

EVERY WOMAN IN AMERICA

should take advantage of this opportunity to obtain a copy of Mrs. Richard's latest book "Woman in Health and Disease." This book contains over 100 pages of instructive reading matter, is profusely illustrated and is the crowning life work of a woman whose life and labors have been devoted to the study and treatment of ailments peculiar to her sex and to the education of women on a subject which unfortunately has been shamefully neglected. It is her richest legacy to woman-kind. Mrs. Richard wants every woman to possess a copy of this book and will send it FREE of charge to all who send 10 cts. silver or stamp, to cover cost of mailing. This special offer is good for a short time only.

ITCHING SKIN.

In any Form, Whether Eczema, Salt Rheum or Piles Is Relieved at once and Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

One of the strongest endorsements any remedy can have is its adoption by the medical profession as the standard treatment for the ills for which it is recommended. Such is the position of Dr. Chase's Ointment today.

DOCTORS USE IT.

Before the introduction of Dr. Chase's Ointment doctors admitted that they could not cure Eczema and Salt Rheum, and usually resorted to the surgical operation for piles. Now they use Dr. Chase's Ointment and know of no such thing as failure.

Of course they don't always tell their patients what they are using, nor do they give the treatment in the original package; but nevertheless they continually order it from these offices for use in their practice and recognize it as the only absolute cure for piles and itching skin diseases.

DOCTORS ENDORSE IT.

Canadian doctors are no less enthusiastic than their American brothers in the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but on account of the strict laws of the Dominion, do not care to have their names mentioned in public print. If you are in doubt regarding the wonderful virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment ask your family physician. He knows its record in the past and will endorse it in the strongest terms.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, New York, writes: "No physician now refuses to acknowledge the claims of such remedies as Dr. Chase's Ointment which proves its virtue by curing where other means have failed. We know that Dr. Chase's Ointment meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, and that it is held in high esteem wherever used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of piles. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for throat and lung troubles, Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. Each 25 cts. at all dealers.

took place from his late home. Deceased has been in poor health for over a year, has been a resident of St. George for nearly twelve years and was an elder in the Presbyterian church, taking great interest in all church work. He leaves a widow, four daughters and two sons to mourn his loss.

Mr. William Baxter an old resident was also buried on the same day.

On Christmas evening the children of the Baptist Sunday school had their Christmas tree in church. The tree was finely decorated with wax tapers, pop-corn and fancy boxes of candy. Before the presents were taken from the tree a concert programme was given by the members of the school. The church is handsomely trimmed this year with ever-green, the work of the members of the B. Y. P. U.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school gave a sweet little concert in Courts hall on Tuesday evening.

AURORA.

ANAGANCE.

Dec. 27.—Although the ground was bare and in consequence the air undisturbed by the merry jingle of sleigh bells mirth and good cheer reigned supreme during Yuletide.

The audience that greeted the Christmas tree and Christmas cantata Saturday evening was a large one more especially considering how busy everybody was with preparations for Xmas. Furthermore it thoroughly enjoyed itself; it hearty and continued applause was any sign. The cantata was a choice selection appropriate to the little ones who enjoyed it with keen delight from start to finish. The commencing chorus Gospel Belles by nine little girls arrayed in white was well rendered as was also the quart and taking choruses of nursery rhymes given by several ladies of the neighborhood. Mrs. Dunfield reproduced accurately in every detail Old Mother Goose, while Mrs. McNaughton Old Woman who lived in a shoe, Miss Mable Danfield, Red Riding Hood, Katie Smith little Bo-Peep, Janie Goddard and Ruth Stockton Jack and Jill respectively; Ethel Travis, Wail, Ida Smith, Fairy, Frank Smith Bootblack, George Holmes Newboy, Addie Stockton gentleman of a philanthropic disposition, and Thomas Smith as Johnnie Doubter. Every one was enthusiastic and loud in their praise of the portrayal of the high comedy drama which created no end of amusement. Mrs. Samuel Stockton made an admirable interactor. Chris Smith is his personation of Santa Claus established himself in the good graces of the house at once. There was just enough plot in the cantata to keep the spectators interested in following the play closely to the end although the ludicrous situations from the beginning are well calculated to provide enjoyment in plenty. The recitations by little Miss Hazel Baird and George Holmes between the acts were excellent and called forth great eclat, while the solos by Kate and Tom Smith received their share of commendation. The final scene was the unveiling of the tree (which Santa had previously trimmed) by the fairy with one majesty stroke of her wand just as Santa emerges from the old fashioned fireplace again, covered with snow and frost with specks of soot here and there illustrating how hard it had been for his robust physique to come down Anagance chimneys. Upon his appearance time was known by the children's hour for a full came, which was followed by great uproar and chorus on when old St. Nicholas commenced distributing the candies, fruits and presents to every child in each family in town. The admission fee of ten cents went to defray the expenses of tree decoration, the surplus being expended on fruit and confectionery which was distributed throughout the audience by a bevy of lads and lassies. Leader C. Stockton gave selections from his photograph at close of entertainment showing to those present what they may expect at his concert in the Public hall on Thursday evening of this week which I vouchsafe to say will be filled to overflowing for his remarks concerning Edison's latest invention are alone worthy the price of admission; for he is versed in the English language.

