A' 'grand charity ball and reception' are to be held at the armoury on the 21st of June, in aid of the funds of the Infants' home. It is expected that the event will be one of the largest and most successful affsirs of the kind ever held in Halifax.

Arrangements for the ball and reception are already under (way. The committee baving charge consists of the following: Mrs Mackintosh (chairwoman) Mrs. McKeen, Mrs. Ferrie, Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. J. F. Kenny, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. F. H. Oxley, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Jas. Mitchell, Mrs Foster, Mrs. R. L. Borden, Mrs Duncan, Miss-Burns, Miss Stairs, Miss Secton, Messrs. H. B. Stairs (secretary), Gregor Mitchell, Percy Almon and Jas. Slayter.

Digby Courier says: Miss Mary Nichols of H aliax, arrived in Digby this week and will spend the summer at her residence on King street.

Master Walter Swenerton, is visiting at the Methodist parsonage, Bridgetown.

The marriage of Miss Waddell to Dr. Mader takes place on June 1st in Fort Massey church a 1.15 p. m. The happy couple will then take the 2.30 train to the Upper Provinces, and expect to be absent from the city about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Neilly will return to Halifax for the summer, in a few days, and reside at No. 1

Chas. E. Swaine left on Tuesday on a business trlp to the Upper Provinces, and will return after securing a big line of tee latest hat creations.

Alexander Graham Bell, with his father Melville Bell, and Mrs. Bell have arrived in Cape Breton, and taken up their residence at Bea Breigh near Baddeck.

Miss Daisy Oakes is visiting friends in Shubenacadie.

One of the most pleasing entertainments was that dramatic recital on Tuesday night, when Miss Fitzgerald's pupils in several charming comedies so delighted everybody present. Orpheus Hall was well filled on the occasion, Lord and Lady William Seymour, and other distinguished patrons, being present. Where all was so good, it seems difficult to particulariz :. The small people in "No cure, no pay," quite won all hearts. Miss Ellen Dwyer as Mrs. Languish, played her role to perfection, and lookek "every inch an involid." Miss Agnes Murphy made a charming Lucy Acker, her voice was very distant and her acting was really first class. Little Miss Cragg, as Aunt Midget, way the typical dear old aunt we remember in the days of long ago, and she held interest to the last. The hypnotic Doctor very nearly "finished" poor dear Mrs. Languish, while the bright little "parlor maid" was dquel to the occasion, keenly sympathetic to the extreme delicacy of her mistress perves, so that every bell was rung very soitly, and every caller ushered in with the quiet ease of well trained domestic.

The Symphony Concert which is to be held at the Academy on Monday next, is being anticipated with the keeness which these musical entertainments always stir in the hearts of the musical enthusiast. The music is to be of the highest order -and the Orchestra are going to look their prettiest. The soloist on this occasion will be Miss Murphy. The concert is under the most distinguish patron-

Mr. M. Dickie and Dr. Yorston with a small party of friends leave for their fishing grounds at Economy lake this afternoon.

Mr. A. S. Murphy who is busy looking after his lobster fisheries in Wallace was home for Sunday. The visit of W. S. Harkins is a much articipated event of the last of next week. Mr. Harkins has a place peculiarly his own in the estimation of Truronians, and he and his always excellent associates are given a welcome accorded tew other theatrical people. This year Mr. Harkins brings all new plays, the very latest things that have moved New York and the other large American cities to a hilarity such as Broadhurst's funny pieces only are able to produce. Why Smith Left Home, The Wrong Mr. Wright, Brown's In Town, are excruciatingly funny and have scored marvellous hits everywhere. In the beautiful society play The Butterflies made famous by John Drew. Mr. Harkins himsel: plays the leading role. There re eight ladies in the company, with charming Mabel Eaton in the lead, and some lovely gowns are said to be worn by the ladies. There is a dainty

"ASLEEP!"

Nothing so appeals to a mother's heart as the sight of her baby This is oubly true when white lips, the fevered brow, the blue lines beneath the eyes and the thin little hands tell the pathetic story that baby is ill. To the child that comes into the world robust and healthy, the ordinary ills of childhood are not a serious menace;

but to the weak, puny baby with the seeds of disease implanted in its little body even before birth, they are a serious matter and frequently mean baby's death.

