www.www.www.www.www.www.www.www. Our offer giving you Munsey, McClure and Cosmopolitan as a combination premium is fully explained on the 2nd page. Read it.

PROGRESS.

Take Advantage of Our Splendid Premium Offer While it is Going. See Advertisment on Second Page.

VOL. XI., NO. 557.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, JANUARY 14 1899.

ROUGH EXPERIENCE THE ADVENTURES OF A YOUNG ENGLISHMAN.

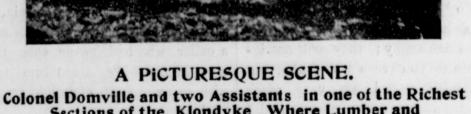

Who Went to the Scenes of Gold and Ice in Search of Adventure and Gold-He is Willing to Give Good Advice to Any Whe Think of Going There.

PROGRESS was able a few days ago to have an interesting talk with an English gentleman, who for nearly two years has been roughing it in the Klondyke. Perhaps it can be truly said of him that he has seen all that there was to be seen in that new, rich and rugged country. When he went there he had a partner and both ot them were rather in search of adventure than for gold. Well connected in England, well educated, powerful men and athletes, they sought with true Britons love of adventure and danger, the north ern country of ice and snow where gold in millions was said to be, and where the hardships and dangers of mining incited brave spirits to venture.

This gentleman is at present staying in the city and he said to PROGRESS that while he had a natural distaste for being interveiwed and for having his name figure in the newspapers as a returned Klondyker, he would be glad indeed to know of anyone who had any intention of going there in the spring, or to see anyone who had friends there and to give them al the information that he possessed regarding that rich country and its dangers. So if any of those; who read this article wish avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining Klondyke information, PROGRESS would be glad, if they would call at this office and get the address of this gentleman. His idea of the Klondyke in a general way may be had from a brief statement which he gave to the editor of this paper. "I do not propose", he says, "to say anything about the different routes to Klon dyke as they were two years ago or even a year since. So many man have written their experience that it would only be a repetition, and the greater facilities that will exist this spring for all kinds of transportation will make the journey one of comparative comfort always supposing that you have the needful. But the question is w 1. it pay for the trouble and outlay to go there? A great many bave started to go with the idea that they have only to get to Dawson City and pick up as much gold as they wanted. How far from the truth that is some of those that have returned could tell you, and there are many more there who would like to return, buy have no means to do so. I do not for one moment say that a man cannot earn a liv. ing in the Klondyke, but, I do say that a man who can make a good living there can do so in almost any part of the world with a good deal more comfort. Of course we know that, comparatively speaking, there has only been a small part of the country prospected now, but a man with a limited capital must be very sanguine to risk his all in prospecting new ground with so many chances against him. The man that thinks of going this spring who has no interest there and has not been there before might be wise to give it a little more consideration before he makes a start. He must remember that Dawson City is not quite so pleasant a spot to live in as he has been accustomed to, even if he came from a rough part. Typhoid fever was very common there last summer and with an increased population and starcely any sanitary arrangements it is likely to be worse next. He must also remember that the price of food is a little different there, and that he will have to work for $1.00 an hour when he can work, and there are a great many hours there are three or four hours of light howl. The doctor, while swallowing the Now comes the strange portion of the story finger were crushed to a shapeless mass. to save his hand.

A KLONDYKE SHANTY. One of its Best Hotels with the Colonel and a Companion in the Foreground.

Sections of the Klondyke Where Lumber and Gold Abound.

extreme tallness and his thirst for the gore but who is blind to the fact that there is is known as the National Secretary of the succumbed to the hardships of the climste U. L P. and has a faith that is almost pathetic, in the ultimate triumph of the socialist programme. We would not do Mr. Muirhead the injustice of analysing his philosophy, knowing as we do that he should not be held responsible for utterances je: ked uncomfortably out while under the hypnotic influence of Mr. Bulmer's phraselogy and Mr. Wallace's analytical peregrinations.

He had to go 75 miles to see a doctor and of the capita ist. Mr. Muirhead, (to illegal selling right in his own neighborfor sometime it was not considered possible | emulate the poet, in thus giving to airy | hood. This has nothing to do with the nothing a local habitation and a name" case however, but is merely a side issue. The legal right of any man to collect debt as best he can cannot be questioned. but there are few men who would not prefer to lose an account rather than take proceedings at such a time and at such a place as are noted above.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

SLANDER'S DARK WORK.

INJURES THE REPUTATION OF A YOUNG BUSINESS MAN

How the Story Began to Circulate and the Lack of Foundation That it has-Some Facts That Will Counteract Many of the Absurd Lies Aflost.

The start of a story-who can trace it? A short time ago an attempt was made to poison a well known clubman of New York. The poison was received and did its deadly work but the first victim was not the clubman. A woman died first and the clubman was the next victim.

Ever since the police have been trying to find out who sent the poison but so far they have not succeeded. If they could only trace the origin of that poison and find out who started it on its deadly mission the rest of their work would be easy.

