

The present season has been one of the gayest. St. John society has experienced for a long time...

Mrs. Morris Robinson was one of the hostesses of this week, giving a tea on Tuesday. Mrs. Howard McLeod and Mrs. Leigh Harrison presided over the tea and coffee...

Mrs. Tillson and Mrs. James Manchester were contributors to Friday's list of social doings. The latter's at home being an especially brilliant affair.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. Harrison entertained her lady friends in a very hospitable and gracious manner, and the guests showed a disposition to linger some what beyond the time prescribed by conventionality...

A pretty little event of Tuesday was the children's party given by Mrs. E. T. Simonds, the young guests numbering about thirty. A wonderful cake all lighted up with many colored candles and filled with all sorts of delightful surprises in the way of presents...

Miss Ella Payne returned Wednesday from a three weeks visit to Calais, Me., during her stay in the border city Miss Payne was a guest of honor at several very brilliant social functions.

Mr. E. Lee Street and Miss F. A. Street of Newcastle spent a few days in the city during the week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. F. C. Godsoe and Mr. H. H. Mott left Wednesday on a trip to Boston and New York.

Miss A. W. Williams of the west end is entertaining Mrs. T. J. Murphy of Eastport for a few days. Miss Blanche Wotton of Parrsboro who has been Mrs. C. E. Huestis' guest for a while left this week for Shediac to visit Mrs. A. J. Webster.

The storm did not prevent a most appreciative audience from attending the concert at the Trinity church school room on Wednesday evening, and those who ventured out were well repaid for any personal discomfort they may have experienced by the real musical treat which was given under the auspices of the Y. M. A. and Y. W. G. of the church.

There are two will parties arranged for this afternoon, one of which is to be given by Mrs. E. Smith, and a tea at which Mrs. Robert Matthews will be hostess, for which last quite a large number of invitations have been issued.

The Matrons will give a dance next Monday night and the invited guests are eagerly looking forward to it. It is whispered that the favors for the Cotillon are "lovely."

Miss Ethel Parks arrived recently for a few weeks vacation at her home here. Practice for Patience and The May Queen will commence next Monday night. It is the intention to put on The May Queen in April, and Patience in May, and as there is plenty of time for preparation music lovers will be looking forward to something very good.

At the conclusion of the programme those who took part in it were entertained at supper. Miss Josie Ritchie has quite recovered from an attack of grippe and is able to be around again. Mr. John S. Leighton of Woodstock spent a day or two in the city this week.

A luncheon was given at the Union Club on Wednesday evening by Mr. D. McNicholl of Montreal, passenger traffic agent of the C. P. R. and Mr. Wm. Whyte, manager of lines west of Fort William. The luncheon was a very recherche affair and the time was delightfully spent.

Miss Nettie Vanwert of summer street, entertained a party of friends very charmingly on Wednesday evening at which cards, dancing and music were provided for the entertainment of the guests. A delicious supper was served during the evening.

Miss Charlotte Smith was the guest of Miss Fowys during her recent visit to the Capital. Miss Johnston has returned to Fredericton after a pleasant stay with her sister Mrs. Hall, Princess street.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sipprell will sympathize with them in the death of their nine months old baby Winifred May, which occurred on Thursday morning after a week's illness.

Mrs. J. A. Dunham of Alma, N. B., made a day or two's stay in the city this week. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hayward of Halifax, were among the visitors of the week to St. John.

Mrs. R. Morrison of Sussex, is here on a visit to her daughter Mrs. George D. Bain. Miss Maud Gleeson gave a very enjoyable whist party to her young friends at her home, Germain street, on Tuesday evening of this week.