The woman who wants a strong, healthy baby must see to it that she does not suffer from weakness and disease of the important and delicate organs concerned in motherhood. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acts directly on these organs, allaying inflammation, healing ulceration and soothing pain. It fits a woman for wifehood and motherhood. It banishes the discomforts of the period of anticipation and makes baby's entry to the world easy and almost painless. It insures the newcomer's health and an ample supply of nourishment. It rids maternity of its perils. It has caused many a childless home to ring with the happy laughter of healthy children. Over 90,000 women have testified to its marvelous merits. It is the discovery of an eminent and skillful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting Physician to the great Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. All medicine dealers sell it. Ailing women who write to Dr. Pierce will receive free his best advice.

Scores of women who have been cured of obstinate and dangerous diseases by Dr. Pierce's medicines have told their experiences in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It contains 1008 pages, over 300 engravings and colored plates, and is free. Send 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of customs and mailing only, for papercovered copy; cloth binding 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

little soubrette who seems to have won the hearts of all newspaperdom, and the other ladies are said actor has ever visited the provinces. There is decidedly a treat in store for the people of Truro in the coming Harkins engagement.

SHELBURNE.

May 30-Mr. and Mrs. John A. McGowen left by steamer to visit friends in Boston.

Mrs. Burnes has returned from a pleasant visit to Liverpool. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Hood

-a daughter. Lord William Seymour and Commodore Spain accompanied by Mayor Bower took a drive up river on a trouting trip this week. On Wednesday last a most enjoyable dance was held in the Exhibition hall. The hall was prettily decorated with bunting ing brilliantly lighted and with its good floor and music the time passed only too quickly. The game of base ball between the five ladder and town team in the afternoon the game was very entertaining and resulted in victory for the Town

ANAGANCE.

May 31 .- To anyone who wishes to obtain rest for a tired body and mind, pure bracing air, and complete change of scene away from the madding crowd of the conventional holiday resorts. I commend "Sussex Portage." It is a little district sit. uated two miles from Anagance station on the Kernebecasis river. It is spoken off as a "perfect Par. dise" by reason of the beauty of its situation and the richness of its soil. There is really no village of Portage, it is only a scattered parish with a small population, but it is not a dull listless place where oue would only rest. It has a variety of attraction_ such as excellent trout fishing, good hunting ground, perfectly lovely drives, and splendid roads for bicycling but one of the best attractions of "Sussex Portage" is the journey to it-to use an Irishismfor within a half mile of the place you are on the top of a hill overlooking a beautiful valley with the noble Kennebecasis flowing through, and very scientifically. Then right opposite his home is the old episcopal church on the very edge of the bank of the river with numerous stately English poplars surrounding it and where is the late Canon Medley used to preach some thirty odd years ago. Then within a stone's throw is the "Portage House" conducted by Ormond L. Jones and his estimable wife, where board can be obtained at a very reasonable rate. The first glimpse of this hotel is prepossess. ing, and, as I subsequently discover the internal arrangements are perfectly satisfactory. The food is typical farm fare with what one naturally looks for-butter, cream, and honey ad libitum. A school is run during both terms of the year and is now in charge of Miss Rebecca J. Baird. Methodistand Baptist churches are both here and the ternately to the spiritual needs of their adherents. or in other words, "there are houses of God within convient reach and men of God the truth to preach. Seat rents the poorest of poor can pay and a flock so small one pastor can survey." On the "Queen's Birthday" crowds of people from St. John, Moncton, Sussex, etc. flocked to Portage among whom I noticed Messrs. Warner, Jones, Harrison, Davidson and Fairweather, of St. John, Count D'Arno of Moncton; R. D. Hanson, Cliff Price, Jas. H. Humphrey, Misses Mamie Trites, Annie Smith, and Clara Price, Petitcodiac; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Murray, Miss Mills, Dr. J. S. Dalry, Miss Eloise Steeves, and Mr. John P. Mills, bussex; Mr. G. H. and Miss Davidson, Miss Black and Messrs. Frank Millican, A. Stockton, Humphrey Davidson and Geo Holmes of Anagance

There was a jol v party of some ten or twelve Sussex lads camping on the bank of the river and when their chef was preparing meals you could see "the boys" with Camera and rod meandering off for some more sport and when meal time came there was no need of tonic for what "Amatuer Gypsies"

Friday Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Price and Miss Emma Price (daughter of the Gen. Supt. I. C. R.) of Moncton with several more of their frends came to Anagance and were joined by Mrs. George Davidson and went to Portage where they will spent the day at the "O'd Hoyt Hemestead." Mr. Price who, by the way is an excellent angler was lucky enough to secure ten dozen of the speckled beauties. Mr. Price was at Portage one day last week, too, accompained by his friends Messrs Geo. H. Truemanjand G. B. Willett of Moncton and they were all very successful as their baskets were "brim" full

Mr. Ed. Outhouse, Dorchester, M. Steeves, Boston, Mr. Cleveland, St. Sohn, and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Snider, Sus ex. are sdending some weeks at 'The Portage."

