray and have change speculations.

Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small saving of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 70 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked as a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 80 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations.
