

Society turned out in force on Wednesday evening to attend the Neptune Rowing Club ball given in the Mechanic's Institute.

The decorations in the different rooms were in red and white, the club colors, and these warm tints mingled with clusters of crimson and gold tinted maple leaves made an effective combination.

Harrison's orchestra was present and rendered the following program of dance music in their usual good style.

1 valse, 2 lancers, 3 valse, 4 polka, 5 deux temps, 6 militaire, 7 valse, 8 deux temps, 9 lancers, 10 valse, 11 Gallop, 12 valse, 13 deux temps, 14 valse, 15 deux temps, 16 valse with three supper extras.

The chaperones were Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. George McAvity, Mrs. J. R. Thompson, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Mrs. F. E. Sayer, Mrs. Alfred Porter, Mrs. A. B. Holly, Mrs. Fred Hanington, Mrs. George West Jones, Mrs. Thomas Walker, Mrs. W. E. Vroom and Mrs. J. M. Robinson.

Many very handsome costumes were worn by the ladies. Some of those noted were:

Mrs. Alfred Porter, black and white satin; the bodice being prettily trimmed with pink.

Miss Maizie Titus, white organdie over white with pale blue.

Miss Ervin, black silk with corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Minnie Stewart, white organdie with cerise velvet and chiffon trimming; pearl ornaments.

Mrs. Jones, white silk with a pretty over dress of black lace; velvet.

Miss Lawton, pink silk with chiffon and velvet; bouquet of natural flowers.

Miss Marion Smith, wore a pretty dress of white muslin with valenciennes lace and ribbon; crimson poppies.

Miss Pauline Johnston, looked dainty and sweet in a soft white silk gown with yoke and sleeves of gauze, ribbon also being used in the trimming.

Miss Alice Smailey, cream muslin over blue silk, with blue and black velvet.

Miss Tapley, white organdie over pink silk; the bodice being trimmed with bands of velvet and satin.

Mrs. Otty Sharpe, wore a very handsome dress of black satin with jet ornaments.

Miss Bertie Rainnie was stately and pretty in white muslin with lace and ribbon trimming.

Miss Gladys Campbell, cream swiss over cream silk, insertion and black baby ribbon.

Miss Mello Vroom, pink silk heavily trimmed with chiffon.

Miss Wisely, pink and white with black velvet.

Miss Ella Jordan, organdie over pink silk with black velvet, corsage bouquet of natural flowers.

Mrs. Vroom, black satin with applique trimming.

Miss M. Winifred Hall, pale blue silk effectively trimmed with white.

Miss Rose Jones, white gauze over white silk, white and pearl trimming.

Miss Macaulay, a pretty striped pink silk with black velvet.

Miss Helen Furlong, white organdie over blue silk, white and old rose trimmings.

Miss Mary Hare, blue silk with over dress of white, with lace and insertion.

Miss Hare, pink silk with drapping of gauze, bouquet of white roses.

Miss Seely, white muslin with lace and chiffon trimmings.

Miss Ethel Fanjoy wore a becoming dress of white muslin with white flowers.

Miss Nellie McAvity, cream gauze over white silk.

Mrs. George McAvity looked well in a pretty gown of pink silk with lace and roses.

Miss Alice Lockhart, pineapple gauze over white silk with chiffon and ribbon.

Miss Francis Rainnie looked well in pink and white with corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. F. S. White, black satin heavily trimmed with satin and jet.

Mrs. Bev. Macaulay, blue and gold brocade with chiffon and steel trimmings.

Miss Allison, crimson silk, corsage bouquet of flowers.

Miss Bertie Armstrong, white shower of hail muslin over blue silk.

Miss Bessie Armstrong, white muslin with pink trimmings and natural flowers.

Miss Blizard, white muslin heavily trimmed with chiffon.

Miss Shaw, pale blue and white muslin; the bodice being prettily trimmed with blue velvet.

Miss McMillan wore a pretty and becoming dress of white silk with lace and flowers.