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Colwell and two children of St. John are visiting .Mrs. Colwell's mother-M rs. Emma Davidson on "Apple Hill Farm."

Miss Bertha Davidson left per C. P. R. west on Friday for Ottawa Ont. to spend three months with her sister Mis. Edmund E. Stockton. Our Satation Agent Mr. G. H. Davidson spent a lew days recently with relatives in St. John. Miss Clara Leakers and her brother Alexander. of Sussex, are visiting this uncle Mr. Thomas Dun-

Rev. Thomas Stebbings, Hampton, preached in the methodist church here Sunday evening to an unusually large congregation. Mr. Stebbings while in town put up at Chris. Smith's. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stockton of Corn Hill, West, have moved to our town and are at present to be equally charming. Mr. Robert McWade is occupying the dwelling apartment in connection the leading man, and no more thorough or finished with S. A. Stockton's Gen. Store. Mr. Stockton is building a very fine residence adjoining and expects to have it finished prior to winter. Drs. Eurnet and MacDonald held a consultation Tuesday over Miss Eliza Kinnear who has been seriously ill all winter, and Wednesday they performed a successful operation. Miss Kinnear is rapidly recovering. The many triends here and elsewhere of Mr. Duncan McNaughton will be grieved to learn that he is through indisposition completely housed. Dr. Burnett is in attendance.

Mr. Gilbert Davidson, St John, who has been spending some days in town with relations on "Apple Hill" and at "The Station," left for Oxford, Nova Scotia, Monday. From Oxford Mr. Davidson goes to Pictou, Halifax, North Sydney and thence to Boston, so his holidays will undoubtedly be spent very pleasantly, and especially so when he carries a camera and banjo with him, for he is skilful in both, and is sure to make friends

Mrs. Elias Kinnear has been quite ill of late so that Dr. McDonald is called in frequently. Mosquito.

ST. STEPHEN AND CALAIS.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the books to es of G. S. Wall, T. E. Atcheson and J. Vroom & Co. In Calais at U. P. Treat's.]

MAY 31 .- Memorial Day passed off as usual. Flags floated at half mast all day in Calais, and in the afternoon on Water street, St. Stephen, the most promiuent stores, hotels and public buildings, flags were half mast in respect of the day. Mr. W. R. Pettingill a prominent young lawyer of Machias delivered an oration in the St. Cloix hall in the atternoon, atterwards a procession headed by the band playing the Dead March followed by Mayor Tarbox and the city alderman, school children and citizens, marched to the cemetery where appropriate services were held and the graves of the departed hero's were decorated with flags and flowers.

The chief topic among society people is the marriage of Miss Mabel Dean Clerke to Mr. Valentine Francis Lee, which takes place tomorrow at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clerke. There are nearly two hundred invitations and the wedding will be the most fash ionable and sumptuous given here for some years. Rev. W. C. Goucher of the Union street ba ptist church will perform the marriage ceremony and after the dejeuner is served the happy young pair leave in a carriage to drive through Maine to pretty farmhouses scattered here and there. F. W. Augusta where the parents of Mr. Lee reside. I Davidson, proprietor of "Waterside Villa Farm" hope to give a vivid descripton of the wedding in has a magnificent place and does all his farming my letter next week, and to describe the bride's dress which is extremely elegant.

SACKVILLE.

MAY 31. - Mrs. Frank Phinney's condition still causes much alarm to her friends. Mr. Harold Black of Pugwash, N. S. who has een seriously ill at the male academy does not in prove as rapidly as his friends could wish. A large number of persons from all over the provinces have been into wn attending the closing exercises of the institutions and the streets have presented a lively appearance. Society generally is looking forward to the visit of W. S. Harkins next week, the way in which St. Jehn has raved over his presentations raising anticipation to the highest point. Lovely and graceful Mabel Eaton is still the leading lady and is well supported by many well known people. It is quite safe to assume that Mr. Harkins will be warmly welcomed to Sackville.