At the close of the warmly contested games Miss Ada Brown was awarded the first prize, while the booby prize went to Mr. Kirk. Supper was served later to the guests, who were as follows:

Miss Ada Brown, Mr. A. McIntyre. Miss Geo. Hodgins, Mr. Harry Peters. Miss J. Lake, Mr. Willie Nagle. Miss L. Savage, Mr. Willie Kirk. Miss M. Bartlett, Mr. W. Fitzgerald. Miss Cox, Mr. W. Farren. Miss Irene Fry, Mr. Parks. Miss M. Driscoll, Mr. Carl Leachler. Miss L. Gleeson, Mr. F. K. Smith. Miss N. Gibbon, Mr. T. Irvine. Miss Barker, Mr. W. Harbour. Miss Campbell, Mr. C. Craig. Miss Lulu Ferguson, Mr. Howard. Miss M. Stratton, Mr. Fred Bartos. Miss M. Lin, Mr. C. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson, Mr. C. Stubbs. Mr. C. O'Brien, Mr. James Shackleton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McCullough. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nichol. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lamute. Mr. and Mrs. C. Stubbs. Mr. and Mrs. T. Gibbons. A pleasant drive to Brookville and a charming little party at her home was the way Miss Annie Fraser, daughter of Mr. W. J. Fraser entertained a party of young friends last Tuesday afternoon. The day was delightfully fine and the young folks enjoyed the drive immensely, and the delicious supper which followed. Games, dancing and music made the time fly quickly by until nine o'clock when the guests returned to the city. The chaperones for the drive were Mrs. Robert Strain, Miss Susie Paterson, Misses Alice and Fannie Roden and the guests were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kye of Germain street, celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage by a very pleasant little party last Thursday evening, about fifty of their friends assembling to do honor to the event.

News of the death of Mrs. (Dr.) Parker, which occurred at her home in Boston last week, was heard with regret by the friends of the deceased lady who made several summer visits to this city.

Miss Dunbrack has been the guest of Miss Christina White of Moncton for a while lately. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Glennie of Oxford, Cumberland Co., N. S., spent a part of their honeymoon in St. John, and were guests at the Dufferin this week.

Miss Wheeler of Fredericton spent a day or two here lately. Mr. H. A. Doherty who has been confined to his residence with an attack of grippe is able to be around again.

Mrs. Amos Lightly of Dubuque Ia., arrived this week on a four weeks visit to West side relatives. Miss Nora McCormack of Yarmouth is the guest of her aunt Mrs. James Nixon of the North end.

Mrs. Norman Moody of Liverpool, Eng., is expected next week on a visit to city relatives. Mrs. James Manchester was at home on Friday afternoon to a large number of her friends. The occasion was a very pleasant one and the guests enjoyed thoroughly the gracious hospitality extended to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton of Truro made a brief visit to the city this week. Miss Laura Bradley of Main street has quite recovered from a severe attack of the grippe which confined her to her home for a week or two.

The marriage took place in St. John's stone church at noon Wednesday of Dr. J. C. Pogram of Providence, R. I., to Miss Bessie Lynch of Fredericton, Rev. J. DeSoyes performing the marriage ceremony. Only a few intimate friends among whom were members of the families of the contracting parties were present, and there were no attendants.

After the ceremony the party went to the Royal hotel where breakfast was served. The dining room and table were elaborately decorated with flowers, palms and palms, and there were pretty souvenirs of the interesting event in the shape of special menu cards. Dr. and Mrs. Pogram will reside in Rhode Island after the wedding tour upon which they left later in the day.

Hon. A. R. Dickey of Amherst former secretary of state, spent a day or two in the city during the week. Miss Ella Payne returned Wednesday from a three weeks visit to Calais, Me., during her stay in the border city Miss Payne was a guest of honor at several very brilliant social functions.

Mr. E. Lee Street and Miss F. A. Street of Newcastle spent a few days in the city during the week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. F. C. Godsoe and Mr. H. H. Mott left Wednesday on a trip to Boston and New York.

Miss A. W. Williams of the west end is entertaining Mrs. T. J. Murphy of Eastport for a few days. Miss Blanche Wotton of Parrsboro who has been Mrs. C. E. Huestis' guest for a while left this week for Shediac to visit Mrs. A. J. Webster.