Mrs. A. B. Holly was in black silk with over dress of black lace; pearl ornaments.

Miss Clara Brennan, looked well in cerise satin, with chiffon and pearl trimming, diamonds and pearls.

Miss Laura Brennan, white silk with overdress of organdie, white roses and pearl ornaments.

Miss Constance Smith, pink and white silk with insertion and velvet ribbon.

Mrs. J. M. Robinson, ruby silk brocade, real lace and diamonds.

Mrs. Arthur Carr, Sydney, C. B., cream satin, lace and pearl trimming.

Miss E. Robertson, black satin, with bodice of white silk draped with black lace.

Miss Hegan, white silk with sequin and lace.

Miss Schofield, white silk, the trimming being of turquoise blue velvet.

Miss Edith Hegan, blue and white silk with black velvet.

Mrs. George F. Smith, black satin with lace and jet; corsage bouquet of natural flowers.

Mrs. George West Jones, a very handsome gown of pink brocade with pearl trimming.

Mrs. F. E. Sayer, white satin with bands of fur.

Miss Robinson, organdie over white silk, pearls.

Miss Gladys McLaughlin, cream cord silk with canary velvet and lace.

Miss Christie Robinson, white muslin, lace and roses.

Miss Cleveand, white silk with chiffon and turquoise blue velvet.

Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, black silk with jet and lace; diamonds.

Miss Markham, black silk trimmed with chiffon and lace.

Miss Helen Frink, organdie over white silk and roses.

Mrs. R. W. W. Frink, black silk with lace and crimson velvet on bodice.

Mrs. Mortimore, cream brocade with white lace and diamonds.

Mrs. R. V. Reid, white silk with pretty overdress of white, effectively trimmed with black velvet.

Miss Ella Payne looked dainty in a pretty dress of old rose silk.

Mrs. Currie, Amberst, black silk with chiffon and jet.

Miss Hall, black silk with jet and lace.

Miss Patton, white organdie, over white, lace and pearl ornaments.

Miss Jessie Gordon Forbes, white silk with insertion and lace.

Miss Thomson, embroidered net over white silk, pearl and lace trimming.

Miss Barnaby, white silk with gauze overdress.

Mrs. J. F. Barnes, white muslin over pink silk, velvet and pearls.

Miss Lou Hamm wore a becoming dress of white organdie, with pearl trimming and crimson roses.

Mrs. F. E. Hanington, white and lavender barege heavily trimmed with chiffon.

Mrs. H. H. McLean, black satin with jet trimmings.

Mrs. George Blair, black lace over crimson silk, corsage bouquet of crimson roses.

Miss Gerow, pink silk with chiffon and black velvet; flowers.

Miss Arnaud, pink satin chiffon and lace.

Miss Constance Arnaud, white silk with pretty overdress of chiffon and pearls.

Mrs. Arnaud, black and white silk with crimson silk and black velvet trimming.

Mrs. Frank Rankine, Nile green brocade, with lace and pink roses.

Mrs. J. Daniel, black satin with jet and pink chiffon.

Mrs. C. T. Gillespie, Nile green silk with crimson roses.

Mrs. Vernon McLellan, looked well in white satin with chiffon and pearl trimming, bouquet of carnations.

On Monday morning October 8th Holy Trinity church was the scene of a very beautiful ceremony, when the Rev. J. J. Walsh united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss M. Evelyn Lynch eldest daughter of Mr. David Lynch, and Mr. Wm. Lewis secretary-treasurer of the Robert Taylor Co., (Ltd) Halifax. Solemn nuptial mass was celebrated by the rector of the church, the full choir being present. Miss Lynch who is considered a very beautiful girl, wore a becoming travelling suit of grey cloth with hat to match. She was attended by her sister Miss Nellie Lynch, who wore a blue costume. The groom was supported by Mr. George Tracey of Halifax. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents on Paradise row where a sumptuous breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left by the Atlantic express on a short trip to Quebec, Montreal and other Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in Halifax. Many handsome and costly presents were received from friends in St. John and Halifax. The groom's present to the bride being a diamond ring while from her family she received a complete set of table silver.