There are other kinds of poison besides cyanide of mercury (which was the particular poison used in New York). Perhaps they don't destroy lives but they ruin reputations and it is just as hard to find out who starts a slander as it is to ascertain who sends poison.

A sample of this slander poiron has been scattered abroad lately. To judge from the talk it has created there must have been a pretty liberal sprinkling of it because reputations do not stand before it for an instant.

When, a day or two before Thomas A.

His partner did not escape so easily but and died. Still this Englishman is going to try it again in the spring though it is doubtful it he would do so it he had not interests then that require his personal Supervision.

THE UNITED LABOR PARTY FIZZLE

A Straggling Band of Two-by-six Cranks Who nope t, Reform the World.

HALIFAX Jan. 12- Of organizations for the protection of labor, Halitax had not tew in days gone by, and one and all have culminated in disillusion and defeat. The latest movement on the part of the proletariat is now sprawling its misfit proportions before the put lis as The United Labor Party, and for drivelling idiocy exceeds all its predecessors. Its platform, lately circulated, may be compared only to a torchlight procession of maniscs through the dim-lighted corridors of Pandemonium.

It is a lineal decendant of Mr. Dempster's Protective and Aid association, socalled, presumably, from the fact that it never protected or aided its members in the slightest degree, but the idea of the U. L. P. 1s larger, and its projected avenues to the Millenium are lighted up with more tanciful perversions of common sense than the Batler-Dempster scheme could afford. The several meetings which the party have held have been graced principally by the presence of Mr. J. T. Bulmer of Police Court tame. Nons can deny the popular character of Mr. Butmer's oratory, his felicity of phrase and the unabashed manner in which he violates the rules of propriety and common sense. "Down with Capital. Capitalists, Capitalism," is the burden of Mr. Bulmer's melody, and the protessional and capitalist classes are held up for execration, while according to his own showing the gitted orator is a mere parasite, a robber, a man who consumes much and yet produces nothing. To such a pass does Mr. Bulmer's learned dialecticism lead us,-yet we are very far from considering Mr. Bulmer a useless or unprofitable citizen. That happened afterwards it would almost apwhich amuses has always its utili y, Doctor T. A. Wallace is also a shining capture the debtor. No doubt unconlight with the proletarians. His gospel seems to diverge somewhat from his legal friend in the peoples cause, and he is less when he can do nothing. In the winter inclined to get up on his hind feet and necessary papers prepared for his arrest.

It is not thought that the party will fulfil its threat to put a man in the field next election. If its members progress much along present lines there won't be enough of the party outside Mount Hope to fight a good sized tomcat, let alone the political institutions of sane, law-abiding people.

AT HIS FATHER'S FUNERAL. Halifax Man Arre ted on an old Score In The Cemetry.

PROGRESS has a letter from Halifax which contains some statements which are not only remarkable but almost incredible, but, regarding the source from which it came, there can not be any doubt but what the assertions made have considerably foundation in fact. It seems that a short time ago a civic official, who had not been appointed very long, passed away from the sorrows of this earth and laft several near relatives at home and abroad who in duty bound prepared to follow him to his last resting place. One of his sons lived in the United States and had done so for some time. When he went away he was not in affluent circumstances, and like many another man was unable to pay all his bills. so as a matter of course he left them unpaid. One of his creditors happened to be a merchant who is now-ind perhaps wis then for all PROGRESS knows-an alderman of the city. He is not only one of the city fathers but is also a considerable champion of the Law and Order League, and figures among what might be called the church-going portion of the community. This merchant or al lerman, had a judgment against the absent son of the deceased civic official in question and from what pear he was biding his own time to scious of his intention the son came home to attend the funeral of his father, and learning of this fact the alderman had the

THE COLONEL AFTER HIM.

Mr. James of London, England is Sued for Slander.

When Mr. Trewartha James of London, England, stepped off the train on his arrival in St John he was greeted by the Deputy Sheriff with a writ for his arrest. He was a surprised man but he did not lose all his coolness but like a sensible gentlemen secured the service of a lawver and tried to get out of the clutches of the lsw. He was sued for slander and the gentleman who took the proceedings was Colonel James Domville.the former manager of the Klondyke Yukon Stewart Pioneers. The Colonel does not talk much about his action but it is understood that he was not satisfied with certain remarks made by Mr. James in London in connection with his management of the company.

The amount of damages Colonel Domville claims is not stated but Mr. James had to furnish bail for $5.000. To do this it was necessary for him to cable to Enggland but satisfactory arrangements were made and Mr. James has the same liberty now as any citizen. He is stopping at the Dufferin hotel and getting acquainted with the local members of the company. [Captain Ferris dined with him on Thursday and was no doubt able to give him much information about the country he was going to.

He has the Correct Time.

