TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All dangers of colds are on each box.

"There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream."

It was meant to be so when woman was ordained man's helpmeet. But it was never meant that love's dream should have so sad an awakening. It is due chiefly to ignorance that young women are so rudely awakened from the dream of love. They enter on the married state without physical or mental preparation. They are entirely unaware of the great physiological change suggested by the one word "marriage."

Every young woman should be prepared for that change. There should be no neglect of irregularities. The perfect health of the peculiarly womanly organs should be the daily care. Thousands of women who entered in marriage unprepared, and passed from irregularities to debilitating drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness, have been altogether cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This great medicine is not a cure-all, but a specific for the chronic diseases peculiar to women. It does one thing perfectly; it makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"For two years I had been a sufferer from chronic diseases and female weakness," writes Mrs. Allen A. Robson, of 1125 Rodman Street, Philadelphia, Pa. "I had two doctors, who only relieved me for a time. My niece advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did, and have been highly benefited. I am now a strong woman, and can recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to all similarly afflicted."

KENTVILLE.

Aug. 15.—With flags flying and the town generally in holiday attire. Miss Evelyn Blanchard Giffins, daughter of D. F. Giffins, general manager of the D. A. R., was united in marriage to Lawrence Arthur Lovett of Liverpool, N. S., a young lawyer who seemingly has a brilliant career in front of him.

The pretty church of St. James was crowded long before the hour fixed for the ceremony. The decorations were exquisite. The bride entered the church leaning on her father's arm. She wore a bridal gown of white satin entaine, with valuable pearl and old lace trimmings. The veil was also ornamented with pearls and a crown of orange blossoms. The bride was attended by her cousins, Miss Roberta and Love Blanchard. Their dresses were of pure white, covered with old lace. They also carried handsome bouquets of roses. Dr. Dickie Murray of Halifax supported the groom.

The ushers were F. Chipman, F. W. Wickwire and A. A. Thompson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Brock.

The church was crowded and the roadway for some distance was choked with the well-wishers of the bride and bridegroom. The scene at the departure of the west-bound "Flying Bluenose," by which Mr. and Mrs. Lovett left Kentville, was one without precedent in the history of Kentville.

The locomotive was gaily adorned with flowers and flags, and with the legend, "Good luck" in front. The citizens of Kentville turned out en masse and gave the happy pair a royal send-off, which was further emphasized by a fusillade of exploding signals on the track. West of the station an arch of flags has been erected.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome presents. The employees of the D. A. R. presented Mrs. Lovett with an entire outfit of drawing room furniture, including piano and an exquisite painted table bearing an appropriate inscription.

Does Tea Induce Sleeplessness?

No; good pure tea, properly steeped will never prevent a healthy person from sleeping—on the contrary, a tea like that sold in Teddy's Elephant Brand tackets, is a nerve tonic, and distinctly beneficial.