Mr. Percy Sutherland of the C. P. R., staff at Montreal is in the city, spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sutherland, Orange street.

His Honor Judge Barker was host at a very pleasant dinner party, given at his residence Mount Pleasant avenue on Tuesday evening. The guests of honor on this occasion were Hon. Judge Langcher of Quebec, and Mr. D. C. Conson of Toronto.

Misses Annie and Mamie Rodgers left by I. S. S. Co. boat on Monday morning to visit friends in Boston and New York.

Mr and Mrs D. W. McCormick are spending a short vacation in Boston.

Mrs Robert Willis left on Saturday last by train for a visit to Boston and Providence R. I.

Mr and Mrs G. R. Cromwell of Metcalfe street will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of their wedding on Friday October 13th.

Mrs Arthur Sharp has returned to the city after summering at Hampton, and will stay with Mrs Coleman, 76 Sydney street for the winter.

Mr Fred Coates of the Street railway spent last week shooting and fishing in the vicinity of Grand Lake.

Mrs John A. Ashe of Oswego, N. Y. arrived here this week and is visiting her parents Mr and Mrs John McCann.

Mrs B. Deah has returned home from Halifax.

Mr Charles J. Riordan of Lawrence, Mass., who spent several weeks renewing old acquaintances here has returned home.

Mrs S. L. Day of Dalhousie was in the city this week.

Among those who registered at the High Commissioners, London, on Sept. 24th were Miss Helen Barker and her niece Miss Emma L. Barker of this city.

Rev. P. Fogarty, of Anagnone was in town this week on his way to Ireland.

Mr and Mrs Joseph Allison are home from St. Louis, wher they attended the wedding of their son Mr Walter Allison.

Mr. and Mrs W J Whitehead of Fredericton were in the city during the early part of the week.

Mrs J.E. Angevine was at home to her friends on Thursday of this week at 102 Leinster St.

Mr. R.B. Barker who was hurt in the Central Railway accident has recovered sufficiently from his injuries to be about on crutches. It will be some weeks before he is again able to resume his work on the road.

An event in which Annapolis loses one of her most charming and popular daughters took place there on the 10th instant at the Episcopal church; when Miss Lillian Sybil Harris of that place was married to Mr. Rupert Prat of St. John, a representative of F. H. Estabrooks. The church was attractively decorated for the occasion, the bride being their leading member for several years. The bride and bridesmaids were charmingly attired and were a very stunning party. The groom was assisted by Mr. Harry Nase of this city, while the bride was attended by Miss Carrie Harris, her sister. The other bridesmaids were Miss Hall of Halifax, Miss Prat and Miss Grace Harris of Annapolis.

The ushers were Mr. Richard Porter and Louis Harris of Halifax and Mr. Fred W. Harris, Jr. of Annapolis. After the ceremony the drawing room of "Hawthorne Villa" were thrown open to the guests where they sat down to a very dainty wedding breakfast.

The bride received a very large number of beautiful gifts testifying to the esteem in which she is held.

Among the guests were Miss Cornwell of Ithaca, New York, Mr and Mrs Wilcox of Windsor and Mrs Thompson of Wolfville.

Mr and Mrs Prat intend taking up their residence in Fredericton.

Mrs W C Bowden left on Wednesday for Portland Oregon, to visit her daughter Mrs Dr Babbitt.

Mr and Mrs Sandy Thompson celebrated the fiftenth anniversary of their marriage Monday evening with about forty of their friends, the evening being pleasantly spent in whist playing and other games. The friends left Mr. and Mrs Thompson much good will, also a number of beautiful individual gifts in cut glass.

Dr. Walter Bonnel left on Wednesday afternoon on a short trip to Boston.

