The dance at Elmwood on Tuesday evening was among the most prominently brilliant events of the week. The invitations had been issued some ten days previously, so that its advent had been eagerly anticipated. Quite a hundred and fifty guests were received by Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. MeDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Preedy and Lieut. and Mrs. Ricketts, who were the hosts of the evening. Those who formed the committee were, Messrs. F. B. McCurdy, G. A. Rowlings, J. F. Frame, W. H. Covert, Prof. E. MacKay, and H. I. Smith, and to whom the success of one of the pleasantsest dance of the season was largely due. Dancing was in the spacious dining room, which was very elegantly decorated with flags, bright lights and plants and natural flowers. The music was that of the Italian Harpers, who always play sweetly and in tune.

The dresses were very fresh and pretty-pink, blue and white being the predominating colorsand where all looked so well we consider is too difficult a task to singularize; we must not forget the two sweet debutantes, Miss Pierson and Miss Lily Farquhar. Miss Florence Pierson, wore a gown of palest pink and white chiffon; her ornaments were pearls. Miss Farquhar's dress was white silk, beautifully draped with rich lace; she carried a very handsome shower bouquet. Delightful sitting out places and 'cosy corners' had been

A Guaranteed Asthma Cure,

Clark's Kolo Compound Cures.

Some years ago this would have been considered an impossibility, but Dr. Clarke has solved the problem since completing his experiments with the wonderful Kolo plant in England In December, 1893, he found that by com. bining extracts from the Kolo with other extracts from the Grendola plant which grows in California, that the compound would cure the severest cases of asthma. Upon experimenting in one of the leading London hospitals he found that 95 per cent of the cases were cured in from 60 to 90 days' treatment. Since the introduction of this remedy into Canada in 1895 there have been over 800 cases cured in Canada alone. Mr. R. L. Ilume, C. P. R. engineer. Western Division. writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthms in its worst form for over twelve years, and never succeeded in getting anything to help me permanently until the C. P. R., doctor prescribed Clarke's Kolo Compound for me in December, 1895, when two bottles entirely cured me; at least, I have not since had any return of the asthma. 1 am personally acquaint ed with at least six persons who have been cured from asthma by Clarke's Kolo Compound, and feel it my duty to recommend it to all who may be troubled with this disease." Three bottles are absolutely guaranteed to cure. A free sample bottle will be sent to any person troubled with asthms. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., sole Canadian agents, 121 Church street. Toror to, Ontario. Sold by all druggists.

arranged with much taste and forethought in the large and roomy hall. The supper room was a 'thing of beauty and a joy forever'-the long table being laden down with all the good things of the season, and was besides a vision of cut glass, gleaming silver' and rare natural flowers. Dancing continued until the 'wee sma' hours,' and even then, judging by the bright eyes which smiled good nigh. it seemed almost too quickly at an end.

"Pa jence" came of with eclat on Tuesday evening before a large and fashionable audience. In our idea this bright little operetta, to which we listened with genuine pleasure, made one of the most decided "hits" which has ever been scored by amateurs in our city. Miss Frances Foster, who assumed the title role, was perfection itself in her impersonation of the character-her acting was of the first order and was distinguished by the "abandon" of the professional mingled with a graceful and natural manner, which won for the young prima donna the admiration of the "house". Her singing portrayed excellent training and great versatility in the management of the voice: and although scarcely more than a debu, tante, Miss Foster already stands in the front rank among the first amateurs of which our town can boast not a few. Mrs. Ellis and Miss Lewis, whose sweet singing charmed their hearers, came next on the list. Dr.

Bunthorne acted from start to finish, as the professional; for he was, so to speak, the hinge on which the whole piece turned. Miss Rita Corbin performed her part excellently well, singing with much sweetness; her duett with Patience was enthusiast cally received. Mr. Gillis, as Grosvernor, left nothing to be desired, and the only fault we have to find with Mr. G. is that we do not hear him often enough. The chorus was full and rich, and their acting was vivacious and devoid of staginess The chorus, was the feature of Patience.