The storm did not prevent a most appreciative audience from attending the concert at the Trinity church school room on Wednesday evening, and those who ventured out were well repaid for any personal discomfort they may have experienced by the real musical treat which was given under the auspices of the Y. M. A. and Y. W. G. of the church.

There are two will parties arranged for this afternoon, one of which is to be given by Mrs. E. Smith, and a tea at which Mrs. Robert Matthews will be hostess, for which last quite a large number of invitations have been issued.

The Matrons will give a dance next Monday night and the invited guests are eagerly looking forward to it. It is whispered that the favors for the Cotillon are "lovely."

Miss Ethel Parks arrived recently for a few weeks vacation at her home here. Practice for Patience and The May Queen will commence next Monday night. It is the intention to put on The May Queen in April, and Patience in May, and as there is plenty of time for preparation music lovers will be looking forward to something very good.

At the conclusion of the programme those who took part in it were entertained at supper. Miss Josie Ritchie has quite recovered from an attack of grippe and is able to be around again. Mr. John S. Leighton of Woodstock spent a day or two in the city this week.

A luncheon was given at the Union Club on Wednesday evening by Mr. D. McNicholl of Montreal, passenger traffic agent of the C. P. R. and Mr. Wm. Whyte, manager of lines west of Fort William. The luncheon was a very recherche affair and the time was delightfully spent.

Miss Nettie Vanwert of summer street, entertained a party of friends very charmingly on Wednesday evening at which cards, dancing and music were provided for the entertainment of the guests. A delicious supper was served during the evening.

Miss Charlotte Smith was the guest of Miss Fowys during her recent visit to the Capital. Miss Johnston has returned to Fredericton after a pleasant stay with her sister Mrs. Hall, Princess street.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sipprell will sympathize with them in the death of their nine months old baby Winifred May, which occurred on Thursday morning after a week's illness.

Mrs. J. A. Dunham of Alma, N. B., made a day or two's stay in the city this week. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hayward of Halifax, were among the visitors of the week to St. John.

Mrs. R. Morrison of Sussex, is here on a visit to her daughter Mrs. George D. Bain. Miss Maud Gleeson gave a very enjoyable whist party to her young friends at her home, Germain street, on Tuesday evening of this week.

At the close of the warmly contested games Miss Ada Brown was awarded the first prize, while the booby prize went to Mr. Kirk. Supper was served later to the guests, who were as follows:

Miss Ada Brown, Mr. A. McIntyre. Miss Geo. Hodgins, Mr. Harry Peters. Miss J. Lake, Mr. Willie Nagle. Miss L. Savage, Mr. Willie Kirk. Miss M. Bartlett, Mr. W. Fitzgerald. Miss Cox, Mr. W. Farren. Miss Irene Fry, Mr. Parks. Miss M. Driscoll, Mr. Carl Leachler. Miss L. Gleeson, Mr. F. K. Smith. Miss N. Gibbon, Mr. T. Irvine. Miss Barker, Mr. W. Harbour. Miss Campbell, Mr. C. Craig. Miss Lulu Ferguson, Mr. Howard. Miss M. Stratton, Mr. Fred Bartos. Miss M. Lin, Mr. C. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson, Mr. C. Stubbs. Mr. C. O'Brien, Mr. James Shackleton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McCullough. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nichol. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lamute. Mr. and Mrs. C. Stubbs. Mr. and Mrs. T. Gibbons.

McCLASKEY'S. Special 5lb. box best Chocolates and Bon-bons $1.50. " " " " " " " " $1.00. " " " " " " " " $1.00. Large line of Fancy Baskets and Xmas novelties. McClaskey's - 47 King St.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kye of Germain street, celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage by a very pleasant little party last Thursday evening, about fifty of their friends assembling to do honor to the event.