Mr A Bertram Harrison, son of the late W F Harrison, intended to go to New York on Thursday to accept a position that had been offered to him, but the severe rains delayed his departure, and it is not probable now that he will go before Monday.

Malcolm B King, son of Senator King of Chipman, Queens Co., was in the city this week en route for Cranbrook, B. C., where his brother Dr. J M King is now located. It is probable that he will remain there where the prospects extended to him are somewhat alluring. His parents have recently returned from this western district and are quite enthusiastic about the country.

Mr. Roy Vanwart son of D. N Vanwart, the Charlotte St grocer left on Wednesday afternoon for Missoula, Montana where he has obtained a permanent and lucrative position.

Mr John McAvity and family returned to the city this week after spending the summer in Lakeside.

The friends of Miss Lizzie White of Paradise Row will be glad to know that she has quite recovered from her recent illness and is able to be at work again.

Rev. H. F. and Mrs. Waring have taken up house keeping in one of the newly put up houses on Waterloo street. Mr. and Mrs. Waring since their coming to St. John have boarded on Paddock street but will soon be able to receive friends at their own home.

Mr. Hutchins formerly organist of St. Paul's, Halifax, is expected in town in about a week to give one of his delightful recitals. He will also go to Fredericton.

Rev. Mr. Kendrick the new priest of the Mission church will arrive in town on Tuesday next.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clayton of Halifax are in town visiting friends.

Rev. Father Davenport left on Wednesday by C P R for Toronto where he will take up his new duties in St. Thomas' church. The reverend gentleman will be greatly missed in our city.

Mr. John Golding returned last week from a short visit to Presque Isle, Maine.

Miss Margaret Gray has returned from an extended visit in Fredericton.

Mrs. Bliss McLeod entertained a number of her friends at five o'clock tea on Monday, at her home on Princess street.

Mrs. T H Gilbert and children have returned to Gagetown.

The Misses Jenkins who have been visiting relatives in the city, have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Miss Maggie Belyea of Gagetown, is the guest of Mrs Edwards, Main street.

Mrs. E S Haines of St. Marys, is visiting her old home, Main street.

The friends of Mrs. J V Russell will be sorry to learn of the severe illness of her little daughter Dolly.

Mr. E Clinton Brown, the Golden Ball Chemist, is in New York on a pleasure trip.

A very quiet yet interesting event took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr W C Dunham, No 58 Waterloo Street when Rev Ira Smith, pastor of the Leinster Street Baptist Church joined in Wedlock, Captain G D Belyea of Wickham, Queens County and Miss Sophia A Belyea, daughter of Mr James W Belyea of McDonald's Point Queens Co. The bride who was unattended was becomingly attired in a tailor made (travelling suit of gray with hat to match. After the ceremony the happy couple with their friends sat down to a repast after which they embarked for their future home in Wickham.

The bride who is a general favorite was the recipient of a large number of useful and handsome wedding presents.

Miss Hilda and Kathleen Bourne of Woodstock, are visiting Miss Beardsley, matron of the Old Ladies' Home.

Miss Nellie Driscoll has returned from Boston, after a pleasant visit spent with friends.

Miss Margaret Black has returned from Florenceville, where she has been visiting her friend Miss Marie McCain.

On Monday evening Mr and Mrs T B Titus, celebrated the 10th anniversary of their marriage. A number of friends called during the evening and presented them with a handsome banquet lamp as a slight token of the esteem in which they are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Currie of Amberst were in the city during the week. On Wednesday evening they were guests at the Neptune Rowing Club ball.

At Trinity Church on Wednesday afternoon Rev J. A. Richardson united in marriage Mr. John W.

THE S. CARSLY CO. LIMITED.

Notre Dame Street. Montreal's Greatest Store. Oct. 1900.

ORDER BY MAIL.

Shopping by Mail made easy and pleasant by the use of the Big Store's

New Winter Catalogue

JUST PUBLISHED. Containing 264 pages descriptive matter fully illustrated. Sent to Any Address in Canada POST FREE.