Miss Hattie Milton of Salisbury, who taught the school here during last session resigned her charge at expiration of the term much to the regret of trustees and all. Friday she held her final examination which was attended by a great number who found that excellent work had been done by the enthusiastic teacher who had used as her motto "without halting without rest, lifting better up to best." Miss Milton was beloved by all. At the close of school she presented each pupil with fruit and bon-bons which made the urchins exclaim in one accord "that the schoolroom had been more pleasant then for a long time for her being in it." Saturday morning at the east bound train the scholars turned out to bid her farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Baird and Miss Hazel of Sussex spent Christmas with their parents here, as did also Mrs. Baird's brother Mr. Herb Stockton of St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Byard McLeod and children of Salisbury spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. D. McNaughton.

Mr. Clifford Price of Mannhusst spent Sunday with friends on Apple Hill.

Mrs. Geo. H. Davidson was visiting in St. John last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Colwell of St. John spent Christmas with Mrs. Colwell's mother.

THINGS OF VALUE.

In the Millennium (but not before) all the Irish will be Anselmanians.

There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for the ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of man's curatives being such that the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate another. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use, the feeblest systems are made into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lassitude, strengthening the animal function of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—re-ignite improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, gauged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

Elephant—What did the leopard say about the Christmas punch? "Lion—He said it went to the right spot."

No person should go from home without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dyspepsy Cordial in their possession, as change of water, cooking, climate, etc., frequently brings on summer complaint, and there is nothing like being ready with a sure remedy at hand, which not only saves from suffering and frequent, valuable lives. This Cordial has gained for itself a wide spread reputation for affording relief from all summer complaint.

The returning American, as he stands on the dock is reminded of the fact that we have customs, but no manners.

Can Recommend it. Mrs. Enos Bornhor, Tas-cara writes: "I am pleased to say that Dr. Thomas' Ecolotric Oil is all that you claim it to be as we have been using it for years, both internally and externally, and have always received benefit from its use. It is our family medicine, and I take great pleasure in recommending it."

It will be found that the man who indulges habitually in practical joking has nothing else that is practical about him.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood poisons themselves. Vegetable Pills will drive them away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

He—'Man has a perfect organ of speech.' She—'Yes, so.' Woman—'He—'Oh, no, she hasn't. Hers is made without stops.'

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parrot's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in these pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprising curative way, and the result is aimed at immediately seen.

Bishop Huntingdon defends the universal man against Miss Anthony's assertion that he is unvarnished. We always did think there were a few exceptions.

English as She is Spoke.

Mrs. Brown: 'Our language is full of misnomers. For instance, I met a man once who was a perfect bear, and they called him a civil engineer.'

Mrs. Smith: 'Yes, but that is not so ridiculous as the man they call a teller in a bank. He won't tell you anything. I asked one the other day how much money Mr. Jones had on deposit, and he just laughed at me.'

New York Millionaires.

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, saying that money could be made through speculation, realize that the richest men in America have commenced life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exchange speculations.

Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small saving of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 70 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked as a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 80 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations.

To the shrewd speculator the same opportunities are open to-day as to others in the past. The smallest lot which can be bought and sold is 10 shares on 3% margin, making 30 dollars.

Anybody interested as to how speculations are conducted can get information and market letter free of charge upon application by letter to,
