Col. Kingscote shortly leaves Halifax. Society has not seen much of this gentleman lately, owing to the death of his wife.

Mrs. Clarkson had a small afternoon tea on Tuesday, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Huddleston and Miss Keith.

Mrs. A. E. Jones had a small dinner on Friday evening in honor of her cousin, the Hon. Armine Herring. Mr. Sangster of Windsor has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jones for the last few days.

This has really been a children's year as regards parties, and the "old folk" enjoy them as much as the young.

Children's parties have reached such an extreme now that it really difficult to keep up with them.

It appears one child seems to require four times as much as one adult would. Twenty years ago things were very different.

The old-fashioned Christmas party, with its country dances and happy, sticky little faces, seems to have died out and now, pleasant as they are, a children's dance is as much strain on a hostess' nerves and purse as a ball might be.

The officers of the Canadian Artillery give a large ball on the 27, at the Halifax hotel. These gentlemen are very well known as excellent hosts, and the invited guests are looking forward eagerly to the event.

Mrs. Frank Roberts, Tobin street, has invitations out for the same evening.

Mrs. O'Brien gives a children's dance on the 27th inst. also.

Another one of the brilliant weddings by which Halifax society will shortly lose one of its most charming daughters, and by which a popular military officer will gain an estimable partner for life, took place at St. Luke's cathedral Tuesday afternoon.

The church was crowded some time before the ceremony which began at 2.30.

The groom was Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Wilkinson, commanding the R.oyal engineers on this station, and the bride Miss Adele Jean West, daughter of the late A. W. West.

The chancel and altar of the church had been handsomely decorated with flowers and plants by a number of the brides young lady friends, the decorations being very tastefully arranged.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Crawford rector, assisted by Rev. W. H. Bullock chaplain to the forces.

Capt. Ferguson, A. D. C., acted as best man, while the bridesmaids were Miss Harvey, (maid of honor), Miss Ina West and Miss Ethel Stairs.

Messrs. W. Harvey, Geo. Francklyn, C. Slayter, and H. Stairs acted as ushers.

The bride wore a beautiful dress of white satin, which was trimmed with white fox and orange blossoms. Her veil was caught up with a magnificent gold and diamond star, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet which came from New York, was of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids wore white figured silk dresses, with white chiffon fichu, and violets and veiled hats, and each of the ladies had sprays of violets at the neck. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

After the ceremony the groom and bride drove to the residence of the bride's mother, 95 South Park street, where a reception was held, the guests numbering about one hundred and fifty. The function at the house was in the drawing room, the residence being decorated with flowers. Lieut. and Mrs. Wilkinson received under a large floral bell, hung from an arch, both bell and arch being of Roman hyacinths and carnations.

The table was all in white and the decorations included white satin ribbons suspended from the ceiling.

Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Wilkinson left on the five o'clock train on a wedding trip to Washington, Baltimore and Richmond, returning via New York Toronto and Montreal. The bride's travelling dress was heliotrope cloth, with seal skin sacque and velvet hat to match.

The lieutenant-colonel and his bride were the recipients of a great many wedding gifts from friends in Halifax and also a number from English friends which will not be brought here, but will await Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Wilkinson's arrival in England.

The groom's gift to the bride was a large diamond star and to the bridesmaids turquoise diamond and pearl pins. Among the gifts received was a large piece of plate from the R. E. officers' mess engraved "Presented to Lieut. Colonel Wilkinson on his marriage, by the officers of the R. E. in Halifax, N. S., 1899" also a handsome clock from the R. A. officers' mess, a Queen Anne silver tea service and a check from Mrs. A. W. West, a fine Irish lace tea cloth from Mrs. Montgomery Moore, a set of ribbon dishes from Hon. Althea Colborne, and cheques, from Colonel Arthur Wilkinson, Miss Mary Wilkinson and Mrs. Carter, all of England.

For sheltering the wedding party across the wide sidewalk in front of Mrs. West's residence the Royal Engineers after receiving permission from the mayor, erected a porchway from the doorway of the house half way to the curbing and extended a canopy to the curb. The interior was decorated with flags and carpeted, and the temporary apartment heated with stoves, all for the convenience of the guests, and those wishing could leave their wraps there when they were entering, until they came out to take their carriages.

On returning to Halifax Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Wilkinson will take up their residence at 37 Park street. It is understood they will go to England about a year and a half hence.

THE HURRYING FEET OF WOMEN

At the new-born infant's cry, tells the story of woman's sympathy for her sister-woman. If women would only spread the medical gospel, that a woman is unfitted for wifehood and motherhood as long as she suffers from weakness or disease of the distinctly womanly organism, there would be less necessity for the sisterly sympathy that a woman receives when she is in the throes of child-bearing.

A woman who is thoroughly strong and healthy in a womanly way to suffer comparatively little pain and sickness when she becomes a mother. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acts directly on the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of maternity and gives them health, strength and elasticity. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It banishes the discomforts of the fatigued, hearted period and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It insures the new-comer's health. Over 90,000 women have testified to its marvelous merits and many of them have permitted their experiences, names, addresses and photographs to be printed in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Medical Adviser, so that other women may learn of this wonderful medicine. Good medicine dealers sell it.

"I am now real well," writes Mrs. Lillie Hibbard, of Merrill, Lincoln Co., Wis. "I have been doing my own housework, including washing and ironing. I hardly ever feel the pain in my side unless I lift hard. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two bottles of 'Pleasant Pellets.' I have not been taking any medicine for over two months. This is the first time I have been well enough to do my work for over three years. Your medicine is all that helped me."

Send 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing and customs only, for a paper-covered copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Cloth binding, 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It is the most popular medical work in the English language; it contains a thousand and eight pages, and over three hundred illustrations. It is a great storehouse of valuable information—a veritable medical library in one volume.

and Mrs. Wiggins, Sackville. She is expected to return this week.

The deceased leaves two sisters Mrs. Moses Lowe, and Mrs. Nathan Tupper and two brothers William at Salem and Dr. Charles Bent Truro. Two sons are in the United States. Dr. C. Bent of Truro was over to his brother's funeral on Tuesday.

The concert postponed from last Thursday evening came off on Monday evening, when an excellent programme was given. The music rendered by the orchestra was well worth the price of admission. Miss Pugsley who is destined to be a "star" sang charmingly, and the other performers were in good voice unfortunately it was but slimly attended owing to many counter attractions.

The beautiful Cantata "Joseph and his brethren" is under consideration, with Prof. Steiner, as instructor or it is sure to be a success, for we have the talent, as was evidenced by the last musical gem just before the public nearly three years ago the Cantata "David" which was received by a crowded house two evenings in succession.