Our success consists in anticipating the wants of the public and meeting them. How well we do this is shown in the thousands of mail orders coming to us from villages and towns in this and other Provinces. We saw the need of people who wanted to buy at The Big Store without coming to Montreal and we met them more than half way.

SEND A TRIAL ORDER AND YOU'LL BE CONVINCED. Also pay for one of the Prizes offered in our Catalogue.

THE S. CARSLY CO. LIMITED.

1765 to 1783 Notre Dame Street, 184 to 194 St. James Street, Montreal

WHITE'S For Sale by all First-Class Dealers in Confectionery. Caramel Snowflakes. Don't take inferior goods; the best do not cost any more than inferior goods.

CORTCELLI SILK CO., Ltd. St. Johns, P. Q. Embroidery silks make beautiful work, the product of your Summer days are embroidering days. The 376 shades of BRAINERD & ARMSTRONG Asiatic Dye Each perfect, lasting shade put up in our Patent Holder. Our 'BLUE BOOK' tells exactly how to do so different leaves and flowers—sent on receipt of three tags or a one cent stamp.

When You Want a Real Tonic 'ST. AGUSTINE' ask for (Registered Brand) of Pelee Wine. GAGETOWN, Sept. 21, 1899.

E. G. SCOVIL, — 'Having used both we think the St. Augustine preferable to Vin Mariani as a tonic. JOHN C. CLOWES' E. G. SCOVIL, Tealand Commission Merchant, 62 Union Street.

Allen and Miss Bertie Kirkpatrick, both of this city. The bride was becomingly attired in blue with white satin trimmings and was given away by her brother, Mr. Walter Kirkpatrick. FREDERICTON. [Progress is for sale in Fredericton by W. H. T. Fenety's and J. H. Hawthorne.] Oct. 10.—Mrs Whitehead's tea on Saturday afternoon given in honor of her guest Miss Browne, of Houlton, was quite a brilliant affair, and a rather new departure was the presence of a goodly number of gentlemen who really enjoyed the spicy chat which always accompanies a cup of delicious tea. Mr and Mrs Whitehead received their guests as they entered the drawing room, Miss Browne received with the Misses Whitehead. The dreariness of the day without was all shut out by the drawn curtains and the bright open fire and prettily shaded lights made everything so cosy and pretty within. In the dining-room Mrs. Steeves and Miss Mary Thompson dispensed tea and coffee, Miss Nell and Miss Muriel Partridge looked after the comfort of the guests but of course the gentlemen gallantly waited upon the ladies while they sipped their tea. Ices were served later in the drawing-rooms. Mrs. Powys entertained a large party at Afternoon tea on Friday. Mrs. L. W. Johnston went to Boston on Friday morning where she will spend a month with her daughter Miss Bona. Miss Maggie Babbit of Newton hospital, is home on a visit to her parents. After a pleasant visit with his family and friends here, Mr. Frank J. Sherman left for his post duty at Havana, Cuba, on Monday. Quite the nicest dance of the season was held at the "Club house" on Friday evening, the gentlemen of the club having been at more than ordinary pains to make everything go. The large room up over the club-room and ball room was beautifully fitted up for a cosy sitting out time, all the decorations showing the patriotic spirit of the times. Winters orchestra provided the music. Refreshments were served during the evening. The chaperons were Mrs Foster and Mrs Allen. Miss Crookshank and Miss Frankie Tibbit leave for Boston on Saturday on a two weeks visit. Miss Habberty of Hyde Park, is here on a visit to her Aunt, Mrs Campbell. Hon Mr Dunn, Surveyor General is at the Queen. Mrs F J Tweedie is in the city a guest at the Queen. Friends will be sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mabel Edgecombe. CONTINUED ON EIGHTH PAGE. Umbrellas Made, Re-covered, Repaired Duval 17 Waterloo.

This choice Cocoa makes a most delightful beverage for Breakfast or Supper. Being exceedingly nutritious, easily digested and assimilated, it forms a valuable food for invalids and children.