The smile of good humor that usually belongs to the face of Jack Power faded into one of amazement when a few of his triends marched into his place of business the first evening of the week and presented him with a handsome marble clock which possesses such admirable arrangements connected with the striking apparatus that the owner will never need to be reminded of the proper hour of rising or retiring. Jack is no speechmaker but his hearty "Thank You Boys" expressed as much as he could have said in an hour. The clock was a large and handsome one procured from Messrs. Ferguson & Page and will be ornamental as well as useful in the cosy home of Mr. and Mrs. Powers.

A Serious Fire.

The fire fiend ravaged one of Nova Scotias' prettiest and most picturesque little towns Thursday, but amid the real regret there is a cause for thankfulness that its deadly work was confined to the business portion of the city and while in a financial sense many families may be practically ruined yet it is good to know that none were lett homeless and houseless. -Bridgewater is one of the quaintest towns in Nova Scotia, and contains many beautiful residences, and has of recent years become quite a summer resort for Americans who seek change of scene and Linton. the confidential clerk of Mr. O. H. Warwick, was about to start for England in the interest of bis employer, he little thought that a check for $28 that he signed in payment of a personal account would be used as a lever to cast a reflection upon his integrity.

Yet such is the fact. Mr. Linton had a power of attorney from O. H. Warwick which he had used for years in the business of the concern when called upon to do so. In common with the other employes of the fim who could afford to do so he allowed that portion of his salary that he did not require to accumulate to his credit and at the time that he drew the check in question there was something like $500 to his credit on salary account. So when he was approached the day before he went to England and asked to pay an account of $28 he went into the store of the firm where he owed the bill and drew a check for the amount marking it "T. A. Linton's account" and signed it "O. H. Warwick" under his power of attorney. In the hurry and busile of departure Mr. Linton says he forget to mention the matter at the office of Mr. Warwick but when he did think of it he remembered that the check spoke for itself and so he gave himself no concern over the matter.

And nothing was said about it apparently until lately. Some two months ago Mr. Linton's friends say he saw an opportunity to go into business for himself and he notified his employer Mr. Warwick of the fact. The later was naturally annoyed over the matter and it is stated withdrew the power of attorney from Mr. Linton. Many business men will perhaps agree that such a course as this was justified inasmuch as Mr. Linton was about to start on his own account but it seems to have been about that time that injurious stories began to circulate about him in connection with his relations with Mr. Warwick's store.

The most serious of these stories made Mr. Linton out a defaulter to a consider. able amount. It is a satisfaction for PROGRESS to state that there is no truth whatever in this story. At the end of the year, instead of being indebted to his employer in any way, Mr. Linton had a balance to his credit on salary account alone of $700. This amount has since been paid him and this of itself would be ample refutation of any such scandalous story. Further than this Mr. Linton is still platform of the party, gives one the im- which it will be hard to believe of any man. only, to say nothing the intense cold. Ot It is said that the officer who was instructcourse we hear of nearly every one that pression that he still entertains some mented; to serve the papers was also told to has made a pile there, but scarcely any- al reservations. We trust those reservaarrest the debtor at the grave of his father. thing of those that have made none, and tions will be a seed in good soil that they It is also stated that the officer protested nothing at all about those who have lost may multiply some thirty, some sixty and against such a move, but the creditor intheir lives in the attempt, and I think that if some a hundred fold. It is the general imsisted. Nothing would satisfy him but the truth was known that the percentage of pression that the genial disciple of Aesculathat the man should be arrested at the those who have bettered their position by pius has let his philosophical speculations cemetery. His instructions were carried going to dig for gold in the Klondyke for the nonce run away with his good out. What happened after this so far as would be very small-indeed less than five sense, but is expected to regain his sanity. the creditor is concerned is not stated but O the other lights of the party, little per cent." it is quite possible that under the circum-The narrator bears with him the marks | can be said. One Mr. Blois, a student at stances a settlement was reached. of at least one trying ordeal which cost college, generally speaks at the ghost him the thumb and forefinger of his left dances, and orates like a minister at a PROGRESS correspondent grows indignant over the affair and says that such an hand and came well nigh costing him his prohibition caucus. At every meeting atmosphere in Canada. hand and arm as well. In some way while held so far by this would-be-political-party, action can but be exspected from a man who goes out of his way to see that the prying off a portion of a ledge of rock his there has sat, uncomfortably in the chair, Umbrellas Made, Re-covered, Repaired, Duval, 17 Water loo Street. hand became caught and his thumb and a young man remarkable chiefly itor his local liquor dealers comply with the law, with Mr. Warwick and will be until the first of May if he or his employer do not come to any other conclusion. He has been in his employ for nearly 20 years and the regrettable teature of it is that now when he proposes to start out for himself some one should be so maliciously interested as to endeavor to destroy his reputation for integrity.

This Is a Great Offer.

Any person sending a new subscription to this office with $4.00 enclosed can obtain PROGRESS for one year, and the Cosmopolitan, McClure and Munsey magazines for the same period with only one condition .-all of them must be sent to the same address.

diverviong, page of this earth and at bome and abr repared to toflor sce. One of his. rates and had d and he went aw examistances, an