News of the death of Mrs. (Dr.) Parker, which occurred at her home in Boston last week, was heard with regret by the friends of the deceased lady who made several summer visits to this city.

Miss Dunbrack has been the guest of Miss Christina White of Moncton for a while lately. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Glennie of Oxford, Cumberland Co., N. S., spent a part of their honeymoon in St. John, and were guests at the Dufferin this week.

Miss Wheeler of Fredericton spent a day or two here lately. Mr. H. A. Doherty who has been confined to his residence with an attack of grippe is able to be around again.

Mrs. Amos Lightly of Dubuque Ia., arrived this week on a four weeks visit to West side relatives. Miss Nora McCormack of Yarmouth is the guest of her aunt Mrs. James Nixon of the North end.

Mrs. Norman Moody of Liverpool, Eng., is expected next week on a visit to city relatives. Mrs. James Manchester was at home on Friday afternoon to a large number of her friends. The occasion was a very pleasant one and the guests enjoyed thoroughly the gracious hospitality extended to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton of Truro made a brief visit to the city this week. Miss Laura Bradley of Main street has quite recovered from a severe attack of the grippe which confined her to her home for a week or two.

The marriage took place in St. John's stone church at noon Wednesday of Dr. J. C. Pogram of Providence, R. I., to Miss Bessie Lynch of Fredericton, Rev. J. DeSoyes performing the marriage ceremony. Only a few intimate friends among whom were members of the families of the contracting parties were present, and there were no attendants.

After the ceremony the party went to the Royal hotel where breakfast was served. The dining room and table were elaborately decorated with flowers, palms and palms, and there were pretty souvenirs of the interesting event in the shape of special menu cards. Dr. and Mrs. Pogram will reside in Rhode Island after the wedding tour upon which they left later in the day.

Hon. A. R. Dickey of Amherst former secretary of state, spent a day or two in the city during the week. Miss Ella Payne returned Wednesday from a three weeks visit to Calais, Me., during her stay in the border city Miss Payne was a guest of honor at several very brilliant social functions.

Mr. E. Lee Street and Miss F. A. Street of Newcastle spent a few days in the city during the week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. F. C. Godsoe and Mr. H. H. Mott left Wednesday on a trip to Boston and New York.

Miss A. W. Williams of the west end is entertaining Mrs. T. J. Murphy of Eastport for a few days. Miss Blanche Wotton of Parrsboro who has been Mrs. C. E. Huestis' guest for a while left this week for Shediac to visit Mrs. A. J. Webster.

The storm did not prevent a most appreciative audience from attending the concert at the Trinity church school room on Wednesday evening, and those who ventured out were well repaid for any personal discomfort they may have experienced by the real musical treat which was given under the auspices of the Y. M. A. and Y. W. G. of the church.

There are two will parties arranged for this afternoon, one of which is to be given by Mrs. E. Smith, and a tea at which Mrs. Robert Matthews will be hostess, for which last quite a large number of invitations have been issued.

The Matrons will give a dance next Monday night and the invited guests are eagerly looking forward to it. It is whispered that the favors for the Cotillon are "lovely."

Miss Ethel Parks arrived recently for a few weeks vacation at her home here. Practice for Patience and The May Queen will commence next Monday night. It is the intention to put on The May Queen in April, and Patience in May, and as there is plenty of time for preparation music lovers will be looking forward to something very good.

At the conclusion of the programme those who took part in it were entertained at supper. Miss Josie Ritchie has quite recovered from an attack of grippe and is able to be around again. Mr. John S. Leighton of Woodstock spent a day or two in the city this week.

A luncheon was given at the Union Club on Wednesday evening by Mr. D. McNicholl of Montreal, passenger traffic agent of the C. P. R. and Mr. Wm. Whyte, manager of lines west of Fort William. The luncheon was a very recherche affair and the time was delightfully spent.