The rink party given by Lord and Lady Seymour on Wednesday evening was the most fashionable event of the week. Lord Seymour and the Misses Seymour are enthusiastic patrons of the rink. Like so many Europeans who spend a first winter in Canada they are keenly slive to the pleasures of frost and snow-they have for them all the spiciness of newness. On Wednesday evening more than t wo hundred guests accepted Lord Seymour's invitation and assembled at the rink, where a delightful evening was spent on the ice. Supper was served at the south end of the rink. The band of the 1st Royal Canadians played during the evening, and there was consequently much dancing. The carnival decorations were still remaining so that the old Exhibition rink wore an air of festivity which fitted in most appropriately with an event of such auspiciousness.

The Red Caps dance was held on Friday night at the Halifax hotel, and though last among the social functions of the week was by no means the least on the list-at least such is the verdict of all the pretty girls who were there. Everything was rendered in the very best style-music, decorations, brilliant lights, and an excellent supper-to [say nothing of generous and attentive hosts who looked so well after their guests, that there was scarcely a wall flower.

On Thursday a parliamentary dinner was given at Government house-these dinners are usually given once, and occasionally twice, weekly by the Governor during the period that our Local Parliament remains in session.

FEB. 15,-Mr. and Mrs. T. Sherman Rodgers. gave a very delightful euchre party on the evening of Shrove Tuesday. The invitations were chiefly confined to their married friends with a fair sprinkling of the younger element. Their residence on Victoria St. is well adapted for parties, the rooms and halls being spacious. The favors were handpainted affairs and both pretty and unique, making a dainty little remembrance of a delightful evening The prizes were handsome and useful. Mrs Rogers was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister Mrs. C. Kennedy, who will leave the last of the month to join her husband in Winnipeg. Below is only a partial list of the invited guests the majority of whom accepted:

> Mr. and Mrs. Bideu, Mr. and Mrs. N. Curry, Mayor and Mrs. J. A. Dickey, Hon. A. R. and Mrs. Dickey. Mr. and Mrs. D, W. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. T. Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Montizambert. Mr. and Mrs. Widder. Mr., Mrs. and Miss Main. Miss Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. C. Black. Prof. and Mrs. Sterne. Mr. and Mrs. S. Jenks. Dr. and Mrs. C. Hewson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hewson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. McCully. Mr. and Miss Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. McSweeney of Mount Watley is guest for a week of the mayor and Mrs. J. A. Dickey. Grove cottage, Church St.

Mrs. A. MacKinnon, who bas been under treatment in the Halifax infirmary is at home again much improved in health.

The sombre curtain of lent has again fallen, it will not however cause society to be any quieter, for I think it would be impossible; there was little break in the monotony last Friday although. so bitterly cold, yet a large number of ladies gladly accepted Mrs. Will Blacks kind invitation to an afternoon tea at her very pretty home Victoria St where a delightful hour was spent. Mrs. A. D. Ross also entertained her friends to a pleasant five o'clock on the same afternoon, her cosy home looked particularly inviting in contrast to the triving wind and frost outside which the ladies so

Miss Yorston was looking exceedingly well in white organdie over pale blue silk.

Miss Mabel McKenzie wore a very handsome gown of cream trocaded sttin, en traine, the bodice arranged with apple-green velvet and silk lace.

By the special concession of Mr. O. A. Homsby, the dance was somewhat longer drawn-out and did not break up until after one a. m. when adieus were most unwillingly said.

The large number of young people bidden to the "Cedars," last Friday in honor of Miss McMul in's birthday enjoyed an evening of unmixed pleasure. Dancing was of course the principal diversion. The Misses Bligh entertained the whist club on Monday evening last. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wetmore, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Bigelow, Misses Nelson, Misses Thomas, Miss Hensley, Miss Eva Murray, Messrs. O. A. Hornsby, W. P. McKay, J. W. Murray, F. C. Cotton, H. V. Bigelow. The evening was a very pleasant one ending with an impromptu dance.

The Misses Leckie were At Home yesterday afternoon from five to seven and despite the storm which was almost a blizzard a large number of those invited responded in person. Tea and its accompanying good things were dispensed in the dining room where Miss Leckie and her sisters were assisted by Mrs. Lee Russell and Miss Frances Yuill. The table laden with every delicacy and profuse floral decorations presented a charming appearance under the softened glow of many waxen candles.

The fancy dress carnival of last night and the perfect ice afforded a very pleasant evening for those enjoying the same, but as a spectacular show for the on-looker a snare and a delusion, there being very few costumes expressive of any originality whatever.