Miss Nettie Vanwert of summer street, entertained a party of friends very charmingly on Wednesday evening at which cards, dancing and music were provided for the entertainment of the guests. A delicious supper was served during the evening.

Miss Charlotte Smith was the guest of Miss Fowys during her recent visit to the Capital. Miss Johnston has returned to Fredericton after a pleasant stay with her sister Mrs. Hall, Princess street.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sipprell will sympathize with them in the death of their nine months old baby Winifred May, which occurred on Thursday morning after a week's illness.

Mrs. J. A. Dunham of Alma, N. B., made a day or two's stay in the city this week. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hayward of Halifax, were among the visitors of the week to St. John.

Mrs. R. Morrison of Sussex, is here on a visit to her daughter Mrs. George D. Bain. Miss Maud Gleeson gave a very enjoyable whist party to her young friends at her home, Germain street, on Tuesday evening of this week.

At the close of the warmly contested games Miss Ada Brown was awarded the first prize, while the booby prize went to Mr. Kirk. Supper was served later to the guests, who were as follows:

Miss Ada Brown, Mr. A. McIntyre. Miss Geo. Hodgins, Mr. Harry Peters. Miss J. Lake, Mr. Willie Nagle. Miss L. Savage, Mr. Willie Kirk. Miss M. Bartlett, Mr. W. Fitzgerald. Miss Cox, Mr. W. Farren. Miss Irene Fry, Mr. Parks. Miss M. Driscoll, Mr. Carl Leachler. Miss L. Gleeson, Mr. F. K. Smith. Miss N. Gibbon, Mr. T. Irvine. Miss Barker, Mr. W. Harbour. Miss Campbell, Mr. C. Craig. Miss Lulu Ferguson, Mr. Howard. Miss M. Stratton, Mr. Fred Bartos. Miss M. Lin, Mr. C. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson, Mr. C. Stubbs. Mr. C. O'Brien, Mr. James Shackleton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McCullough. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nichol. Mr. and Mrs. T. Lamute. Mr. and Mrs. C. Stubbs. Mr. and Mrs. T. Gibbons.

McCLASKEY'S. Special 5lb. box best Chocolates and Bon-bons $1.50. " " " " " " " " $1.00. " " " " " " " " $1.00. Large line of Fancy Baskets and Xmas novelties. McClaskey's - 47 King St.

It's There!

Full Value Every Time. No Fluctuation in Quality. A Standard Article. Good as Gold. Without Alloy.

Experience is the best teacher, and experience says that Welcome Soap is the Best. Try it.

McCALL'S MAGAZINE (The Queen of Fashion) For 1899. Will contain over 20 FULL-PAGE BEAUTIFUL COLORED PLATES—more than 800 exquisite, artistic and strictly up-to-date fashion designs—a large number of short stories and handsome illustrations—fancy work, hints on dressmaking and suggestions for the home. ONLY 50c. A YEAR. And each subscriber receives a Free Pattern of her own selection—a pattern sold by most houses at 25c. or 30c. No magazine in the world gives such big value for so little money.

When You Order... PELEE ISLAND WINES BE SURE YOU GET OUR BRAND. Brands:—Pelee Port, Dry Catawba, Sweet Catawba, Isabella, St. Augustine, Old Port, Concord, Undermentioned Grape Juice, Chateau Pelee Claret. Sure Cure for La Grippe. E. C. SCOVIL, Agent Pelee Wine Co., Gagetown, July 25, 1897.

A PRIZE FOR EVERY CORRECT ANSWER. We ask not one cent of your money. This Picture Puzzle represents a Celestial energetically engaged at his traditional occupation, washing. About him are pictured the faces of three of his customers. Find these three faces, mark each and return to us. To each and every one of our patrons who interpret this puzzle correctly, we will give a genuine Fountain Pen complete, with filler, packed and sent postage free. MUTUAL SUPPLY CO. 20, 21 and 22 Snowdon Chambers Toronto, Ont.